THE BRITISH RADICALS

Expected to Oppose the Government's South African Policy.

ONLY FIVE THOUSAND RESERVES

Will Be Retained With the Colors—The Authorities Have Contracted For Eight Months' Supply of Bread and Other Military Requisites.

London, Oct. 10.—The dearth of news since yesterday afternoon from the Cape, on which all attention is riveted, is poorly compensated for by the mass of minor details published concerning the preparations for the dispatch of the army corps and speculation as to the length and character of the debates when parliament meets. In official circles there is said to be apprehension that the radicals will offer protracted opposition to the government's policy in South Africa, which will possibly make prorogation and Christmas near neighbors.

Lord Salisbury's whip to the lords, issued last night, says parliament will deal with matters of grave moment.

The latest dispatch from Lourenzo Marques, relating to the chasing of the the steamer Guelph by the cruiser Philomel, caused some stir, especially as it was announced that the Guelph had landed at Durban 414 cases of ammunition for the Boers. There is a pretty general feeling that ammunition ought not to be allowed to be furwarded. The Pall Mall Gazette, referring to the matter, says:

"There is some hope that the ammunition will be seized at Durban, as Natal possesses a ministry whose loyalty is unquestioned. Had not the Filipinos been given arms by Americans with which to fight Spain, General Otis would long ago have been enjoying his ease at home. Similarly with the Boers, we may have to pay heavily in blood for the apathy the Cape government has exhibited in this matter."

Lord Wantage, president of the British Red Cross society, will shortly issue an appeal for contributions to aid in the work of the society, which, he says, will provide two hospital railway trains and a hospital ship. The Duke of Westminster and Lord Wantage have given £1,000 each, and Baron Rothschild has raised £11,000 among his friends.

Some indication of the war office estimate of the duration of the campaign is given by the fact that the authorities have contracted for eight months' supply of bread and other military requisites rendered necessary by the absence of the bulk of the army service corps, whom the war office thus evidently calculates will be at home again by the beginning of May.

It appears that although the war office called up 25,000 reservists, only the pick of them, some 5,000, will be retained with the colors. The authorities are pleased at the application of a number of reservists belonging to the unmobilized classes who are volunteering for foreign service. The war office announces that wives of reservists will get six pence and each child two pence daily while the husbands and fathers are retained with the colors.

The scarcity of news from South Africa appears to be due to a heavy block on the telegraph lines, which may mean that the lines are occupied by official dispatches, and that negotiations are being actively carried on. From Durban it is announced that no code messages will be accepted for any part of South Africa without the production of the codes.

The Daily News this morning publishes the report of an interview with Bertram Mitford, the South African novelist, who spent 25 years among the Cape Dutch, in which Mr. Mitford predicts that victory will only be attained by the British after a long, bloody and costly war. He says: "The Boers will fight like devils. The Jameson raid roused them, and ever since they have been preparing for war and practicing shooting, and they will resist to the bitter end. I don't believe the Boers will incite the natives against England, but it is impossible to say what the natives will do. The Basutos are loyal to the queen, but hate the Free State. Though it would be a bad thing for white supremacy if the Basutos were to rise and conquer the Free State, yet it would be hardly possible to prevent them. The Swazis are equally bitter against the Transvaal, and it would need little encouragement to lead them to attack the republic. I don't think there is any danger from the Zulus, but the Matabele and the Nashonas might try to repeat the horrors of 1896. All the published estimates of the fighting strength of the Boers are exaggerated. It does not exceed 15,000 at the outside."

Advices from Pretoria say the Netherlands railway management asserts that over 800 carriages and trucks belonging to the Transvaal are now in the British colony. According to these advices the burghers are still arriving at Sandspruit, and it is estimated that 13,000 are now concentrated there. They are becoming very much dissatisfied because of their inactivity, and heavy rains and bitterly cold weather render the conditions very trying for horses and men.

President Kruger, in the course of an interview yesterday, said he regarded the situation as very grave, and considered it very difficult to predict coming events. The landing of British reinforcements in Natal, he said, did not trouble him, as he had full faith in the Almighty.

President Kruger is celebrating his 75th birthday today.

Consumption Cured.

BROUGHT BACK FROM THE GRAVE.

Last November Mr. Joseph James, painter, of 325 W. Pearl St., Indianapolis, Ind., was at death's door with quick consumption. Wasted to a skeleton; his lungs a mass of ulceration; his death was hourly awaited by his doctor and family. He was kept in a constant stupor with opium. A friend, thinking to relieve his terrible cough, gave him a bottle of Brazilian Balm. Seeing its wonderful effect, the doctor advised its continued use. Mr. James soon after dismissed his doctor, and depended on the Balm alone. His recovery was rapid and complete, and in February he returned to work. His lungs are sound, and his weight greater than at any time in his life. His recovery is regarded as almost a miracle.

COMMA BACILLUS.

In consumption beware of cough mixtures and prescriptions that contain opium. Opium paralizes the nerves, and gives the comma bacillus a good chance to destroy the lungs. It is always fatal. Brazilian Balm does not contain a trace of any opiate, but stimulates the nerves with new life and power, destroys the microbe, and restores all that is left of the diseased lungs to a sound and healthy state which no other remedy has ever been known to accomplish.

CHICAGO'S FESTIVAL.

Many Dignitaries at the Banquet in the Auditorium.

TRIBUTE OF SECRETARY LONG

To the Many Unknown Heroes of the War—The Work of Wainwright and the Gloucester Commended—Premier Laurier's Friendly Speech.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—Chicago's great Auditorium never held a greater gathering than last night, when the Chicago day banquet was held within its walls under the auspices of the fall festival committee. The great stage, upon which 1,000 people can easily find standing room, had been enlarged and a great floor built out over the seats of the parquet, quadrupling the floor space of the stage. President McKinley, who was the guest of honor, sat at a raised table on the right of Melville E. Stone, the toastmaster.

Other distinguished guests were at the same table, among them being Vice President Don Ignacio Mariscal of Mexico, Premier Wilfrid Laurier of Canada, General John C. Black, Governor John R. Tanner, Mayor Carter H. Harrison, Senor Manuel De Aspiroz, Secretaries Hay, Gage, Smith, Long, Hitchcock and Wilson, Attorney General Griggs, Generals David B. Henderson, Merritt, Anderson and Alger, Carl Dentzer, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch, minister to Brazil, Charles Page Bryan, W. T. Buchanan, Japanese Minister Jutaro Komura and Senators Mason, Allison, McMillan, McEnery, Penrose and Cullom.

The opening hour of the banquet was set for 6 o'clock, but the streets were so densely packed by the great throng that had come down to witness the laying of the corner stone of the new federal building and the afternoon parade and remained in great part to see the parade of the evening that it was with difficulty one could make his way along the streets, and as a consequence it was nearly an hour later than that originally set when the banquet was in full blast.

The material part of the banquet occupied two hours, and it was nearly 10 o'clock when Mr. Stone rapped for order, and brought the intellectual portion of the program to the front in an eloquent address. He was followed by Governor Tanner, Mayor Harrison, Senator McCullom, President McKinley, Premier Laurier of Canada, Vice President Mariscal of Mexico, Secretary Long, D. B. Henderson and General Thomas M. Anderson.

Secretary Long evoked thunderous of applause by his tribute to the unknown heroes. He said in part:

"You cheer for the men behind the guns; you give swords and banquets here and there to an admiral—and both most richly deserve the tribute—but remember that all up and down the line there are individuals whose names never come to our ears, or if so, are already half forgotten, who have earned unfading laurels. No man in the navy has rendered such service, however great, that others were not ready to fill the place and do as well. The navy is full of heroes unknown to fame. Who repeats the names of the young officers who pleaded for Hobson's chance to risk his life in the hull and hell of the Merrimac? Who mentions the scores of seamen who begged to be of the immortal seven who were his companions in that forlorn hope? In the long watch before Santiago the terror of our great battleships was the two Spanish torpedo boat destroyers. Yet when the great battle came it was the unprotected Gloucester, a converted yacht, the former plaything and pleasure boat of a summer vacation, which without hesitation or turning attacked these demons of the sea and sunk them both. I have always thought it the most heroic and gallant individual instance of fighting during the war. It was as if some light clad youth, with no defense but his sword, threw himself into the arena with armored gladiators and by his very dash and spirit laid them low. And yet who has given a sword or spread a feast to that purest flame of chivalrous heroism, Richard Wainwright?"

Premier Laurier, in the course of his address, made this reference to international disputes:

"I am proud to say, in the presence of the chief executive of the United States, that it is the belief of the Canadian government that we should make a supreme effort to better our relations and make the government of President McKinley and the present government of Canada, with the assent of Great Britain, so to work together as to remove all causes of dissension between us. And regarding the commission which sat first in the old city of Quebec and sat next in Washington. We met a stumbling block in the question of the Alaska frontier. Well, let me say here and now, the commission couldn't settle that question and referred it to their particular governments, and they are now dealing with it. May I be permitted to say here and now that we do not desire one inch of your land, but if I state, however, that we want to hold our land, will that be an American sentiment, I want to know? However, though that would not be an American sentiment, though it would not be a British or Canadian sentiment, I am here to say above all my fellow countrymen that we want not to stand upon the extreme limits of our rights. We are ready to give and to take. But though we have many little bickerings of that kind, I speak my whole mind, and I believe I speak the mind of all you gentlemen, when I say that after all, when we go down to the bottom of our hearts we will find that there is between us a true genuine affection. There are no two nations today on the face of the globe so united as Great Britain and the United States of America."

The most spectacular feature of the entire fall festival, the parade of all nations, took place last night, and was viewed by thousands, the streets in the down town district being literally a solid mass of humanity for the entire length of the parade. The parade, in which marched representatives of 14 countries, including Germany, Venezuela, Switzerland, Brazil, the Netherlands, Austria and Hungary, Scotland, Armenia, Asyria, Belgium, China, Italy and the United States, included nearly thirty floats, some of them extremely beautiful and novel. The one that attracted the most attention was the great Chinese dragon, which was shipped here from San Francisco for the all-nations parade. The dragon, which was nearly three hundred feet long, was carried on the shoulders of 200 men, and in its immense jaws and nostrils were burned red and green fire in quantities that lit up the parade for blocks.

Among the floats were two in the German section, one representing the triumph of music, the other Germany's gifts to this country, both beautifully illuminated with calcium lights. In the Netherlands section a float represented an old Dutch windmill, with women in the bridal costume of 300 years ago and Alpine floats representing scenes in the Alps.

SOLDIERS IN A RIOT.

Nearly a Full Company Placed in the Guard House.

St. Paul, Oct. 10.—A riot prevailed in the barracks of Company L, of the Eighth infantry, at Fort Snelling, Sunday night. Yesterday, with only a dozen exceptions, the company was locked up in the guard house. Two men are in the hospital with severe injuries and another, who is under arrest, is in need of constant attention. It is not possible to ascertain how many others are injured, as the officers of the regiment deem the affair a disgrace and are reticent about the occurrence.

Corporal Fonner reported that he had been robbed by Privates Stout, Kelly and Brazille while on a trip to St. Paul, and members of his company decided to avenge him. On the return of the privates they were assaulted, Stout being very roughly handled. A general fight ensued among the men. Captain Jones, of Company K, whose quarters are next to Company L's, had been aroused by the clamor, and called out the guard.

Private Stout was removed to the hospital, together with two others, who suffered less serious injuries than he did. Yesterday he was removed to the guard house, swathed in bandages.

CORNELIUS VANDERBILT'S WILL.

It Will Give His Two Eldest Sons Over $50,000,000 Apiece.

New York, Oct. 10.—The Tribune says: A close friend of the Vanderbilt family yesterday made the following prediction as to what the contents of the will of Cornelius Vanderbilt would prove to be: "Mrs. Vanderbilt will get the Fifth avenue residence and the 'Breakers' at Newport for life, and an income of $500,000 a year to keep them up. These houses and the income allotted to Mrs. Vanderbilt will at her death pass to the third son, Reginald. The five children will receive $10,000,000 apiece, and the residue of the estate will be divided into two equal parts, one of which will be given to Cornelius and the other to Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt. Mr. Vanderbilt was, I think, far richer than he was popularly supposed to be, and I believe the shares of his two oldest sons will be over $50,000,000 apiece."

The Weak Spot.

When a boiler explodes carrying death and destruction with it, every body says "Why, we thought it was strong enough; it must have had a weak spot somewhere!" When a man who has the outward appearance of being sound and strong suddenly falls a prey to disease, his friends exclaim: "why we thought he was all right; He must have had a weak spot somewhere."

The fact is, almost everybody has a weak spot somewhere. Death and disease are always looking for weak spots. If your stomach or your liver won't do its proper work, if your body fails to get its full nourishment from the food you eat, and your brain loses part of the sleep it ought to have, no matter how big your frame and muscular your limbs may be, you will give out; disease will find the weak spot, and nature will give way.

"I wish to say to the world that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has proved a great blessing to me as I firmly believe I should be in a very bad state now if I had not taken it," writes Mrs. Ellen R. Bacon, of Shutesbury, Franklin Co., Mass., in a courteous communication to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. "Prior to September 1897, I had doctored for my stomach trouble for several years, going through a course of treatment without any real benefit. In September 1897, I had very sick spells and grew worse; could eat but little. I commenced in September 1897, to take Dr. Pierce's medicine and in a short time I could eat and work. I have gained twenty pounds in two months."

This glorious "Discovery" gives the stomach and liver power to do their natural work regularly and completely. It makes healthy blood and steady nerves. It builds up the weak spots sound and strong. It is the only medicine that can be relied upon to accomplish this promptly and thoroughly.

Constipation is nine times in ten the beginning and one of the first symptoms of dangerous diseases. When this tendency is present Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used in conjunction with the "Discovery."
