

McPhail Pianos.

For 60 years made on honor—Sold on merit. Strictly High Grade.

NEW ENGLAND PIANOS

—AND OTHER MAKES.—

Sold For Cash or Leased on Time.

J. P. Williams & Son, FURNITURE AND MUSIC STORE.
13 S. Main St., Shenandoah, Pa.

GO TO O'HARA'S

FOR FINE LIVERY

AND UNDERTAKING

OPEN DAY AND NIGHT. TELEPHONE CONNECTIONS.

Cor. Lloyd and White Sts., SHENANDOAH, and Main Street, MAHANAOY CITY.

BED ROOM SLIPPERS MADE OF COLUMBIA GERMAN-TOWN WOOL, ARE JUST THE THING FOR WINTER WEAR.

A Full Line of "COLUMBIA" Wools of all Kinds in Stock—You Cannot Get Them Anywhere Else.

Morgan's Fancy Bazar, 23 North Main St.

PAINTS!

142—One Gallon Lucas Ready Mixed Paints
97—Half Gallon Lucas Ready Mixed Paints
115—Quarter Gallon Lucas Ready Mixed Paints

Reduced From $1.25 to $1.00 a Gal. Can.

Some are wet. Some are smoked. But the paper label is the only part of the paint damaged. It will pay you to buy now and keep until ready to use.

Swalm's Hardware Store.

The New Clothing Store.

Come and see the fine clothing you can be attired in for a small amount of money. Our garment is new and stylish. No shopworn goods. Every garment is guaranteed. We have just received the finest line of Overcoats at very low prices. A purchase means a saving to you from $2.00 to $5.00.

Our shoes for fall and winter wear are a splendid assortment. All new, serviceable and stylish.

Underwear of all Kinds.

THE NEW STORE,
38 North Main Street.
Watson Building. HARRY LEVIT, Prop.

New Carpets.

New Oil Cloths.

New Linoleum.

A full line of new spring styles in

Tapestry,
Velvet and Body Brussels.

INGRAINS.—New Styles, Extra Qualities.

RAG CARPET.—All Kinds and Prices.

At KEITER'S.

LOOKS LIKE WAR.

The Boers To-day Crossed the Border Into British Territory.

Special to EVENING HERALD.
London, Oct. 11.—The time limit given the British government to comply with the demands of the Boers expires to-day at five o'clock, and everything points to open hostilities in South Africa.

Despatches received to-day say that the Boers have crossed the border into British territory, and this is an indication that the Boers will strike the first blow. These despatches have caused much excitement here.

DR. BRADY'S ESCAPE.

Saved From Injury by the Timely Halt of a Trolley Car.

Dr. S. H. Brady, of Lost Creek, had a narrow escape from very serious, if not fatal, injuries yesterday afternoon by falling in front of an electric railway car.

The doctor had attended a patient at Brownsville and was on his way home. To catch a trolley he stepped on the platform of the Kohring colliery, across which the track passes. Dr. Brady attempted to get on the front platform, but his foot slipped and he was thrown forward upon the track. Fortunately the motorman had the car under control and stopped it just as the front wheel grazed one of the doctor's hips. Dr. Brady suffered no ill effects from his adventure, but he had a close call.

New window shades 6 cents, 10 cents, 14 cents, up to $6.00, at Fricker's carpet store.

Marriages.

At nine o'clock this morning Thomas Dixon, of Lost Creek, and Iris Girardville, were united into the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony took place in St. Joseph's church, Girardville. Rev. McCullough, the pastor, officiated.

William Walker and Miss Lizzie DeFrohn, both of Mahanoy City, were married at the residence of the bride's parents here last night. Rev. Reed, of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. Frank Hendricks and Miss Mabel Dennis were the groomsmen and bridesmaid, respectively.

The wedding bells again pealed forth their sweet chiming in the Church of the Holy Family, on North Chestnut street, this morning. The nuptials were those of George Decker, of North West street, and Miss Louisa Schmidt, of North Main street. They were married with high mass, Rev. Schuetzhofer officiating. George Schmidt, brother of the bride, and Miss Carrie Decker, sister of the groom, supported the couple. A wedding feast followed the ceremony at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Decker will go to housekeeping on North West street.

Don't miss "Girvin's" special sale of toilet sets this week. 10-9-11

Police Were Missing.

The large crowd assembled in front of the Hotel Ferguson last evening blocked the sidewalks, but the only policeman in evidence was Officer Heaton, who opened the way for the procession from the depot to the hotel, then to the theatre. And for this, we are informed he was reprimanded by Chief Murphy. If this be true the Chief needs a little of the same medicine, and should not allow his political prejudices to interfere with his sworn duties as an officer. The Chief has the floor.

The best made-up tailor-made suits for ladies and men in Schuylkill county, at THE FAMOUS.

Mr. Hoehler Entertained.

Last evening several butchers tendered their fellow knights of the cleaver, Phil Hoehler, a surprise party at his home on West Centre street. They feasted and enjoyed themselves immensely. Mr. Hoehler was completely overwhelmed with surprise when his friends called upon him. He entertained his guests by showing them the "meatroom."

Buy your oil cloths and window shades at "Girvin's." 10-9-11

Wanted a hearing.

Thomas Mangum, of Mahanoy City, employed as fire boss at the Maple Hill colliery, was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Justice Shoemaker on complaint of Anthony Szymanski, who alleges that he was beaten in the Maple Hill mines for refusing to give Mangum five dollars for getting him work in the mines. Mangum went before Justice May at Mahanoy City and entered $500 bail for trial at court.

The largest assortment in cloths for gents' suits, pants and overcoats to select from at THE FAMOUS.

Christian Endeavors.

The fourteenth convention of the Schuylkill County Union of Christian Endeavor will be held in St. John's English Lutheran and the First Presbyterian churches, at Mahanoy City, on Friday and Saturday, October 20th and 21st. For the last two or three months the Joint Committee of the various societies of that town have labored assiduously for the success of the convention.

Go to Girvin's for pretty table and banquet lamps. 10-9-11

Phil. Council's New Position.

Phil. Council, of Girardville, formerly clerk to the County Commissioners, has accepted a position from the Semanton School of Correspondence, and will be located at Dr. Bois, Clearfield county. He left yesterday to assume his new duties.

Dancing School Opening.

Dancing school will be held at Ferguson's front hall every Wednesday evening by the Edinboro Social Club. All welcome. The school will be opened to-night. Music by a first class orchestra. 10-10-11

Revival Services.

The revival services in the Calvary Baptist church will be continued this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Morgan will preach. Gospel hymns and solos will be rendered during the evening. All will be made welcome.

Every suit bought ready-made or made-to-order, is kept in repair and pressed free of charge for one year by THE FAMOUS.

No Paper for Joyce.

Tom Joyce will not re-establish the Black Diamond, as has been stated, but will engage in the plumbing and tin-smithing business at Mahanoy City. He has disposed of his printing material, and it is now part of the equipment of the Mahanoy City Daily Record.

Night School.

Bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, penmanship, arithmetic, McClann's Business College, Dougherty's Hall, Shenandoah, Pa. Opens Tuesday evening, Oct. 10, 1899.

Drowsiness is dispelled by BERKHAM'S PILLS.

ALL PRAISE FOR BARNETT

The Gallant Colonel Prevented by Illness From Coming Here.

BUT HIS TOURING STAFF CAME!

A Large Meeting at Ferguson's Theatre Addressed by Members of the "Fighting Teeth." Gen. Latta and Major Killian—Philippine Question Discussed.

The visit of the Tenth Pennsylvania Regiment delegation to town last night was very satisfactory alike to the committee of arrangements and an agreeable surprise to those who formed the visiting party, yet it was not what it would have been had Lieutenant-Colonel Barnett been present. Unfortunately that gentleman was stricken by illness while at Lebanon on Monday night and his physician advised his speedy return to Philadelphia, leaving the party to carry out the itinerary without him.

When the party arrived here last evening it comprised Capt. Thomas J. Crago, Major and Surgeon George W. Neff, Captain Henry W. Watson, Adjutant Oliver J. Scott, Lieutenant Charles F. S. Kahan, of the First Nebraska; General James W. Latta, Secretary of Internal Affairs of Pennsylvania; Charles W. Campbell, of the Philadelphia Inquirer; Charles E. Darworth, of the Philadelphia Press; Derival Phillips, of the Pittsburg Dispatch; and Charles F. S. Kahan, of Philadelphia. On its journey from Pottsville the party was augmented by Sub-Treasurer John F. Finney, ex-Congressman C. N. Brumm, Republican County Chairman Charles E. Quail, Hon. Elias Davis, ex-Congressman Charles A. Snyder, Prothonotary James H. Strahan, and the following candidates on the Republican county ticket: John F. Sweeney, candidate for Clerk of the Courts; Horace Reber, candidate for County Commissioner; Frank C. Reese, candidate for Register; Will S. Leih, candidate for Prothonotary; and C. E. Berger, Esq., candidate for District Attorney.

The P. & R. Railway train bearing the party arrived here shortly after six o'clock and the visitors were escorted to the four carriages in waiting by the following reception committee: Messrs. Paul Hock, Daniel Bodes, D. R. James, John T. Lee and C. T. Straghan. The escorting column was headed by the great band, which was followed by the members of the Republican club who dispersed fireworks along the route of parade to the Hotel Ferguson. The route lay along Centre street, to White, to Oak, to Main, and thence to the hotel. Upon arrival there the visitors dined and an informal reception at the hotel followed.

At 7:30 o'clock Ferguson's theatre was thrown open for the meeting. The interior of the edifice was elaborately decorated with the national colors, the skillful hand of E. H. Morgan being splendidly reflected in the arrangement of the emblems, on and about the stage.

After the Grand band discoursed a stirring national air in its usual artistic manner, County Chairman Quail introduced Mr. William H. Lewis as chairman of the meeting. The selection proved an excellent one. Mr. Lewis made a brief but very graceful address in which he congratulated the honor conferred upon him, and also made a most pertinent appeal to the patriotism of the audience, after which the vice-presidents of the meeting, as published in last evening's HERALD, were announced.

The first speaker called upon was Gen. James W. Latta. His address was directed to the support of the Republican state ticket, and vigorously resented the suggestion that American control in the Philippines be withdrawn.

Major George W. Neff followed with an address in similar strain and gave an interesting account of the "Fighting Teeth's" journey to the Philippines, the wretched condition in which the Filipinos were found upon arrival there, the trials of the regiment on the outskirts of Manila and on the firing lines, and the excellent work done by Col. Barnett as an officer of the regiment. Major Neff scored Aguinaldo, the insurgent, as a crafty, shrewd, vicious demagogue as unworthy of the sympathy and consideration some people and newspapers of the United States are endeavoring to accord him. Such overtures, he said, encourage Aguinaldo to prosecute an uncalculated and unworthy campaign. Should the United States withdraw from the islands it would not be more than six months when feudalism would reign there and the many tribes would rise against each other. The lives and property of these people must be protected; the people must be redeemed and regenerated.

Major J. N. Killian was the last speaker. He spoke of Col. Barnett as a comrade in arms in the Philippines. He stated that "all the interest I have in politics in Pennsylvania is nothing else than a desire that you give Col. Barnett from $50,000 to the end of his majority as Treasurer of Pennsylvania." He eulogized Col. Barnett as an able, conscientious, humane and loyal officer and citing incidents in the Philippine campaign demonstrating that Col. Barnett is as brave a man as he was an efficient officer. A reception on his part followed Major Killian's address.

There were no addresses during the evening as in pursuance of an understanding arrived at Pottsville yesterday that the meeting was not to be considered as a formal opening of the county campaign, and that it be kept apart from the state movement for the present.

The state party left town this morning, on the 10:12 Lehigh Valley Railroad train, for Hasleton, the trip to Ashland and Girardville having been abandoned. The party was not due at Hasleton until to-morrow morning. To-night there will be a meeting at Hasleton. There is considerable uncertainty as to the future movements of the party. Should Col. Barnett sufficiently recover to be able to rejoin the party next week the program of future dates will be carried out. Should Col. Barnett fail to recuperate, it is likely that the party will abandon its tour of the state.

The famous are headquarters for the celebrated Rosemont hat, the best for the money in America.

Deaths and Funerals.

Bernard Grosser, a well known resident of Leaville, died at his home there yesterday. He formerly lived at Ashland, and a widow and several children survive him.

Emma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schlicher, of Pottsville, died yesterday after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Charles Lyman died at her home in Pottsville last evening. She was a widow and a sister of Mrs. Fred. Wildermuth. Funeral Thursday afternoon.

Frank W. Moyer, a well known resident of the county seat, died suddenly last evening from a paralytic stroke. He is survived by a wife. The deceased was chief of police at Pottsville about eight years ago.

Henry R. Snyder died at his home in Frankville early yesterday morning after a lingering illness of about one year. He was 59 years old and leaves a widow and two married daughters. He was in the employ of the Philadelphia & Reading Railway as agent at Mahanoy Place for about fifteen years. He was compelled to relinquish his duties last winter owing to ill-health. His funeral will take place on Saturday, the 14th inst., leaving Frankville at 2:30 a. m. for Mohrsville, where interment will be made. He was a charter member of Shenandoah Council No. 1877, Royal Arcanum.

44 cents per yard for a broad carpet worth 65 cents a yard at Fricker's carpet store. 10-10-11

WM. PENN.

Mrs. Thomas Jones, who had been visiting in Philadelphia for several weeks, has returned here.

Dr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been ill with rheumatism, is now suffering from a foot ailment and is under the care of two physicians. Her condition was improved to-day.

Mr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been ill with rheumatism, is now suffering from a foot ailment and is under the care of two physicians. Her condition was improved to-day.

Mr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been ill with rheumatism, is now suffering from a foot ailment and is under the care of two physicians. Her condition was improved to-day.

Mr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been ill with rheumatism, is now suffering from a foot ailment and is under the care of two physicians. Her condition was improved to-day.

Mr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been ill with rheumatism, is now suffering from a foot ailment and is under the care of two physicians. Her condition was improved to-day.

Mr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been ill with rheumatism, is now suffering from a foot ailment and is under the care of two physicians. Her condition was improved to-day.

Mr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been ill with rheumatism, is now suffering from a foot ailment and is under the care of two physicians. Her condition was improved to-day.

Mr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been ill with rheumatism, is now suffering from a foot ailment and is under the care of two physicians. Her condition was improved to-day.

Mr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been ill with rheumatism, is now suffering from a foot ailment and is under the care of two physicians. Her condition was improved to-day.

Mr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been ill with rheumatism, is now suffering from a foot ailment and is under the care of two physicians. Her condition was improved to-day.

Mr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been ill with rheumatism, is now suffering from a foot ailment and is under the care of two physicians. Her condition was improved to-day.

Mr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been ill with rheumatism, is now suffering from a foot ailment and is under the care of two physicians. Her condition was improved to-day.

Mr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

Miss Jennie Jones, who has been ill with rheumatism, is now suffering from a foot ailment and is under the care of two physicians. Her condition was improved to-day.

Mr. Forrester, formerly of Girardville and now of Philadelphia, was a visitor here yesterday.

DEWEY HOME AT LAST.

The Admiral Resting Quietly in His Native Vermont.

HIS RECEPTION AT SHELBURNE.

He Exceeded Himself From the Onset of Hand Shaking, Saying His Hands Were Sober—Children Sing "Yankee Doodle Went to Sea."

Shelburne, Vt., Oct. 11.—Admiral Dewey is home at last, and is happy to be within the shadow of the Green mountains and beside the waters of Lake Champlain, away from the noise and bustle that have filled his ears since his flagship Olympia came in sight off Sandy Hook. The fact that the admiral is really in Vermont was signaled last night on tall mountain peaks by bonfires and electric searchlights from one end of the state to the other. Admiral Dewey is the guest of Dr. Edward Webb at his magnificent country residence, Shelburne Farms, and will not become the state's guest until tomorrow, at the capital, Montpelier. He came home on a special train from New York city yesterday, occupying Dr. Webb's magnificent car, the Elmore.

Accompanying the admiral to Shelburne were his son, Dr. Webb, Flag Lieutenant Beunby, Governor Smith and several railroad officials. When the train pulled into Shelburne the villagers and folks from the surrounding towns, even as far away as Burlington, had made up a crowd of nearly 3,000. Proceeded by Dr. Webb, the admiral walked across the lawn to where an open lamina, drawn by two big black horses, was in waiting. As the admiral walked across the lawn a band from Burlington, playing "Under the Eagle," a selection made at the special request of the admiral.

As Admiral Dewey stepped into the carriage a salute of 17 guns was fired from behind a mask of shrubbery nearby. A man in working clothes, Michael McKensie, yelled: "Let's give three cheers for Admiral Dewey, the hero of Manila." The cheers were given.

The admiral dropped his hat and gloves and then impulsively shook McKensie's hand, which was still in the air after tossing his hat. Instantly the hands of the crowd were outstretched toward the carriage, but Admiral Dewey started back in fear, drew his hand toward his body and said: "No, no I can't do that; my hands are very sore; too sore for that."

Along the road were drawn up 200 school children, each with a flag and headed by their teachers. As the carriage drove slowly by the children sang a parody on "Yankee Doodle Dandy," beginning: "Yankee Dewey went to sea."

The admiral dropped his hat and gloves and then impulsively shook McKensie's hand, which was still in the air after tossing his hat. Instantly the hands of the crowd were outstretched toward the carriage, but Admiral Dewey started back in fear, drew his hand toward his body and said: "No, no I can't do that; my hands are very sore; too sore for that."

Along the road were drawn up 200 school children, each with a flag and headed by their teachers. As the carriage drove slowly by the children sang a parody on "Yankee Doodle Dandy," beginning: "Yankee Dewey went to sea."

The admiral dropped his hat and gloves and then impulsively shook McKensie's hand, which was still in the air after tossing his hat. Instantly the hands of the crowd were outstretched toward the carriage, but Admiral Dewey started back in fear, drew his hand toward his body and said: "No, no I can't do that; my hands are very sore; too sore for that."

Along the road were drawn up 200 school children, each with a flag and headed by their teachers. As the carriage drove slowly by the children sang a parody on "Yankee Doodle Dandy," beginning: "Yankee Dewey went to sea."

The admiral dropped his hat and gloves and then impulsively shook McKensie's hand, which was still in the air after tossing his hat. Instantly the hands of the crowd were outstretched toward the carriage, but Admiral Dewey started back in fear, drew his hand toward his body and said: "No, no I can't do that; my hands are very sore; too sore for that."

Along the road were drawn up 200 school children, each with a flag and headed by their teachers. As the carriage drove slowly by the children sang a parody on "Yankee Doodle Dandy," beginning: "Yankee Dewey went to sea."

The admiral dropped his hat and gloves and then impulsively shook McKensie's hand, which was still in the air after tossing his hat. Instantly the hands of the crowd were outstretched toward the carriage, but Admiral Dewey started back in fear, drew his hand toward his body and said: "No, no I can't do that; my hands are very sore; too sore for that."

Along the road were drawn up 200 school children, each with a flag and headed by their teachers. As the carriage drove slowly by the children sang a parody on "Yankee Doodle Dandy," beginning: "Yankee Dewey went to sea."

The admiral dropped his hat and gloves and then impulsively shook McKensie's hand, which was still in the air after tossing his hat. Instantly the hands of the crowd were outstretched toward the carriage, but Admiral Dewey started back in fear, drew his hand toward his body and said: "No, no I can't do that; my hands are very sore; too sore for that."

Along the road were drawn up 200 school children, each with a flag and headed by their teachers. As the carriage drove slowly by the children sang a parody on "Yankee Doodle Dandy," beginning: "Yankee Dewey went to sea."

The admiral dropped his hat and gloves and then impulsively shook McKensie's hand, which was still in the air after tossing his hat. Instantly the hands of the crowd were outstretched toward the carriage, but Admiral Dewey started back in fear, drew his hand toward his body and said: "No, no I can't do that; my hands are very sore; too sore for that."

Along the road were drawn up 200 school children, each with a flag and headed by their teachers. As the carriage drove slowly by the children sang a parody on "Yankee Doodle Dandy," beginning: "Yankee Dewey went to sea."

The admiral dropped his hat and gloves and then impulsively shook McKensie's hand, which was still in the air after tossing his hat. Instantly the hands of the crowd were outstretched toward the carriage, but Admiral Dewey started back in fear, drew his hand toward his body and said: "No, no I can't do that; my hands are very sore; too sore for that."

Along the road were drawn up 200 school children, each with a flag and headed by their teachers. As the carriage drove slowly by the children sang a parody on "Yankee Doodle Dandy," beginning: "Yankee Dewey went to sea."

The admiral dropped his hat and gloves and then impulsively shook McKensie's hand, which was still in the air after tossing his hat. Instantly the hands of the crowd were outstretched toward the carriage, but Admiral Dewey started back in fear, drew his hand toward his body and said: "No, no I can't do that; my hands are very sore; too sore for that."

Along the road were drawn up 200 school children, each with a flag and headed by their teachers. As the carriage drove slowly by the children sang a parody on "Yankee Doodle Dandy," beginning: "Yankee Dewey went to sea."

The admiral dropped his hat and gloves and then impulsively shook McKensie's hand, which was still in the air after tossing his hat. Instantly the hands of the crowd were outstretched toward the carriage, but Admiral Dewey started back in fear, drew his hand toward his body and said: "No, no I can't do that; my hands are very sore; too sore for that."

Along the road were drawn up 200 school children, each with a flag and headed by their teachers. As the carriage drove slowly by the children sang a parody on "Yankee Doodle Dandy," beginning: "Yankee Dewey went to sea."

The admiral dropped his hat and gloves and then impulsively shook McKensie's hand, which was still in the air after tossing his hat. Instantly the hands of the crowd were outstretched toward the carriage, but Admiral Dewey started back in fear, drew his hand toward his body and said: "No, no I can't do that; my hands are very sore; too sore for that."

Along the road were drawn up 200 school children, each with a flag and headed by their teachers. As the carriage drove slowly by the children sang a parody on "Yankee Doodle Dandy," beginning: "Yankee Dewey went to sea."

MAX LEVIT'S. DON'T BE FLEECE!

But buy your Fleece-Lined Underwear from 25c. up at our store.

MAX LEVIT

UP-TO-DATE HATTER. CORNER MAIN AND CENTRE STREETS.

We have a full and complete line of Woolen Underwear at bargain smashing prices. We make this a specialty.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.

Remember we still retain our position as leaders of Fashionable Hats at low prices.