about ten days. Stewart is a widower, with a married daughter living in Annapolis, Md., and roomed alone in Washington. He left his rooming place Sept. 6 to make a call, and for weeks no trace of him could be found. Finally the police gained a clew by learning as the result of inquiry at the local banks that he had $375 on deposit with the Washington Loan and Trust company. All of this amount save $10, they ascertained, had been drawn out on checks payable to bearer, signed by Stewart and endorsed by Adelbert W. Cox. The first checks were clearly written, but the latter ones were in a weak and almost illegible hand. Cox had explain-ed this at the trust company's office by saying the old man was rapidly failing in health.

With this clew the detectives found Stewart in the garret of a house where Cox lived. He had had hardly any food for a month. He said he had called on Cox and the Williams wo-man, who formerly boarded where he did, on Sept. 6. They sent him out for some liquor, and after that he remembered things only in a vague way. On his statement the police arrested Cox and his paramour on a charge of larceny, pending investigation and consideration of the making of more seri-ous charges. Both prisoners secured
