Consumption Cured. BROUGHT BACK FROM THE GRAVE. Last November Mr. Joseph James, painter, of 325 W. Pearl St., Indianapolis, Ind., was at death's door with quick consumption. Wasted to a skeleton, his lungs a mass of granulation; his death was hourly awaited by his doctor and family. He was kept in a constant stupor with opium. A friend, thinking to relieve his terrible cough, gave him a bottle of Brazilian Balm. Seeing his wonderful effect, the doctor advised he continued use. James soon after dismissed his doctor, and depended on the Balm alone. His recovery was rapid and complete, and in February he returned to work. His lungs are sound, and his weight greater than at any time in his life. His recovery is regarded as almost a miracle.

Oyster Shuckers on Strike. Norfolk, Oct. 18.—The oyster shuckers of this port are rapidly going out on strike, some 500 now being idle. In consequence of the decision of the packers not to employ any union men until next Monday the packers declare that the shuckers cause continuous trouble by meddling and walking out every time an objectionable employe is discharged. By Monday there will be 1,500 shuckers out. The strikers are all colored. The strike has partially paralyzed the oyster trade here. About $15,000 weekly is paid out now, and the lockout will effect 5,000 people directly. Norfolk's oyster trade is worth $2,000,000 annually.
