

WHEN business men get so petulant that they will no longer advertise in the papers, the Sheriff generally advertises for them.—Prof. Coles.

In his great act of pouring "oil" on the troubled waters in the Democratic ranks, Chairman Noonan finds that he hasn't sufficient to go around.

MIKE McLAUGHLIN hasn't cracked a joke for the past week. He finds that he has a serious problem before him—Charlie Berger will be the next District Attorney.

FARMER CRABBY has somewhat modified his Altoona declaration that if elected State Treasurer he will ignore the Governor's veto of a portion of the school appropriation and pay to each district its full share of the amount appropriated by the legislature. He now says he will do so if the Supreme Court decides that the Governor's action was unconstitutional. Well, so would any other man as State Treasurer.

THE Ashland News, a Democratic paper, truthfully says that "James Boylan, of Mahanoy Plains, who was a candidate for County Commissioner at the late Democratic convention, was the choice of the majority of the delegates, and had the outside influence not interfered he would have been nominated." The News adds that "Boylan's friends can get redress at the coming election." And still they speak of Democratic harmony in this campaign!

Do Your Duty.

Less than two weeks remain before election, and the managers of the local Republican campaign should make them two weeks of unusual activity. The change in the personal of the state ticket will undoubtedly be of material advantage to the county candidates. One of the greatest drawbacks to the popularity of the state ticket having been removed in the retiring of the candidate for Judge of the Superior Court, there is every reason to believe that a considerably larger Republican vote will be polled than had been expected. This will doubtless react, in at least a measure, to the advantage of the local ticket in Schuylkill county the same as in other sections of the state.

The situation in this county has been constantly improving the past ten days. The dissensions in the Democratic party are becoming constantly more pronounced, and what little hope there was a few weeks ago for the success of a portion of the Democratic local ticket is disappearing.

This is the time for the friends of the Republican candidates to get down to solid campaign work in every section of the county, and keep it up until election day. It is simply a question of getting out a certain per cent of the Republican votes. A little earnest, intelligent effort in each election district is all that is required to elect the entire Republican ticket by a handsome majority.

Good work has been done, the effect of which is seen and felt. The candidates are all active and effective workers, but they cannot be everywhere in a large county like this. The earnest, active and influential Republicans everywhere should take hold and render the candidates all the assistance they can. The time is short, but it is long enough to accomplish a great deal by intelligent effort.

DYSPEPSIA

"My wife suffered for many years from Nervous Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Sleeplessness and Nervous Debility," writes John Kelloe, Philadelphia. "We tried many physicians and numerous remedies, but with no result, until I heard of Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure. We bought six boxes, and the results for our expectations. She now eats and sleeps well, is gaining in flesh, and her color, which had grown to be yellow and sickly, is now as fresh as when we were first married, and I feel her that Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure has made her ten years younger."

THE very word "operation" strikes terror to a woman's soul.

Nearly always these operations become necessary through neglect. If the menses are very painful, or too frequent and excessive, get the right advice at once and stop taking chances. It will cost you nothing for advice if you write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for it, and if you let the trouble run along it will surely cost you a great deal of pain and may mean an operation.

MISS SARAH J. GRAHAM, Sheridanville, Pa., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I had suffered for several years with female troubles and doctored until I was discouraged. I felt wretched and tired of living. I had disease of kidneys, bladder trouble, dropsy and bloating, had womb trouble and a large tumor had formed; in fact all my organs were out of fix."

"Seeing a woman's letter praising your remedies, I wrote to her and she begged me to try it, telling me all that it had done for her. I bought six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now cannot express my gratitude to you. The tumor began to come away in pieces and I got better all the time. I believe now that I am entirely cured."

"My doctors could not believe it at first, as they all had told me that my case was a hopeless one, and no human power could do me any good. They were astounded. If I can say anything that can help other women, I shall be glad to."

It is not safe to wait until the last moment. Head off trouble by prompt attention to it. Pinkham's advice.

Suitcase in Lake Michigan. Chicago, Oct. 25.—W. E. Russell, a business man of this city, drowned himself yesterday by jumping into Lake Michigan from the steamer City of Louisville, when it was 12 miles out from Chicago, bound for St. Joseph, Mich. SENTENCED FOR SHANGHAI. Tried to Force a Man to Work on an Oyster Boat. Baltimore, Oct. 25.—The first case of "shanghaiing" which has been tried before the criminal court of Baltimore for several years resulted yesterday in the sentence of George H. Cummings to eighteen months imprisonment. The victim was August Meyer, of New Brunswick, N. J., and the alleged assault was committed on Oct. 10. According to the testimony a number of men who had been engaged in Philadelphia to work on the oyster boats of the Chesapeake arrived over the Pennsylvania railroad at Union station on the evening of that date. Meyer, who was aboard the train, protested, and was forcibly placed in a wagon owned by McDougall & Brennan and carried to their shipping office. Policemen who had heard of the alleged kidnapping of a man, followed and rescued Meyer from the clutches of the ship broker.

"UNROLLING THE BLOODY SCROLL"

The Philippine Fighting Valleys at the American Outposts. Manila, Oct. 25.—Told in stirred by the expectation of important fighting, General Pulido began "unrolling the bloody scroll," as he promised his followers in a recent speech, by firing volleys at the American outposts nightly. Since Sunday reinforcements have been arriving from the north. This activity is designed to divert the Visayan from their dissatisfaction against the Tagalos.

Aguinaldo has ordered the release on parole of Areneta and other Visayan leaders who are disposed to negotiate for peace, and is watching them to prevent further negotiations.

The fourth infantry reconnaissance about Imus found that the insurgents had returned to San Marinas. Their bugles blew when the Americans approached. It is reported that they are reorganizing at Malabon and other towns. The leading inhabitants of that section have requested Major General Otis to govern the territory because the insurgents are living off the people. Sufficient troops are lacking for this. General Otis has prohibited the local papers from printing the arrivals, departures or any movements of troops. Aguinaldo, if he is a student of the Manila papers, has been kept posted as to the whereabouts of every company in the army.

The news that the Spaniards attempted to surrender the rebel artillery at Santa Rosa has reached Tarlac and has spread through the country. The Filipinos are taking vengeance on the prisoners by curtailing the few privileges they had.

Heroic Act Richly Rewarded. Cleveland, Oct. 25.—Four years ago, while in San Antonio, Tex., City Councilman J. L. Kelly stopped a runaway team, probably saving the life of the driver; a wealthy farmer of Palmer, Tex., named John Wallace, Mr. Kelly's arm was so badly injured in the struggle that for a time amputation was thought to be necessary, but eventually it healed. On Saturday Mr. Kelly received notice from San Antonio that Mr. Wallace had died and left him a legacy of $80,000.

"Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night, and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. She writes W. C. Hammick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at A. Wasley's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.
