TWO SUCCUMBED ON THE VOYAGE

The Vessel Brought Two Hundred Passengers From Nome, Without Provision For Feeding Them-Several Crazed by Voyage. Seattle, Wash., Oct. 25,-After a voyage of 28 days from Cape Nome, during which two men died from starvation and others were half crazed from want of food and water, the chooner Hera arrived in port yesterday with nearly 200 passengers on board. News of the wretched plight of the Hern's passengers was brought here Sunday night by the steamer Lakme. The revenue cutter Grant and the tug Sea Lion immediately started after the schooner. They succeeded in finding the schooner on Monday about 50 miles off Cape Flattery. The two deaths reported are those of J. S. my head and the blogting which I suffered Ityan, who came on board a well man, but through had food and lack of attention gradually grew worse until be dled on Oct. 16. men were buried at sea, From the statements of other passengers it is learned that the agent of the ship at Nome guaranteed them planty of good provisions on the way down. They were charged $50 for their passage. When they were a few days out meat, sugar and butter ran The menu consisted of salt pork and canned mutton. There was a lit-tle dried fruit on board, but only enough to supply the table three times with dried peaches and twice with dried prunes. From that time on for nearly 24 days their food consisted of flour and coffee. There was plenty of flour, but the water was short. Four days ago the last of the unpalatable sait horse was consumed. Had it not been for rainstorms, which fell for a few days, they would have been without water also.

When the Hera anchored out in the stream the majority of the men were so weak that they could not carry their gold dust ashore without assist-Several passengers were crazed from their terrible experiences, and had to be carried ashore and taken care of. Even taking their terrible voyage into consideration, the pasengers unite in declaring Nome to be the greatest camp on earth, and many of them will return in the spring.

RUNNING DOWN TRAIN ROBBERS.

A Clew Found in an Illinois News paper's Subscription List. Chicago, Oct. 25.—Chief Special Agent W. F. Riley, of the Chicago and

Northwestern railroad, announced yes-terday that he had found a clew in the search for the men who held up the fast mail the night of Oct. 13 near Maple Park, Ills., and secured many thousands of dollars from the safe of the American Express company. The day after the robbery detectives found near the scene of the robbery an empty lunch basket, the lining of which was a newspaper, The Piain Dealer. On the paper was a sticker bearing the name of the subscriber. Letters were at once sent to every newspaper in the United States hav-ing the name Plain Dealer asking each if it had a subscriber of the name appearing on the sticker. This name withholding for the present. The McHenry County Plain Dealer, Woodstock, Ills., answered in the affirmative, and said that the subscriber mentioned was a farmer living near Spring Grove, McHenry county.

Detective Casey, of Mr. Riley's staff, went to McHenry county and learned that the farmer disappeared two days before the robbery and returned the next day, but disappeared again that (Saturday) night. The detective also found the stolen buggy in which the train robbers are supposed to have made their escape.

GEN. YULE'S STRATEGY.

He Has Effected a Junction With the Forces of General White.

FIGHT WITH JOUBERT IMMINENT.

Hard Fighting Certain at a Very Early Date, as the Two Sections of the Boer Army Which Threaten the Britons Largely Ontnumber Them.

London, Oct. 25 .- The Cape Town correspondent of The Daily May, telegraphing at 9:45 last evening, says: General Yule has performed a brilliant strategical movement. By a swift march to the south, leaving Glencoe empty, he has effected a junction of his forces with those of Sir George Stewart White, slightly to the north of Ladysmith. The two are now in a position to offer battle. I believe the first attack will be made on the large Free State force which entered Natal by way of Tintwa Pass, and which has since been harassing Ladysmith. The military authorities decided that by joining their forces the two generals would be better able to cope with one large force at a time than by having two small detachments to oppose simultaneously two big Boer forces. Accordingly, after defeating the Free State troops, they will offer battle to Commandant General Joubert, Only forces. Hence the need for swift and telling action.

The two sections of the Boer army together outnumber the entire British force by 3 to 1. Hard fighting is cartain at a very early date. Our men are infident, and there is much enthusiasm.

The fighting today outside Lady smith was a mere brush. The losses on neither side were significant. It was merely an artillery duel, in which the Boers came off decidedly the worse. Although there is no reason to doubt the accuracy of the dispatch from Cape Town to The Daily Mail regarding General Yule's movement, it is curious that General White's telegram to the war office makes no mention of a joining of forces, so that it is impossible to confirm or deny the news. General Yule's movements were actuated by sound judgment, since he soon would have been surrounded and a desperate position. bined forces at Ladysmith now amounting to some 12,000 men, will be amply sufficient to act on the defen-

The colonial office last evening published a cable dispatch received from the British high South Africa, Sir Alfred Milner, com-municating a significant dispatch from Sir Godfrey Lagden, the British resident commissioner in Basutoland, calling attention to the recklessness of the Basutos, who, he says, he has been sioner adds: "Our policy, however, ing of the Boers, who have threatened to attack Masuru and other stations. Those threats, combined with intriguing, have contributed to arouse excitement among the natives. I wish to place it on record that the Boers have unwisely attempted to shake the allegiance of the Basutos and frustrate our efforts toward tranquility. The Boers, therefore, are re-sponsible for any commotion and for the alarm regarding native invasions which now prevails."

The colonial office has received a cablegram stating that President Steyn, of the Orange Free State, has Issued a proclamation annexing that part of Cape Colony which is north of the Vaal river. This means Griqualand West and Bachuanaland, and is ap-parently in consequence of the Free This means Griqualand State forces having seized the railway and all stations north of Kimberley except Mafeking, unless Mafeking has fallen since the last news from there, which is a week old. The following advices have been re-ceived here from Maseru, Basutoland, dated Oct. 23: A reliable native lately visited a langer of Orange Free State troops just opposite Masuru. He found it to consist of wagons, surrounded by turf piled three feet high. He noticed only a few Mausers. The Boer commandant questioned him regarding the feeling of the different Basuto chiefs, principally the paramount chief, Lorothodi, and in order to draw the commandant the native replied that the chiefs sided with the Boers.

Thereupon the commandant said the two republics wished to kill the Brit-ishers and to take over and govern the Basutos, restoring to the latter that part of the country which the Free State formerly took from them. As to the Britishers, those whom they failed to kill they would drive into the The commandant wished a decision on the part of Lorothodi and the other chiefs as soon as possible—whether they would fight the Boers or the British-because his contingent was anxious to help the Boers elsewhere. He acknowledged that his men were afraid of the Basutos, because their wives and families, as well as their cattle, were within reach of a Basuto incursion, and he said he was prepared to enter into an agreement with the chiefs, signing the same, to give a very substantial recompense to the tribesmen for assisting the Boers. Failing this, if the Basutos would give a written undertaking not to assist either side, the commandant said his forces would withdraw from the Basutoland border and go to the assistance of their countrymen where the fighting was hottest. The Boers on the Basutoland frontier, according to the best information obtainable at Maseru, number about 2,500.

A private telegram from Delagos Bay says a man who has just arrived there from Johannesburg asserts that the Transvaal government has approprinted 850 beds in private houses in Johannesburg for wounded troops from the front.
