CRUSHED BY A HORSE

Lower and Upper Jaws of the Victim, a Child, Broken.

Maud, seven-year-old daughter of John Hitchens, of 141 East Coal street, was seriously injured last evening by being trampled by a horse. Drs. J. S. Cullen and G. M. Hamilton are attending the victim and say that, while the child's condition is very serious, there are good hopes for recovery. A number of children were serenading a newly married couple near the Hitchens' home last evening when Mrs. John T. Lee drove past. The rattling of tin cans and other noise alarmed the horse and caused it to raise upon its hind legs. As the horse passed the victim's body descended, one of its hoofs struck the victim, knocked her down, and the hoof rested upon the right side of the face, crushing the head upon the ground. The child was picked up unconscious and remained in that condition for about an hour. It was surprising the child was not killed outright. An examination by the physicians showed that the lower jaw was fractured on each side, and there was a fracture of the upper jaw on the right side. The victim's face was terribly swollen to-day, as a result of the injuries.

Beatrice Evans, six-year-old daughter of William T. Evans, residing at the home of the Home Friendly Society, had a narrow escape from serious injury at the same time. She was close to the Hitchens' child and was knocked down by the horse's head striking her. A third child, Maggie Mowrey, seized hold of the Evans child's dress and pulled her away before the horse could trample her.

Delightful Entertainment. A unique and delightful entertainment was given in the Trinity Reformed church last evening, which proved both an intellectual and financial success. The church was crowded to the doors to listen to the Famous South Africans. Miss Clark, born among the Kafirs, is an eloquent speaker and gave a graphic word picture of African customs and delights, and which specially interested in view of the war in Africa. There were also representatives of three African tribes in the troupe, who displayed much vocal ability. The entertainment as a whole was a delightful one.

A Parental Claim. William Moyer, of St. Clair, last night appeared before a Justice at Mahanoy City as complainant in a suit to recover possession of his fifteen-year-old daughter, who had been in possession of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Bowman, of Locust Dale, for the past four years. The child was alleged to remain with the Bownmans, but the matter was adjusted by the surrendering of possession to Frank Stauffer, of Waterbury, Conn., son-in-law of Moyer, who will take the girl to his home.

Detective McFarland Heard From. Mayor M. P. Walker, of Pottsville, received a letter from James McFarland, of "Mollie Maguire" detective fame, in this county, in answer to a business matter of which he had written him. Mr. McFarland is now Assistant General Superintendent of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, with headquarters at Denver, Colorado. He asks to be remembered to all old friends and acquaintances. He says he is in excellent health, and has fully recovered from the evil effects contracted by him during his stay in Schuylkill county. Mr. McFarland is frequently given a social call by visitors from this county.

A Miner Burned. Alfred Hallway, a miner 56 years old, was severely burned about the back, head, neck, shoulders and hands this morning by an explosion of gas in the North Mahanoy colliery. Hallway had cleared the face of the gangway of gas and he and his neighbor exchanged their safety lamps for naked ones. Meanwhile more gas accumulated at the face and Hallway ignited it upon his return.

ANOTHER BRYANITE SCORES THE TRAITORS!

THE MEN WHO SOUGHT EVERY OCCASION TO BRING BRYAN DEMOCRACY INTO DISREPUTE.

PLACING PARTY TRAITORS IN POWER!

The Men Who Believe in the Cause of Bryan, However, Are More Than Mere Hirelings, and Will Refute the Intended Insult.

Editor of the HERALD: I see by the re-publication of an article of yours that first appeared under the name of "Blackburn" in your paper, that Democracy can at least find one paper (Republican though it be) in which to give expression to its views as to the men who sought every occasion to bring Bryan Democracy and the Chicago platform into disrepute, and are now on the Democratic ticket, expecting our vote.

One of the most refreshing features of the campaign is the complaint assumption of candidates. Wadlinger, Depew and Carey that they will receive the votes of the Bryan County Democracy. It is true the Democratic newspapers, even the supposed to be patriotic ones, since the convention (for some evidently distorted reasons) have seen fit to stand by the ticket. But the men who believe in the cause of Bryan are more than mere hirelings who shut a leader's name for pay, and more than the poor, weak-minded dupes who read a party paper and vote blindly as it dictates. Their cause to them is a religion—the religion of the rights of man—and is graven in the hearts of believers, but the more deeply as it is less honestly expressed in print. Defeat itself can only strengthen it; yet, strong in the strength of a righteous cause, we are not to be duped into a courteous defeat by placing traitors in power.

Does Mr. Wadlinger think we can have forgotten how he affected to ridicule the true doctrine of Democracy in 1896, or how he refused to attend even the Bryan meeting when our revered leader was in Pottsville in 1898, or the pitiable arrogance with which he designated him an Anarchist? Or does he fondly fancy that the 15,000 Bryan Democrats in the county propose to truckle to the snooty 400 Palmer-Bucknerites, and elect their illegitimate candidates? No, Mr. Wadlinger, in spite of that bewitching personality and those supremely amiable qualities so fatally calculated to inspire our love for your ego, we cannot trust to elect an enemy to our faith, even one so charming as yourself. If we have not the skill of practical politicians to secure the nomination for those who are loyal, still we have sufficient "horse sense" to see that a traitor placed in power by our own party will work more harm to our cause and Bryan than one who is and has been an avowed Republican.

As for J. A. Depew, we find no fault with that gentleman voting for Palmer and Buckner. We oppose the gold standard because it fosters monopoly, and J. A. has been so long favored by a monopoly that there is every reason why he should support the gold standard. Living in one of the few towns in the county where every house is owned by a corporation, and permitted by that corporation to manage and control the only store permitted to exist in that town, why should he not regard monopoly as a good thing? But he should not expect the support of the silver Democrats.

But if the Bryanites feel in duty bound to vote against Wadlinger and Depew, what can be said of Mr. Carey, of Butler Twp.? History does not tell us that Benedict Arnold ever asked the votes of the American people to elect him to any office. But the day when traitors retain a decent modesty is no more—at least in Butler. The Chicago Platform and Bryan would have been regularly endorsed at our county convention, and the Bryan Democrats would now have little grievance, had not a gang from Butler with Carey at the head, demoralized the convention into the repudiation of Democracy. And in the face of this, we hear now, not only that he wants Democratic votes, but that he is ready to swear that he voted for Mr. Bryan. We would expect any one but Mr. Carey to blush at such an assertion at this time, but as the political ally of Butler is well known to be more conducive to profanity than blushes over any situation, we accept as simply natural Mr. Carey's willingness to swear to anything that he may conceive to help him gain any profitable end. BRYANITE. Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 25, 1899.

Among the Statesmen In Schuylkill County.

Harmony is so thick in the Democratic ranks that the "traitors of '98" are groping in the dark.

The fact that the Taxpayers' Association has held up the salaries of the District Attorney and his deputies since last May, is sufficient to show that a change is sadly needed. And Mike McLaughlin is chief deputy.

Joe Schier, the Democratic candidate for Recorder, insulted the members of the county institute by offering them free beer at his institute at Tumbling Run during institute. But, then, Joe is excusable.

It would seem that certain professed Democratic papers are in league to defeat the party candidates for Commissioners. It looks that way.

The excellent record made by the present Republican board of Commissioners, as briefly outlined in these columns Tuesday, has caused much uneasiness among the friends of the Democratic candidates. In fact, they are at their wits end to counteract the favorable impression made upon the taxpayers. The Pottsville Chronicle, the leading Democratic organ, appears to doubt the statement that the Commissioners, during the first six months of this year, saved the county $33,000. We might say right here, for the information of our disbelieving contemporary, that these figures appeared in the columns of the Chronicle, and from that paper they were reproduced in the HERALD. Surely, the Chronicle will not repudiate its own statements? But our contemporary give any good reason, outside of partizan consideration, why the Democratic candidates should be elected? Will it tell its readers why at least one of them is anxious to be Commissioner? Yes, it's up to the Chronicle to repudiate its own ante-campaign statements.

The McAdoo correspondent of the Hazleton Standard, Dem., says: "Frank E. Kautner, candidate for Commissioner, especially is assumed a big vote from this end of the county, being a resident of Lofty for over a score of years, during which time he ranks as the "traitor of '98" among the people by his integrity and gentlemanly bearing in either public or private life, honestly and conscientiously discharging every public trust placed in him."

Chairman Noonan finds that Mahanoy City is in bad shape, and has called a meeting of the citizens, this evening, to be held by him. Candidate Lebl's friends say he will have a thousand majority in Pottsville, and almost as much in Ashland.

Here is a pertinent question for the friends of Bryan in this county to answer: Should the "traitors of '98" be elected to fat offices this year, thus gaining control of the party organization, what chance will Bryan have of carrying the county next year?

The taxpayers of the county are beginning to see the necessity of continuing the present excellent administration of the Commissioners' office by the election of Reber and Kautner in order to maintain the administration of the county's affairs in an economical manner.

Here is how the Ashland News, a Democratic paper from principle, sizes up the Democratic nominees: "The alleged Democrats who have been detected trading away the majority of the Democratic nominees for the sake of trying to elect a few favorites, now wear a worried countenance."

Can you name the Democratic nominee for Poor Director? The Republican managers were never more confident of success than they are now. This is truly a Republican year.

Our Democratic friends see the hopelessness of the fight and have now resorted to a booby campaign. Unfortunately for them, there are not sufficient "purchasables" to stem the tide.

PRECIOUS METAL PRODUCTION.

The Transvaal Leads Us in Gold and Mexico in Silver. Washington, Oct. 25.—Mr. Roberts, the director of the mint, in his report upon the production of gold and silver during the calendar year 1898, says: "The production of gold in the United States in the calendar year 1898 was $64,363,000. The South African republic produced $79,212,950, and Australasia $64,800,800. These three countries are the great gold producers of the world—the output aggregating $208,377,753, or 73 per cent of the product of the world.

Next comes Russia, with $25,463,400; Canada, $13,775,400; India, $7,781,500; Mexico, $8,500,000; China, $6,078,700. These five aggregate $61,599,006, or over 21 per cent of the whole, leaving 4 per cent to the remainder of the world. "The United States still occupies the second place as a silver producer, to which it was relegated by Mexico in 1897. In 1898 it produced silver with a commercial value of $32,118,400, against the Mexican production of $35,475,400. Together they produce 67 per cent of the world's product.

"The world's gold production in 1898 was $287,128,000, an increase over the product of 1897 of $18,516,600. Since 1887 each year has shown an increase over the preceding one, and there is no reason to expect any cessation of this steady annual increase for some years to come."

THEATRICAL. A MILITARY PLAY.

The metropolitan press is unanimous in its praise of "The Cherry Pickers," which comes to Ferguson's theatre this (Thursday) evening. The New York Herald today remarked: "The Cherry Pickers" is a success. The World, "It stirred the audience to a high pitch of enthusiasm." The Press claimed "The Blue Jeans" was good. "The Cherry Pickers" is better." The Sun, commendably stated, "The great success is due to bringing down the house at every performance." Praise like the foregoing is praise indeed and speaks well for the merits of the play.

A GOOD SHOW. Mitchell's All-Star Players opened their engagement at the local opera house last evening with "The Ticket of Leave Man," and to say that it pleased the audience would be putting it very mild. Mr. Mitchell has got together the best aggregation of actors and actresses that ever visited this city. The audience last night was the largest in the history of the local opera house for a repertoire production. At 7 o'clock all the reserved seats were taken and standing room was at a premium. "The Ticket of Leave Man" will appear at Ferguson's theatre all of next week.
