Young Men in Politics.

It is the duty of every good citizen to take an active interest in public affairs and no one can begin too soon in the discharge of his duties in this respeat. Every year a large number of new voters appear upon the scene and these should all be fully prepared to take an intelligent and patriotic part among the real rulers of the country. Sometimes political association is anything but elevating and refining, but this is not neces-

The organizations especially active in politics should always be conducted upon an honest and instructive basis. sto Efficient outside work, also, can be legitimately carried on without detriment to the health or morals of any one. It should be the purpose of all concerned to become thoroughly informed as to current questions, and to be prepared to act with wisdom and justice to the whole community.

The young men of to-day are the leaders of the near future. Upon their shoulders must rest the responsibilities now assumed by others. They should not seek to escape their share of the work, and, above all. they should not be led astray by the arts of the demagogue or permit themselves to be misused by those who have no interest in the public welfare and who only seek the promotion of selfish schemes, and are more actuated by the desire to accomplish partisan aims than to hard labor. He reached the peniterfurther the cause of clean politics and

RIVERA DID NOT RESIGN.

But Was Dismissed From the Civil Governorship of Havana.

Havana, Oct. 28.—General Rius Rivera, former civil governor of the province of Havana, whose withdrawal from the governorship was cabled on Thursday evening as a resignation, denies that he resigned. He says he was dismissed, and that he does not know upon what grounds the dismissal was ordered. He attributes his dismissal to the direct influence of Senor Domingo Mendoz Capote, secretary of state in the advisory cabinet of Gov-ernor General Brooke.

General Brooke, when approached regarding the matter, declined to talk for publication, saying that he preferred that any explanation should be made by General Rivera himself. Senor Capote asserts that he requested Ri-vera to resign because he was an obstructionist and out of harmony with the administration, and that General Rivera replied that he would wait until he was dismissed, which was decided upon immediately. There was no oblection, according to the secretary of state, to General Rivera holding certain views as a private individual, but, as a subordinate it was the duty of General Rivera to carry out instruc-tions, and to not make himself an ob-
