BRITISH LOSS REPORTED

BOER ARMY ATTACKED LADYSMITH IN FORCE THIS MORNING.

General White Silenced the Boer Guns Early in the Attack, But the Boers Made Another Advance—A Late Berlin Report Says General White Surrendered.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

Ladysmith, Natal, Oct. 30.—General Joubert, with a force of 20,000 Boers, commenced shelling this city at five o'clock this morning. The assault was begun with two big guns planted on Tinta Ingoti, about 4,500 yards from the heart of the British camp.

General White met the attack with his 12,000 British troops and after seven shots had been fired the Boer artillery was silenced. The Boers retired temporarily, but they are now advancing in strong force and a big battle is imminent.

REPORTED SURRENDER.

Berlin, Germany, Oct. 30.—A report just received from Holland says the whole British force under command of General White at Ladysmith has surrendered to the Boers.

The theme, independent of its comedy features, tells of the struggle of a young inventor in perfecting an electric war ship which he proposes to sell to the United States government.

THEATRICAL.

Manager Dan Ferguson is meeting with much success so far this season, both as to the choice of attractions and the attendance at the theatre. He started out with the determination to give the people of Shenandoah the best show town in the county—first-class amusement and is therefore reaping the benefit. The manager of a theatre is the last one who is likely to deceive his patrons. He constantly has a list of troupes and decides himself by the companies he books. In the first place he knows that poor shows are not profitable, but are detrimental to leaving a bad effect upon subsequent entertainments. Manager Ferguson, therefore, is anxious to please his patrons, but it should be remembered that he is not tramping against the fakers in the profession any more so than are the managers of other towns, who are likewise deceived time and again.

CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCES.

"Mitchell's All Star Players," who are filling a week's engagement at Lyons opera house, presented "Government Acceptance" as the opening of a week's run, and attracted a large audience. This is indeed a troupe of all star players, and must be seen to be appreciated. Specialties are introduced between the acts, thus relieving the monotony occasioned by long acts—Sunbury Item.

The above company will open a week's engagement at Ferguson's theatre this evening. "NEXT DOOR."

The funny original acrobatic farce frolic by the famous Brothers Rogers, is as lively a pennell production as a Bowery Restaurant at the noon rush. It is fast and furious in its overcharging situations. It gives the performers no breathing spells, and barely allows the audience time to catch its breath between the laughing spells the play progresses and the audience shows no signs of weakening during the performance. At Ferguson's theatre on Wednesday evening, November 1st.

Ladies if you have any cloth to be made into a dress, just bring it to us; we will do the rest. THE FAMOUS. 10-18-1f

A Popular Course.

Arrangements have been made to give a popular entertainment course at Kaiser's opera house, Mahanoy City, for the benefit of the people of that town, of Shenandoah and the vicinities. The course will begin next Saturday and the entertainments will be first class in every respect, yet each will be given at popular prices. The course will consist of eight entertainments and the subscription price for the entire course will be but $1.00, a surprising low figure. The entertainments are to be given by the Oxford Musical Club of Boston, Carol Club of Boston, Willie E. Dudley, illustrated lectures, the famous Park Sisters, John Dewitt Miller, wit and orator, London Glee Singers, the Western Stars and the Boston Ladies' Synophony Orchestra.

Single admission tickets for each entertainment are to be sold at 50 cents, 75 cents and $1.00. The course tickets should apply at once at the Shenandoah Drug Store, P. W. Houck.

Opera's Prince Ferdinand.

The fairy opera, "Prince Ferdinand and the Enchanted Sword," is in the course of preparation by All Saint's church, and will be presented in Ferguson's theatre on November 21st. A similar performance gives last evening. "Clubs!" was enthusiastically received by the public, and it is every reason to expect this opera to surpass the reason in every particular. No effort is to be spared in order to render the performance one well worth seeing. Lovers of children and their affairs, lovers of fine music, beautiful stage effects and all that goes to make up a first class amusement, will be sure to be delightfully entertained. It is not too much to promise for the opera that it will be such as need not fear comparison with the best of either professional or amateur performances outside the large cities. The music is entirely under the direction of Miss Edith Morgan.

CLOSING ON LADYSMITH.

The Boers Prepared For an Attack on the British Forces.

THE BOERS INDULGE IN LOOTING.

Villages and Farms Raided by the Soldiers of the Transvaal—The Boer Casualties at Talam Hill Estimated at Five Hundred.

London, Oct. 30.—A dispatch from Ladysmith says: The Boers are gradually closing around Ladysmith. They have mounted two big guns on Tinta Ingoti, 4,500 yards from the British camp. An attack is expected. It is expected that the Boers will adopt tactics similar to those pursued at Dundee—demonstrating in one direction while attacking in another. The British intelligence department is completely informed regarding the Boer plans. The guns planted by the enemy are said to be those used in shelling Dundee.

Roughly estimated the Boers have 17,000 men, as against 12,000 British, for the battle of Ladysmith. General Sir George Stewart White has the better artillery, but his is of lesser range. The delay in the Boer attack is reported to be due to the non-arrival of Commandant General Joubert's column. This has given the British a much needed respite after their recent exertions. Everything, it is now considered, hinges upon General White's resource and judgment. Nothing is known regarding the progress of defensive works for the protection of Ladysmith.

The natives say that the Boer losses in the fighting at Beitfontein last Tuesday were at least 50 in killed and 150 in wounded. The same correspondent says that small Boer raiding parties continue their depredations among the villages and several farms have been looted. The rains continue and the volunteer camp is almost flooded.

A Pietermaritzburg dispatch says: It is officially announced that the British troops who left Ladysmith on Friday to meet the enemy returned Saturday after a slight brush. The Boers retiring on Elandsbaag. Disquieting rumors are current regarding the Umvoti country, but the official reports say that all is quiet there.

The following official data are made public regarding the fighting near Dundee:

The Boer losses during Friday's engagement at Talam Hill are estimated at 500 in killed and wounded.

Saturday the divisional staff was reconstituted. The country was clear of the enemy eastward, but as big forces were reported closing in on Dundee from the north and west it was considered advisable to move the British force across the railway to a new position south of the camp. During the afternoon the infantry moved out and began entrenching a new position. All available transport was utilized to carry stores.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the enemy opened fire on the entrenchments and the camp from the shoulder of Impati mountain with two six inch guns, getting a fairly accurate aim over a range of 7,000 yards. The soft ground rendered the percussion fuses useless. In spite of the falling shells the wagons were loaded with stores. Lieutenant Hannah and an artillery sergeant were killed.

During the night of Oct. 22 a fresh position was occupied about 7,300 yards from the enemy's guns. News was received at 8 o'clock Monday morning of the victory at Elandsbaag and a division was moved toward Glencoe Junction for the purpose of cutting off the retreating enemy, should they use Glencoe Pass. Two fugitives were captured.

A dispatch from Mafeking, dated Oct. 24, says: The Boers are in possession of the water works and have cut off the supply. This occasions no anxiety, because ample supplies are available in tanks and wells.

During a sortie this evening the British encountered the enemy three miles off to the north. The Boers had apparently been warned and returned our fire in earnest with a well handled machine gun. As our men had no intention of pressing an attack they retired immediately. Commander Sydney Webb was severely wounded and left behind during the retreat, but was afterwards rescued.

There is no fresh news from the western frontier. The mines are still working at Kimberley, where there are provisions enough to last nine months. Cecil Rhodes has mounted and fully equipped a town guard of 400 men, at a cost of £15,000.

The Durban correspondent of The Daily Mail says: It is reported on the authority of the British residents in Pondoland that the Pondos are in constant communication with the Boers, whom they are anxious to help.

The special correspondent of The Daily Mail at Ladysmith, telegraphing Sunday, describes the arrival of the war balloon there on Saturday. It was welcomed, he said, with wild dances by the kaffirs, who regard it as a deity. General White and General Sir Archibald Hunter both ascended on Sunday and reconnoitered the enemy's position.

Predicts a Decisive Battle.

Paris, Oct. 30.—The Echo de Paris publishes an interview with Dr. Leyds, special representative of the South African republic in Europe, who expresses the belief that the decisive battle of the war will occur at Ladysmith, and that, although sympathizing with the Boers, Europe would not intervene if they were then defeated—at least not for the present. There was no question he asserted, of mediation by Germany.
