WORKING TIME REDUCED.

Many Collieries Ave Uunble to Keep Work ing Nine Bours.

Several of the P. & R. collieries in this district find it impossible to keep up with the nine-hour working schedule and have gone back to the old three-quarter schedule. Thi is especially the case at the West Shenandoah and Indian Ridge collieries. This condition of affairs is said to be due to an inability to produce sufficient coal for the nine-he schedule, on account of there not being sufficient openings. Cures croup, sore threat, pulmonar; troubles .- Monarch over pain of every soot
