A BREWERY DEAL.

The Syndicate Secures Balance of Stock in Arnold Brewery Held by Hazleton Investors.
A deal has been consummated whereby President Robinson, of the Pennsylvania Brewing Company, has secured all of the stock in the Arnold brewery, at Hazleton, which has been held by the Arnold interests. This represents 200 shares of stock which will net the holders $200,000. The brewery thus loses all semblance of the old firm.
It was rumored to-day that one of the largest brewing deals ever attempted is now being formulated and will include the consolidation of all the breweries in Luzerne, Schuylkill and other counties under one combine.

WM. PENN.
Josef B. Hughes, of Pottsville, visited his parents here on Sunday.
Miss Helen Heffer, of Pottsville, is a guest at the home of Supt. R. E. Quin.
Mrs. James Fox, Sr., is passing this week in Shenandoah.
John Borwanax has moved from Shenandoah to this place.
Mr. M. Bortlesick and wife, of Shamokin, are visiting Isabel Foreman Golden, of this place.

The Junior Epworth League held a sociable at the M. E. parsonage last evening. The young folks came in masquerade costume. The evening was spent in games, in listening to a photograph entertainment and in enjoying the refreshments provided. A pleasant feature of the occasion was the presentation to Mrs. W. H. Stewart by her Sunday school class, which is a part of the Junior Epworth League, of a handsome gold brooch with a gem setting. The presentation speech was made by Miss Alice Seltzer. Those present were the following: Misses Margaret Quin, Bessie and Hattie May, Alice, Bessie, Katie and Maud Seltzer, Maria, Carrie and Violet Jones, Lillian Wilcox, Lillian Frantz, Helen Heffer, Emma Thiekens, Mary Fell, Jennie Smith, Mary and Jane Chalmers, Carrie, Ida and Mille Schoppe, Lizzie and Pearl Morton, Myrtle Stewart, Mrs. W. H. Stewart, Mrs. Ralph Taylor, Mrs. David T. Christy, of Chester, Mrs. Thomas Dove, Mrs. Elnora Quin and Messrs. Robert and Herbert Quin, Walter Brinkbach, Livingstone Seltzer, Albert Jones, Albert Frantz, William G. Jones, James Chalmers, Alfred Jones, Ralph Christy and Rev. W. H. Stewart.

Marriages.
Mr. Patrick Murphy, of Mahanoy Plans, and Miss Elizabeth Curry, of Pottsville, were married yesterday at St. Patrick's church, at the latter place. The young couple left for Hannibal, Missouri, where they will be the guests of J. J. Murphy, brother of the groom, for a week or two.
At St. Ignatius Catholic church, Connel, yesterday, Dennis Rowan and Miss Mary Gaughan, of that town, were united in marriage by Rev. W. G. Brigid. Bridget Walsh was the bridesmaid and D. J. Rowan best man.
John J. Horan, of Girardville, and Miss Anna Drummond, of Ashland, were married at the latter place to-day. The groom is well known in Shenandoah.

THE WEATHER.

The Caribbean sea storm has moved slowly northward and was central last evening near Raleigh, N. C., where a barometric pressure of 29.34 inches is reported. The highest wind reported during yesterday was 60 miles an hour from the northeast at Sandy Hook. Forecast for this section:
Clearing weather, with high winds, shifting to northwesterly and diminishing in force.
Sunrise, 6:34; sunset, 5:05; length of day, 10h., 29m.; moon rises, 4:57 a. m.; moon sets, 3:41 p. m.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

Proceedings at the Convention held in Mahanoy City.
The conventions of the Women's Home Mission Society was held in the Presbyterian church at Mahanoy City last night and to-day. Rev. T. Maxwell Morrison, the pastor of the church, made a brief address of welcome to the fifty delegates present at the first session and Mrs. Pingry and Rev. D. M. Buchanan, of Mauch Chunk, made addresses.
At the morning's session, Mrs. Allison, Mrs. Sharon McNair, of Hazleton, reported that there are 34 societies in the organization and six new ones were organized during the year.
At this afternoon's session Mrs. Pingry made an address in which she asked the delegates to petition their representatives to vote against the seating of Congressman-elect Roberts, of Utah.
The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Mrs. McIntyre, Easton; First Vice President, Mrs. Jack, Hazleton; Second Vice President, Mrs. Ferriday, Third Vice President, Mrs. Allison; Recording Secretary, Miss E. A. Harrison; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Harris; Treasurer, Mrs. J. T. McNair; Secretary of Literature, Mrs. Bright; Synodical Delegate, Mrs. Charles McIntyre.
A pleasing and interesting feature of the session was the singing of a Christmas hymn valued at $175 to be sent to the Pleasant Grove Orphan School in Utah.

POLITICAL POINTS.
Reports from Mahanoy City and Ashland indicate a large Republican vote.
Quite a number of Democratic candidates failed to arrive in town last evening.
A man who will be 21 years of age on November 8th can vote on Tuesday next.
What about the Wall-Paper Syndicate? Indications point to the fact that they are still doing business at the old stand.
The Miners' Free Press, a Democratic newspaper, predicts the election of the Republican ticket, with possibly two exceptions.
The Democratic workers of town should see to it that they get an equal share of that big campaign fund being raised by Democrats.

The Ashland News, Dem., urges its Democratic readers to support the Republican candidates for County Commissioner. Good advice.
Every Republican should do his duty on Tuesday. Victory is in the air and let us be in a position to do the shouting on the 8th of November.
Congressman-elect Ryan is still among the missing in the present campaign. But there are many other leading Democrats who are lukewarm in support of the traitors of '96.
This year is the first in the history of the county in which no temporary loans were issued. Commissioner Kantner is worthy of election, as is also his colleague, Horace Reber.
Every move on the Democratic chess-board is being carefully watched by those in a position to know, and the last-day cards will be checked. The Democrats are licked, and the fight is to keep them on the run.
A man who has just reached his twenty-first year can vote "on age" and without the payment of any tax whatever; and he can continue to vote "on age" until he reaches his twenty-second year, after which he must pay a tax.

The Democratic organs have now directed their mud-slinging batteries against the Republican candidates for Commissioner. This is a sure indication that Messrs. Kantner and Reber, in the opinion of these organs, are the strongest candidates, and hence the attacks.
Joe Shter, the Democratic candidate for Recorder, turned the cold shoulder to Shenandoah. When the friends of Mahanoy City held their ball Joe paid the expenses of the Pottsville friends to that town and beer flowed freely at Joe's expense. He was heckled to appear here last evening, but failed to materialize. Explanations are in order.
The local Democrats have raised a big "conscience fund" to be used in Shenandoah on election day. This will be augmented by contributions from the candidates to debauch the voters of the county. The Democratic workers come high—some of them. But why not treat all alike? It is said that one worker in the Fifth ward will receive $50 for his day's work next Tuesday.

The communications from "Taxpayer" published in the Miners' Journal and Shenandoah Herald in regard to the tax-payers at large in the county the dire necessity of effecting a change in the conduct of the District Attorney's office. In large cities it is the very best material that the bar affords that is chosen by the people for this responsible trust. The election of Charles E. Horner to the office of District Attorney is a guarantee of the office being run on an impartial, economic basis.—Mahanoy City Record.

Marriage Licenses.
John J. Dolan, of Schuylkill township, and Annie M. Wasson, of Tanques; Elwood H. Mengie and Amanda Bahner, both of Frackville; John Gouba and Julia Brzosowska, both of Shenandoah; Berna Milewski, of Shenandoah, and Berna Klynowiczka, of Mahanoy Plans; Carl H. Lasser and Annie Howells, both of Ashland; Peter Yenuszskas and Victoria Ustrute, both of Shenandoah; Franzelczk Byryza and Elizabeth Uzielka, both of Shenandoah; Peter Bananas and Katie Micklaszavz, both of Shenandoah.

Deaths and Funerals.
The funeral of Benj. Zimmerman, who died at Pottsville yesterday, will take place Friday morning from his late residence at 11 o'clock. The cortege will leave Pottsville at 12:30 for Tanques, where interment will be made.
The mother of Gustav, Robert and Amel Formas, of town, died at her home in the western part of town on October 31st. She deceased was 64 years old.

Council Knights of Columbus.
The Knights of Columbus, a Catholic order whose principles include an insurance feature, instituted a council in Shamokin on Sunday with a membership of forty-five. The first, second and third degrees were administered. A banquet followed, Mahanoy City has a prosperous council, and there is no good reason why Shenandoah Catholics should not inaugurate a similar movement here.

A Card.
