Threaten to Avenue a Lynching.
Wells City, Mo., 1.—Suppressed excitement still exists over the lynching Monday night of Wells, the negro miner charged with the murder of a white barber. The negroes are particularly incensed at the town marshal and night officers at the jail who, they claim, did not provide sufficient protection for Wells, and they have threatened to kill both. White miners are holding themselves in readiness in case of a negro outbreak.

To Enlarge Shipbuilding Plant.
Richmond, Nov. 2.—Mr. William R. Trigg, of the W. R. Trigg Shipbuilding company, returned from Washington last night, in connection with the news that his company had practically secured the contract for two of the new cruisers. He said that provisional arrangements had already been made for enlarging the company's plant to whatever capacity might be necessary.
