

POISON HAS ITS PLACE

In all systems of medicine, and it is frequently called for in prescriptions. It is, therefore, that no poison work must be permitted in compounding prescriptions nor as to quality of the drug employed.

Our Prescription Department is in competent hands, and our long record of successful experience warrants us in guaranteeing absolute accuracy and purity.

ELECTION RETURNS.

TAMMARA.

The Republicans made considerable gain at Tammara, the majority of the candidates of that party securing a majority. The highest vote received was that cast for Dewey, who had a majority of 111, while Leib's majority was 100, and that given Berger for District Attorney was 24. Judge Henning received a majority of 14, while Nieher defeated Dewey by 3 votes. Schiener received a majority of 219 and Reese 49. In the Commissioner contest Brennan led Kautner by only 4 votes and Tye had a majority of 53 over Reber. The Democratic candidate for Poor Director, Becker, who lives here, carried the town by 508 majority. The voters in issue $50,000 bonds to improve the water supply was defeated.

LECTION SCORES.

Of all our candidates for congress or sen. the saddest are these—

It might have been—

Delaney was unanimous all but three for Dewey.

The First ward had no rows yesterday, the Fifth however filed the Mills.

Leib carried Mulligan's ward in Ashland, the first Republican event of the kind.

Ashland has the reputation of standing by her men for office.

The defeat of Judge Henning should teach the politicians to have more regard for the wishes of the voters and less for the whims of old scores.

Shenandoah's Third ward vote on state candidates is suggestive of dissatisfaction with machine methods.

One of the unfortunate results is that Shenandoah doesn't secure one of the successful candidates. With three candidates from this town, either one of them worthy and deserving of election, they all go by the wayside.

The Republicans are quite cheerful, thank you. We accept the large loss.

Last year Seluykill went straightly Democratic. This year we divide up the offices equally and next year we will take the whole hog.

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. Keiper returned to Philadelphia today.

Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Stein spent today at the country seat.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Franey were passengers to Philadelphia today.

Martin Umbach, of West Coal street, was a county seat visitor today.

Miss E. M. Devers, a clerk at Wilkinson's daylight store, is confined to her home by illness.

George Jones, of West Coal street, machinist at Delano shops, moved his family to Wetherly.

Robert Morgan, of West Cherry street, has resumed work again after an illness of seven weeks with a broken leg.

William Kimmel, Jr., of Shepton, and Justice of the Peace Nungesser, of Kingtown, were Pottsville visitors today.

Ex-senator B. J. Monaghan, of Philadelphia, is ill at the residence of Mrs. J. J. Monaghan, on South White street.

Miss Katie Gallagher and Annie McManis were entertained by their host of Central acquaintances yesterday.

Mrs. Alice A. Morgan and sons, William and Ulrich, are guests at the home of Outside Foreman William Tiley, of Silver Creek.

Mrs. T. S. Lewis and her two children, of St. Clair, are the guests of the former's brother, W. E. Phillips, on West Oak street.

Quality First.

Quality is the first essential with all manufacturers with established reputations. The nimble nickle works wonder in all lines of trade and the offerer it is turned the greater is the purchasing power in any line.

With the nimble nickle you can get one large 10c package of "Red Cross" starch, or one large 10c package of "Hubinger's Best" starch, with the premiums, two Shakespeare pencils, or one "Twenty-Century" Girl Calendar.

The Endless Chain Starch Book will enable you to get the above goods as advertised. This offer is made in introducing the goods and will be withdrawn in a short time. The starch sold at the regular price of the per package. Ask your grocer for this starch and obtain the beautiful Christmas presents free.

Attending His Own Funeral.

An interesting story is told about a French cab driver named Prosper Romieu, who actually attended his own funeral. Some time ago Romieu was convicted of some offense and sentenced to a term of imprisonment. Since then he had been in hiding at the home of a brother. The brother died, and an aspiration occurred to the convicted cab driver. Accordingly he obtained a certificate of his own death and attended as chief mourner.

The fraud might never have been discovered and Romieu might have stayed as his own brother to his dying day but for the fact that at the graveyard there was a policeman who happened to know him. The policeman accosted him and, on getting an answer, said facetiously, "This is the first time I have heard a dead man speak." The unhappy dissimulator was haled off to the house and had since been sentenced to five months' imprisonment.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed for ever. It is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that only cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sent for free.

BRENNAN MUST HANG.
The Supreme Court Refuses to Grant Him a New Trial.

The Supreme Court has passed upon the appeal of Thomas Brennan, of New Philadelphia, found guilty of the murder of Harry Elliott, on June 3rd last, and refused to grant him a new trial. Brennan has but one more chance to escape, the gallows, and that is an appeal to the Board of Pardons. The Governor, however, will fix a day for Brennan's execution whether that appeal is made or not.

The reason for which Thomas Brennan will suffer death on the scaffold was committed in New Philadelphia on the evening of June 2nd, 1890. The details of the murder are still fresh in the minds of the people throughout this county, and no one more fully understands its heinousness better than the condemned man himself. A bitter feeling existed for some time between Thomas Brennan and Harry Elliott, both of whom were employed at the colliery. Brennan, however, was defeated for constable in the borough several years ago, and this engendered a grudge, the feeling between the two men and their friends. On the afternoon of June 2nd, 1890, when Brennan received his pay check he was several days short for which he held Elliott responsible. Brennan attributed this shortage to Elliott's willful neglect and after going to his boarding house and eating his supper he went forth to Elliott's house. The latter was washing himself in the presence of his landlady, and Brennan deliberately drew a revolver and inflicted wounds from which Elliott died the next day. Brennan said: "I don't care and I am satisfied to die for it." The crime is regarded as one of the most brutal ever committed in the county and it is safe to say Brennan has little hope of escaping its expiation on the gallows.

PITHY POINTS.

Happenings Throughout the County.

Chronicle for Busy Personal.

The politicians can now take a rest.

The paving on North Main street will be completed this week.

The motemen and conductors at Pottsville, Pa., were notified after an illness of several months, a fortnight from Bright's disease. Deceased was born in Orwigsburg 78 years ago.

Mrs. John Knapp, an old and respected resident of M. Maning City, died last evening, aged 57 years. She is survived by a large family.

Elizabeth, wife of Adolph Bales, aged 50 years, died at her home at Morea this morning. The deceased was well and favorably known, and her death will be received with much sorrow by a large circle of friends.

Isaac Orwig, an aged and respected citizen, of Orwigsburg, died yesterday after an illness of several months, a fortnight from Bright's disease. Deceased was born in Orwigsburg 78 years ago.

Little Folks' Party.

The many little friends of Eva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hagenbuch, tendered her a surprise party at her home last evening. The little folks were royally entertained for several hours, during which refreshments were served. Those present were Ella Wom, Lulu Miller, of Kingtown; Emma and Mary Kethen, Charles Hagenbuch, and their children, Dietz Josephine Furman, Ethel and Elsie Morgan, Lottie Ball, Cora Hagenbuch, Mabel Weidman, Laura Hedeman and Del Boy booth, of the same family, Frank Furman, Adolph Robbin, Harry and Charlie Hagenbuch, Ralph Marshall, George Polmer and Amanda Schoppe, of Philadelphia.

He Smashed Windows.

Thomas Hergen, of North Gilbert street, managed to store up a good load of interesting material, notwithstanding all the saloons were supposed to be closed, and he went home to a condition similar to that of an Indian on the war path. When he reached his home he commenced smashing windows. Policeman Martin Foy took him in tow and had his hands badly scratched and bruised by the prisoner while on the way to the lockup.

Mr. Katz Very Low.

Word was received from Philadelphia late yesterday afternoon that the condition of George Katz, of North Juddin street, was very critical. He is confined to the German hospital and is suffering with liver troubles. Mrs. Katz and her two children have gone to his bedside.

A Pathetic Case.

An account of the death of Pius Alonicki on the Philadelphia & Reading Railway at Gilberton was published in last evening's Herald. Since Mr. Peters has a very pathetic feature has developed in connection with the case. It appears that among the passengers on the train that killed Alonicki were the victim's wife and young son, who were on their way to join the husband and father at Gilberton, having arrived from Poland on the preceding day.

Off For The Philippines.

William E. Lewis, of Shenandoah, who was recruited at the Pottsville U. S. A. office, left yesterday morning enroute for Manila and the Philippines. He has been assigned to the depleted 31st Infantry.

Victims Buried.

The funerals of the four victims who were smothered in a truck of oats at the Lawrence colliery took place this morning. Two of them were members of St. George's Guards, of Mahanoy Plane, who attended the funerals in a body, accompanied by the Mahanoy colliery men. Interments were made in the cemetery of the town.

FUN ON A TRAIN.

Mary, the Magician, had a Curious Experience in Nebraska.

Mary, the magician, whose personality is much more suggestive of a prosperous young stock broker than it is of "second cousin to his satanic majesty" as one of his admirers has styled her, had a curious experience on a train in Nebraska on yesterday fall. A nice looking old lady sat in one of the seats of a day coach with a basket of eggs beside her. In passing through the car Mary saw a change for a little moment. Lifting his hat to her he asked if the eggs were for sale, and if she would sell him a single one. She declared to sell, but said she would give him one. He thanked her, took the egg and plugging it to his ear said he thought he heard something inside. She declared that impossible as the eggs were strictly fresh.

Mary tapped the shell with the end of his pocket knife and as it cracked open a pretty young canary ruffled its feathers and gave a cheerful peep of freedom. And with the blinding eyes of the startled passenger fixed upon him he tossed the tiny creature into the air and it completely vanished. Then, turning to his long-haired man, who had been an open-mouthed spectator of the incident, she deftly extracted an egg from his luxurious whiskers and passed it back to the old lady. She refused to touch it, however, and squeezed up against the window to get as far away as possible from the uncanny man. It was an hour before she was able to appreciate that the whole affair was only a case of necromancy.

Mary will appear in Shenandoah on the 11th inst., at Ferguson's theatre, as the opening attraction of the Brockway Entertainment Company.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Necrology Reports of This and Other Towns of the County.

Mrs. Margaret Boehm, relict of the late Chief Burgess Joseph Boehm and mother of Congressman John P. Boehm, passed away last evening after a lingering illness. The deceased had been ill for some time, and the cause of death is given as general debility. She was 68 years old, and was probably the oldest resident of Shenandoah, remaining in this town in 1861. The deceased came to this county when but one year old. Eight children survive, as follows: John P., Joseph, Mary, Lizzie, Sarah, Kate, Margaret and Elizabeth. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from her late residence on North Main street, services will be held in the German Lutheran church. Interment will be made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. The deceased was well and favorably known, and her death will be received with much sorrow by a large circle of friends.

Isaac Orwig, an aged and respected citizen, of Orwigsburg, died yesterday after an illness of several months, a fortnight from Bright's disease. Deceased was born in Orwigsburg 78 years ago.

Mrs. John Knapp, an old and respected resident of M. Maning City, died last evening, aged 57 years. She is survived by a large family.

THEATRICAL.
DANIEL SULLY.

One might truthfully say of Daniel Sully's stage Irishman as embodied in his portrayal "O'Brien, the Contractor," that there is truth without offense or exaggeration—a veritable touch of that "nature which makes the whole world kin." Ferguson's theatre Friday evening, Nov. 10th.

"THE PRODIGAL FATHER."

A fair sized audience witnessed the production of a farcical piece of the above title at Ferguson's theatre last night. The attendance was no doubt interfered with by the elections. The performance deserved much better patronage than it received. Specialists formed the greater part of the program and all of them were good, especially the dancing. Lynn Welcher was very amusing as "the old sport" and Fanny Temple was equally successful in her impersonation of "Dolly Bond."
