PERJURY CASE.

The Grand Jury to Act on the Packer Colliery Accident.

Mine Inspector Stein, Deputy Caroner Cardin and several others, witnesses in the case, have been subposensed to appear before the Grand Jury to-morrow and give evidence relative to the charge of perjury against William Julis. Last August a young man named Alfred Owens met his death in Packer No. 3 colliery. The evidence before the jury showed that Owens was found dead on the gangway and probably met his death by being thrown from the back of a male. A verdict in ac-cordance was rendered. Subsequently two laborers averred that Owens was killed by a fall of rook and placed on the gangway after death by order of Julia, who coerced the in-formants to awearing that the body had been found dead. After an arrest and hear-ing Julia was put under $300 bail by Jastice maker on a charge of perjory and sub ordinating perjury.

Proposed Diocese Change.

The committee appointed at the last yearly meeting of the Central Pennsylvania diocese of the Episcopal church to draft one or more lines of division, should it be decided to divide the diocese, met yesterday at Wilkes-Korosi Pal, of Beaver Brook, and Basks Barre. The matter of division has occasioned considerable discussion among members of ficial one and others disapproving it. Some also favor an assistant bishop. The commit-tee which met yesterday did not discuss the advisability of division, but they considered several lines of division submitted by Rev Powers, of Pottaville. They adjourned for a further meeting to be held in January, at which time their report to the conference of the diocese will be adopted. It is quite probable that the change will be made.

MAJOR JOHN A. LOGAN KILLED.

son of the Gallant General Killed White Leading His Battation-The Town Taken Afters Heavy Slaughter of Filipinos-Aguinaldo Has Escaped

Manila, Nov. 15 .- The Thirty-third nfantry, in one of the sharpest two hour engagements of the war, with an equal force of insurgents, five miles om San Fabian, Saturday, lost one officer and six men killed and one of ficer and tweive men wounded. The Americans captured 29 Filipinos and 100 rifles and found 81 insurgent dead lying in the trenches and rice fields. Many more Filipinos, doubtless, were

The insurgents opened the fight two miles from San Jacinto, while the leading American Initialion was pass-ing a clump of houses, in the midst of a cocoanut grove, knee deep in mud. The Filipino sharpshooters, hidden in trees, houses and a small trene across the road, held their fire until the Americans were close to them. When they began firing other Pilipinos opened fire from thickets, right and left, further away. The insurgent sharp-shooters picked off the officers first, Five of the Americans who fell wore shoulder straps or chevrens. But the Thirty-third never wavered. Its crack marksmen knocked the Filipinos from the trees like squirrels and the Americans rushed the trench, leaving four dead insurgents there. The regiment then deployed under fire, with Major John A. Logan's battalion in the center, Major Crony's on the right and Major Marsh's on the left.

The skirmish line, which was a mile long, advanced rapidly, keeping up a constant fire. The Filipinos made an unexpectedly good stand, many of them remaining under cover until the Americans were within 20 feet of them. 130 Filipinos into the hills.

retreated toward Dagupan. It was impossible to pursue them, as the Amer can troops were exhausted and their supply of ammunition was low. The outposts killed five Filipinos during the night. The body of the Filipino Heutenant colonel commanding
