Hospital Admissions.

The following are among the admissions made at the Miners' hospital, Fountain Springs, yesterday: Andrew Bee, a miner of Girardville, compound fracture of the skull, by a fall of coal at Packer No. 4 colliery. His right side is paralyzed.

Robbers in Clover.

At about two o'clock this morning robbers made an effort to rob the home of Anthony Grimes, at 26 North West street. By allowing a rear kitchen window, which they had forced open, to drop the visitors awakened the occupants of the house. The thieves got away. This is the fifth robbery, or attempted robbery, that has taken place in the neighborhood, and the third in the immediate vicinity, since last Saturday night and no arrest has been made, or clue secured.

Banner's Up-to-Date Meat Market.

Spring chickens and spring lamb. Fresh sausages, puddings, fresh and smoked meats. Corner Cherry and Chestnut streets.

A Bold Heist.

Yesterday afternoon M. J. Leach, the East Centre street merchant, purchased a pair of gum boots for his 6-year-old son. Last evening the boy donned the boots and began to play in front of his home. Two small boys came along, seized the boy and sat him on a stern box. Each of the boys seized a boot and ran away.

Organizing Miners.

Officers of the United Mine Workers effected temporary organizations among the miners at Girardville last evening, and at Conners Wednesday evening. The meetings were well attended, and much enthusiasm manifested.

Finger Mashed.

George Aker, of East Coal street, had the little finger of his right hand mashed this morning by a fall of rock at the West Shenandoah colliery.
