STRATEGY OF THE BOERS

May Be Repeating Plans Adopted by Them at Dundee.

ROYAL PRINCE WANTS TO FIGHT.

Duke of Connaught Offered to Walve Sentority, But It Was Deemed Inexpedient to Have a Member of Royal Family Serve Under General Builer.

London, Nov. 18,-The absence of news of any serious movement against Ladysmith seems to show that the Boers are repeating the strategy adopted by them at Dundee, when they appeared in front and endeavored to effect a surrounding movement. This seems to be their object regarding Est. court, and since it is impossible that relief should reach there for some days come, it is not unlikely that a further retiring movement on Mooi river will be made,

Major Wolfe-Murray has returned to Pietermaritzburg to take command of the line of communications, and Colo nel Long, of the Royal artillery, has taken command at Estcourt. The forces now at Pietermaritzburg are too weak to attempt to reopen communica-tions. Artillery and cavairy especially are badly needed, and it necessarily will take a very long time to obtain either, owing to the difficulty of en-training and the necessity of allowing the horses to rest after the long sea

The admiralty announced the arrival at Cape Town yesterday of the troop-ship Arcana, bringing the reinforce-ments up to 23,500, of which 7,290 have already disembarked at Durban, with 18 field guns, a number of machine guns, engineers and hospital troops as well as 700 mules. This force, with that already between Estcourt and Durban, is considered sufficient to enable General Hildyard to advance and to take the aggressive against the Boers south of Ladysmith.

SHOT HIS FOUR CHILDREN

Terrible Act of an Insane Father in a Chicago Flat.

RILLED HIS SON A FEW DAYS AGO

On That Occasion He Gave All Bis Children a Dose of Landanum, But the Police Believed His Son's Death Was an Accident.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Carrying out a plot he had apparently planned with deliberation Cornelius Corcoran yeaterday shot four of his children, killing three of them, and then ended his own life. The tragedy occurred at his home, 5401 Dearborn street. The dead Cornelius Corcoran, 40 years old; Mar-garet Corcoran, 5 years old; John Corcoran, 7 years old; Lizzie Corcoran, 3 years old, Wounded: Late Cor-foran, 14 years old, will lose her left eye if she recovers.

The police are convinced that the man was insane. Corcoran had lived with his seven children in a flat building at 5401 Dearboarn street for a month past. To all outward appearances he was a bind and considerate parent. For some days he had evidently plotted for the death of his children, and he nearly accomplished his purpose Tuesday night. Hearing the children cough, he arcse, and in the dark administered laudanum five of them-Clifford, Timothy, John, Margaret and Lizzie. The first two were removed to the Mercy hospital, where Timothy died the next day. Corcoran exhibited such profound grief over the affair that the police and the coroner thought the giving of laudanum was a mistake.

Balked in his purpose to end the lives of the young ones Corcorns it is thought, made deliberate plans for his act of yesterday. About 10 o'clock the grandmother of the children, Mrs. Margaret Wrenn, accompanied-by her slece, Mrs. Mamle Corbett, called at the Corcoran home.

When they rang the bell Corcoran called out from the inside: "Who's

"It's Mamie and your mother," re-plied Mrs. Corbett. Corcoran thrust his head out of the door, disclosing the fact that he was attired in his nightgown, and closed the door again, saying: "Wait just a minute, Mamie." The two women opened the door and stepped into the hallway. Just then shots were heard, followed by a succession of screams.

In the panic the two women darted out of the doorway and ran down the street, screaming at the top of their voices. The police were promptly notified.

An appalling sight greeted the eyes of the officers when they entered the Corcoran flat. In the first bedroom, just off the parlor, was the body of Margaret, lying in a mass of blood at the head of the bed, while at the foot lay John, unconscious and breath-ing heavily. In the room to the rear Corcoran's dead body was found on the floor, while that of the baby, Lizzie, reclined on a pillow. A revolver lay near Corcoran's right hand. Five of the chambers were empty.

Every one of the wounds, with the later the baby, Lizzie, who was still breathing, was taken there. John died within a half hour after his ar-asylum in Kankakee. "Cornelius has never been right since his accident," said Mrs. Wrenn. "He has always acted queerly and when my daughter became ill it affected him. He never would have done such a dreadful thing if he had been

A Race Fight Threatened. Carsonville, Ga., Nov. 18.-There is almost a reign of terror in this com-munity. Sam Monk, a white man, and Key Riley, a negro, Saturday night had a fight in which Riley was severely cut, Since that time several threats have been made to lynch Riley, and a number of shots have been fired into his house. It is a strong log cabin, however, and no damage has been done. The negroes are armed and swear that no harm shall come to Riley without a fight.

Shrinkage in New Hemand For Iron and Steel Products, New York, Nov. 18.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The signs of shrinkage in the new de-mand for iron and steel products become more clear, and while prices of plg are mar sained without change, and billets are quoted lower only beca-prices for earlier deliveries are longer paid, plates are quoted lower at the east, with some small mills sel-ing at 2.5 cents at Pittsburg and sheets are sold by some works there at $3 to $4 less than the regular price. strength of bars at the west is largely due to the gross command for cars, of which it is an ' that 1,000 per day are ordered, but at the east prices are a shade lower. A new demand does not make up for the rapid completion of old orders in some lines, so that competition of works weakens price Bradstreet's review says: Gener trade and industry continue at a mi imum volume for this season of t year, while prices, as a whole, man feat strength unapproached in rece years. Strength of values is still inc notable among manufactured textiles but cereals, hides, leather and manu-factures thereof have also strengthen ed slightly. On the other hand, por
