OUR COUNTRY: First, Last and Forever.

GREY AGUINALDO has not only taken to the woods again, but is hunting the very tallest timber.

CONGRESSMAN ROBERTS also threatens to resign, but he is probably no more sincere about it than the average Shenoykill county statesman.

THAT "dark horse" Congressional candidate is still kept in the dark, but that fact is immaterial. His sponsor is sufficient to obliterate him forever, politically.

READERS OF THE HERALD have not failed to notice the completeness with which the court proceedings is covered in our columns. THE HERALD gives the news while it is news.

NOTHING in the election returns of this county indicates that the sound money Democrats have applied for the suits of sackcloth and ashes that the Bryan followers promised after election.

NOBODY can excel Col. Bryan in snatching victory from the very jaws of defeat. Wherever and whenever an election is held he manages to get some sort of consolation out of it for the Chicago platform.

In the present display of shooting stars Shenoykill county can point with pride to our red-headed and hopeful friend, Charles A. Snyder. He is the coming leader of the Republican forces, and a shrewd one, too.

THERE is at least one prospective Congressional candidate in this county, who hopes to see the financial question pushed to the rear. But it will not be so. The Republicans will force the issue along those lines, and at the same time put the aforesaid candidate on the shelf.

THE political sentiment of the United States at this time is decisively Republican. Any one can go over the list of states and see that the Republicans hold more than in 1896. Three general elections have taken place since that year and the net result is a strengthened Republican position.

FORMER United States Senator and ex-Governor of New York, David Bennett Hill, is said to have his counterpart in Goebel, the man who, as the Democratic candidate for Governor in Kentucky, is moving heaven and earth to have himself counted in over Taylor, his Republican opponent, who was undoubtedly elected. Like Hill, it is said, that he neither drinks nor uses tobacco in any form and that society has no attractions for him. His one reckless disposition is politics. The game of politics is said to be almost a mania with him. It has for him such a fascination as have cards for a gambler. The more complicated, difficult and dangerous the game the more attraction it has for him. To him politics is a game of skill, and the greatest triumph is such as results from skill alone. A seemingly impossible obstacle to success affects him as a high fence does a fox hunter. The trick of beating at cards an opponent who holds a better hand, or of overcoming all obstacles in the chase, is to the gambler or the fox hunter what the difficulties of politics are to him. Goebel, as pictured, is a man of agreeable manner when friendly, and cold even to cruelty when an enemy. He never shows excitement. That is the penitence of the Kentucky statesman as given by a well-known Washington correspondent.

PHILADELPHIA DAY

At the Export Exposition Drew a Monster Crowd.

Philadelphia, Nov. 21.—Yesterday was Philadelphia's day at the National Export exposition. The occasion was favored by ideal weather and one of the largest crowds that has yet visited the show was on hand. The sightseers began to gather early on the grounds, and last night there was hardly room enough for one to get about the place. Many business houses and factories closed at noon in order to give the employes an opportunity of participating in the celebration. Various organizations, political, social and labor, attended in large numbers. The exhibition, the greatest attraction of the exposition, was thronged all day. The auditorium in the north pavilion of the main building, where there is now being given daily concerts, was also packed to its capacity.

The main feature of "Philadelphia day" took place in the auditorium last night, when formal exercises were held. The exercises consisted of music by the band, speeches by Mayor Ashbridge, Director General Wilson and Congressman Bingham. The orator of the evening was John Frederick Lewis, who spoke on "Philadelphia as a commercial and manufacturing center."

Today is "Odd Fellows' day" and "Rotary day." There was an annual meeting of the Grand Lodge in being held in the main building, and many members of the order from different parts of the state are present.

Smuggled Pearls Seized.

New York, Nov. 21.—Ten thousand smuggled pearls of all sizes, some imitation and some genuine gems, were taken to the custom house yesterday, and today the government expert will pass upon their value, which is estimated at $50,000. The pearls were found in a trunk at a dealer in diamonds and gems, of Providence, R. I., just arrived on the French liner Bretagne. The pearls were secreted in old shoes in Bock's trunk and in his pockets. In default of $15,000 bail Bock was sent to jail.

Carnegie Company Gains a Point.
Washington, Nov. 21.—The United States supreme court yesterday granted the petition recently presented by former Speaker Reed for a writ of certiorari to bring the case of the Carnegie company versus the Cambria iron company to this court. The case is an important one, involving a portion of the process of making Bessemer steel. The Carnegie company lost in the court of appeals.
