THEATBICAL.

It appears that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will nover die. It seems to have lost none of its popularity during the past decade. No other attraction would draw the houses this historic drama draws, no matter how cheap the admission price might be, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" has the attributes of a great poem, or a masterplece in prose, or a vital product of brush or chisel. It has filled its flagon at the fountain of youth. The Palmer Company, which will appear at Ferguson's theatre on the 24th inst., is under the management of Thomas Daily and George W. Goodhart, two young managers of experience, ability and popularity. They will have nothing that is not strictly first class. Their company is composed of forty leading white and colored performers, besides specialty people, including comedians, singers, dancers, and cake

The play is based on the kidnapping of Baby Marion Control of the State of the Committee of the Clarke, and it is said is pleasingly free from sationally melodramatic episodes, yet con tains many situations and climaxes which cromise to be of absorbing interest. The plot is said to be logically developed, and the elesent of dramatic surprise carefully main-

The preparations for the National Festival to be given in Robbins' hall Friday evening are noarly completed. The young ladies who will wait on the tables have their parapher-nalia ready. The refreshments will also be ready at the proper time and sufficient to satisfy a large crowd. But aside from the refreahments there will be a musical program sufficiently varied to please all who may be present. The instrumental music consisting of three numbers will be rendered by the Riley concert orchestra, a under the direction of Prof. W. J. Ports. The very fact that the Riley or chestra will be there will draw a large crowd, even if they should not play a note; but, when the following program is taken into most durable. This will be followed by a selection by a quartette, "The Soldier's Farewell: selection, comic medicy, "The Chicken Brigade," by the orchestra: "Polly Wolly Doodle," by the quartette; Waltzes, "Nelids," by the orchestra, followed by "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep" by the quartette. There is no doubt that this program can be doubled if the audience so expresses itself, but if all this should fail to satisfy, be sure and go fishing at the fishing pond, and you will certainly go away mtis-fied. There are other features in the festival which must be seen to be appreciated. The admission is 10 cents, and your ticket entitles you to a cup of coffee and a sandwich.
