OUR COUNTRY: First, Last and Forever.

THE advertisement for ten mechanics by a county industry in yesterday's HERALD is only a sign of the times prophesied by Republicans when McKinley was elected.

The Congressional Contest.

The newspapers and politicians of the county are already discussing the availability of several pronounced candidates for Congressional honors.

Among the Republicans there are big and little, great and small candidates mentioned, and even "dark horses" are being groomed.

Information at hand leads to the belief that former Congressman Brumm is already laying his lines to secure the Republican nomination.

We are not surprised at that. Three years ago Mr. Brumm was made to fit the platform, and by making the platform fit Mr. Brumm next year he hopes again to go to Congress.

With the silver question or expansion as the leading issue of the campaign next year, old Schuykill can be counted upon to again return a handsome majority for William McKinley.

Under these conditions the Republicans have everything to gain and nothing to lose by renewing the fight in this county and state along the same lines as those that predominated in 1896.

DYSPEPSIA

"My wife suffered for many years from Nervous Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Sleeplessness and Nervous Debility," writes John Kellies Philadelphia.

WOMEN WHO EARN THEIR LIVING

To these Mrs. Pinkham's help is offered. A letter to her at Lynn, Mass., will bring her advice free of all charge.

MISS NANCIE SHORE, Florence, Col., writes a letter to Mrs. Pinkham from which we quote:

"I had been in poor health for some time, my troubles having been brought on by standing, so my physician said, causing serious womb trouble. I had to give up my work. I was just a bundle of nerves and would have fainting spells at monthly periods. I doctored and took various medicines, but got no relief, and when I wrote to you I could not walk more than four blocks at a time.

I followed your advice, taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier in connection with the Vegetable Compound and began to gain in strength from the first. I am getting to be a stranger to pain and I owe it all to your medicine. There is none equal to it, for I have tried many others before using yours. Words cannot be said too strong in praise of it."

MISS POLLY FRAME, Meade, Kan., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I feel it my duty to write you in regard to what your medicine has done for me. I cannot praise it enough. Since my girlhood I had been troubled with irregular and painful periods and for nearly five years had suffered with falling of the womb, and whites. Also had ovarian trouble, the left ovary being so swollen and sore that I could not move without pain. Now, thanks to your wonderful medicine, that tired feeling is all gone, and I am healthy and strong."

THE DEWEY HOME AGAIN.

It is Now the Property of the Admiralty's Only Son. Washington, Nov. 22.—George Goodwin Dewey, Admiral Dewey's only son, is now the owner of the residence presented to the admiral by the American people. Papers were prepared and signed yesterday by which Mrs. Mildred McLean Dewey transfers all rights and titles to the property. This is the property which on Monday Admiral Dewey transferred to Mrs. Dewey.

In explanation of the transaction a relative of the Dewey family made this statement:

"The home will continue to be the home of the admiral and Mrs. Dewey so long as he may live. It may be desirable now to say that it was the wish of both the admiral and Mrs. Dewey to provide for a proper succession to the property. The transfer of yesterday completes the transaction began on Monday, and is the giving out only of the original contract of both the admiral and Mrs. Dewey. The method of transfer adopted was considered the best and safest that could have been adopted. It is to be considered, naturally, that the transfer was to be the act of Mrs. Dewey, as well as of the admiral."

There are many who assert, however, that the general denunciation of the original transfer is the cause of the latest move.

Blames It All on the Woman. Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 22.—In court yesterday George Stephenson pleaded guilty to forgery. Stephenson some months ago eloped to England with Mrs. J. A. Jones, of Parsons, this county. Before going they forged the name of the latter's husband to a mortgage, upon which they received $800. Stephenson personating Mr. Jones, the former husband, was arrested in England and sent back to this country. The husband of the woman forgave her and took her back to her home and children. Stephenson told the court that Mrs. Jones planned the whole thing. Judge Lynch suspended sentence until the case of Mrs. Jones is tried. She is also under indictment for forgery.

No Longer a Deserter. Muncie, Ind., Nov. 22.—Word comes from Washington that Secretary Long of the navy yesterday removed the mark of "deserter" from Walter Ryan, of Muncie, who while mentally deranged last February deserted a man-of-war at Callao, South America. Two weeks after Ryan's marriage to a prominent young woman a year ago in Bridgeton, N. J., she died, and his appointment to a place in the navy soon followed. Saturday Ryan surrendered to the commander of the training ship Richmond, who made an oral presentation of the case to Secretary Long, with the above result. Ryan will be given another place on a man-of-war.

Afflicted with Catarrh. Blood Poison, Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Sciatica, Headache, Neuralgia, Stomach Troubles, Indigestion, Constipation, Dropsy, Eczema, Psoriasis, Scabies, Ringworm, Tinea, and all other skin diseases. S. S. S. is the only remedy which can have any effect upon Catarrh; it cures the disease permanently and forever rids the system of every trace of the vile complaint.

Miss Josie Owen, of Montpelier, Ohio, writes: "I was afflicted from infancy with Catarrh, and no one can know the suffering it produces better than I. The sprays and washes prescribed by the doctors relieved me only temporarily, and I thought I used them constantly for ten years, the disease had a firmer hold than ever. I tried a number of blood purifiers, but they did me no good. I was in a lamentable condition, and after exhausting all treatment, was declared incurable. Seeing S. S. S. advertised as a cure for blood diseases, I decided to try it. As soon as my system was under the effect of the medicine, I began to improve, and after taking it for two months I was cured completely. The dreadful disease was eradicated from my system, and I have had no return of it."

Many have been taking local treatment for years, and find themselves worse now than ever. A trial of S. S. S. For Blood will prove it to be the right remedy for Catarrh. It will cure the most obstinate case. Books mailed free to any address by Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Thomas Aldridge, Villa Ridge, Ill., writes under date of Aug. 9th, '99: "I began taking Warner's Safe Cure last Spring, and have now taken three bottles; it has done me a wonderful lot of good, and I am satisfied it is a grand medicine. I know it would help many a suffering woman, if she would only use Warner's Safe Cure."

AT THE EXPORT EXPOSITION.

The Old Fellows and the Railroad Men Have Their Day. Philadelphia, Nov. 22.—Old Fellows' day was appropriately celebrated at the National Export exposition yesterday, and the formal exercises were held in the convention hall, at which Dr. Wilson delivered an oration and Fast Grand Master Robert E. Wright, of Allentown, one of the most eminent members of the Old Fellows' order, was the chief speaker. Mayor Ashbridge participated, and the closing address was made by Grand Warden William K. Mohr, of Allentown, Pa.

During the day there was a large attendance of railroad men as participants in the celebration of the exposition, "railroad day" of its existence. Many of the most prominent executive railroad officials from various parts of the country were present and interested inspectors of the exposition and its exhibits.

It is expected that Irish-American day, which has been arranged for on Nov. 23, will be a great occasion at the exposition. The most encouraging assurances have been received which seem to indicate a large attendance.

Facts are Stubborn.

If Shenandoah People are not Convinced by Local Testimony, They Differ From Other People. Facts are stubborn. Some may be disappointed. None can be deceived. A fact is always a fact, and with proof. How to obtain the truth of investigation. On it rests the truth of doubt. Investigate closely the following: The closer the scrutiny the more convincing the result.

A Shenandoah citizen speaks here: Speaks from experience and conviction. Mr. John D. Hughes, of 213 North Market street, miner, says: "I have been in Shenandoah for twenty-eight years. My son and I contract in taking out coal. For years I had trouble with my back and kidneys, had both a pain and lameness across my loins and in the small of my back. Well, this bothered me very much, sometimes being worse than others. I was induced to try Doan's Kidney Pills and proceed them from Kirilin's drug store. I derived great benefit from them for they corrected the action of the kidneys and freed me from pain."
