

A Cure for Nervous Headache.
For eight years I suffered from constipation and severe nervous headache, the headache usually lasting three days at a time. Headache powders relieved me temporarily, but left me an effect. Since I began taking Celeri King I have greatly improved in health and feel decidedly well.—Mrs. E. K. Hatch, Temple, N. H.

A RACE WAR IN TEXAS.
Conflict Between Citizens and Negro Soldiers at Fort Ringgold.
TWO REPORTS OF THE AFFAIR.

Military Commander Declares the Soldiers Were Attacked by a Mob, While County Judge Says Soldiers Were the Aggressors—Want Troops Recalled.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 22.—Yesterday Governor Snyder received a telegram from General McKibbin, the commanding officer of the United States troops at San Antonio, saying that a race war had broken out at Rio Grande City Monday night between the federal negro troops stationed there and the citizens of that town. General McKibbin telegraphs that the report he received from the commander at Fort Ringgold, near Rio Grande City, stated that all the troops were in the garrison when the citizens of the town advanced and fired upon the guard. The guard returned the fire and the entire garrison was at once called to arms. The citizens continued firing, and the soldiers finally had to bring their Gatling guns into play to disperse the attack. The commander asks for more troops. A telegram from the county judge states that the negro soldiers fired into and over the town for something like an hour and a half, shooting into a number of houses, wounding one man and frightening women and children so badly that a number of them have fled. The attack was entirely unprovoked, the community is highly incensed, and further trouble is feared.

Governor Snyder telegraphed to the county judge of Starr county for further details, and received in reply a reiteration of the previous dispatch, with this addition:

"The soldiers fired over 1,000 shots. Population terrorized. I fear the people may decide to avenge themselves for this dastardly act. Civil authorities would be powerless to control. I understand that Lieutenant Robertson, commanding, directed this cowardly assault. No cause for the act. Wires Washington and San Antonio for searching investigation and removal of troops at once."

Governor Snyder, after ordering his adjutant general to the scene of the disturbance, sent the following telegram to the secretary of war at Washington:

"Please direct immediate impartial and searching investigation into the conduct of negro soldiers at Fort Ringgold, Starr county, Tex. Also issue order for immediate removal of troops."

Commanding General McKibbin has ordered troops of cavalry from Fort Brown to proceed by forced march to Ringgold, and is taking every possible precaution to prevent further trouble.

Adjutant General Schury started for the scene of action last night. Colonel Roberts, post adjutant at Fort Sam Houston, left San Antonio yesterday afternoon on a special train for Laredo with a detachment of the Twenty-fifth Infantry to make an investigation of the trouble at Fort Ringgold and to make a full report to General McKibbin.

Trouble between the negro soldiers on the frontier posts and the Mexican population has been brewing for some time. A collision between the police and negro soldiers at Laredo a few weeks ago has resulted in the abandoning of the post there. A small sized riot occurred at Rio Grande City last month, in which some soldiers were shot and others arrested and fined. Since then the Mexicans and soldiers at Rio Grande City have been at the bitterest enmity.

Crushed to Death by a Runaway.
Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 22.—Norman Pownall, a son of Henry Pownall, a prominent farmer living in Salisbury township near Christiansburg, 38 years old, was killed yesterday afternoon. He was driving a team of four horses hitched to a heavy wagon. The young man had been walking alongside of the horses, when they started to get away and he tried to stop them. He fell to the ground and two wheels of the wagon passed over him, crushing the life out of him.

Bear in mind the merchants make no advance in the prices of their goods, but on the contrary increase of trade secured to them by this plan will enable them to sell closer than ever before. Merchants may unintentionally neglect to give you Blue Trading Stamps unless you ask for them; therefore the remedy lies with the customer; you should not hesitate to ask for Blue Trading Stamps from any merchant whose name appears in this Directory.

This system enables merchants to pay cash for their goods of the wholesaler, and thereby obtain all discounts. Are you not entitled to discount for cash trade also? Blue Trading Stamps put the merchant's business on a cash basis, and saves the customer from paying losses which the merchants sustain by reason of bad debts, which losses are inevitable where a merchant does a credit business.

THE DEATH OF HOBART.

Vice President's Funeral Will Be Held on Saturday Next.
THE PRESIDENT WILL ATTEND.
Accompanied by His Cabinet and Supreme Court He Will Journey From Washington in a Special Car—Four Vice Presidents Died in November.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 22.—Vice President Hobart died at his home in this city at 8:20 o'clock yesterday morning. The vice president had been failing since late Monday afternoon, although the reports given out at the house were that he was holding his own. At midnight he became unconscious. At 7 o'clock yesterday morning he had an attack of angina pectoris, from which he never rallied. He died at the home of Mrs. Hobart, who is a cousin of Mrs. Hobart, and Miss Alice Waddell, the nurse, were at the patient's bedside constantly from the time he became unconscious.

Mr. Hobart realized a few hours before he became unconscious that he was near to death, and said to those about his bedside: "I know that my time is nearly up, but death is welcome to me."

The funeral will be held on Saturday next at 2 o'clock p. m. The funeral will be attended by the president and his cabinet, the supreme court, the senate in a body and a large committee from the house of representatives, besides many other high dignitaries of the government, who will journey to Paterson to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of the vice president. Every senator has been invited to be present, and the senate will meet at the Fifth Avenue hotel in New York Saturday at 11 o'clock and thence travel in a body to Paterson.

Sergeant-at-Arms Bright has engaged a special train to convey the president and his cabinet and the United States supreme court to Paterson. The train will leave Washington at 7 o'clock Saturday morning and will arrive in Washington on the return at 11 p. m. The services will be held in the Church of the Redeemer, at Paterson, and the interment in the family plot at Cedar Lawn, where the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart was buried six years ago. Rev. Dr. Maize will preach the sermon. The church can accommodate more than 800 persons, and it was suggested that the services be held in the Armory, which will accommodate 10,000 persons. But as Mrs. Hobart wishes the funeral to be as quiet as possible there is little likelihood that the program will be changed.

The mayor and aldermen of Paterson have suggested that the body lie in state at the city hall on Friday or Saturday morning, and this suggestion will probably be carried out.

The death of Vice President Hobart naturally recalls the death of Vice President Hendricks, who expired suddenly of paralysis of the heart Nov. 25, 1885. At the time the question of the succession of the presidency had not been settled by law, although Senator Hoar's bill providing for the presidential succession through the cabinet had been submitted on Dec. 4, 1883, and had remained unacted on.

The news of Mr. Hendricks' death was received in Washington late on the afternoon of Nov. 25. Notices were sent at once to all the members of the cabinet and a special cabinet meeting was held that night. President Cleveland's first act was to dispatch a telegram of condolence to Mrs. Hendricks, after which a proclamation was prepared making an official announcement of the vice president's death to the public, establishing a usage which was followed yesterday by President McKinley.

On the morning following Mr. Hendricks' death meetings of such members of the house and senate as were in town were held at the Capitol and committees from both legislative branches were appointed to attend the funeral services, which were held in Indianapolis on the Tuesday following.

President Cleveland at first expressed his intention of attending the funeral, but there was an immediate protest from all his advisers, seconded by the press of both parties, against his subjecting himself to even the slightest possibilities of an accident in travel at a time when there was no provision for a successor in his office, and when his death might have entailed serious consequences. After some days the president deferred to the advice of his friends and remained in Washington. The cabinet, however, attended the funeral in a body and the supreme court adjourned over till after the services.

ROYALTY BANQUETS ROYALTY.

Mrs. Choate Was the Only Diplomat's Wife Present.
Windsor, Eng., Nov. 22.—The state banquet which was held last evening in St. George's hall was an unusually brilliant affair. Queen Victoria received her guests in the King's Guard chamber, famous for its Gobelin tapestries. Troops of the Household Cavalry, bearing lances, lined the grand staircase, while within the banquet hall Beefeaters and Royal Yeomen formed a picturesque fringe.

The queen sat at the center of the long table facing the Prince of Wales. On her right was Emperor William and on her left the Duke of Connaught. Mrs. Choate, wife of the American ambassador, had sixth place, sitting next to the Italian ambassador, Baron de Kestler Montanaro. She was the only diplomat's wife present. Empress Augusta Victoria sat on the right of the Prince of Wales, with Ambassador Choate in the sixth place on this side of the table, next to Princess Arlberg of Anhalt. Lord Salisbury did not attend, owing to the death of his wife on Monday.

The guests numbered 140 persons, including all the members of the British royal family and the visiting royalties, the ambassadors, Count Von Buxlow and the whole of Emperor William's suite, all the members of the German embassy in London, with the exception of Count Von Hatzfeldt-Wildenburg, the German ambassador, who is thought to have been invited to the royal family and the visiting
