BRAVE BILL ANTHONY A SUICIDE.

One of the Maine's Reroes Becomes Discouraged and Disconsolate.

New York, Nov. 25.-William An-thony, better known as "Brave Bill" Anthony, died at the Presbyterian hos-pital yesterday, half an hour after he had swallowed a quantity of cocaine at one of the Central park entrances. He was the man who, on Feb. 15, 1898, when the battleship Maine was blown up in Havana harbor, reported to Captain Sigsbee in the famous words: "Sir, I have the honor to report that the ship has been blown up and is sinking." On his return to this country Anthony was accorded receptions everywhere. When his leave of absence was ended Anthony was promoted to be a sergeant of marines, and was detalled at the Brooklyn navy yard. In one of Anthony's coat pockets was found a letter written by him to his aunt, which read that he was discouraged and disconsolate, and was going to end it all. Among the other articles found was a picture of his 1-monthold child, on the back of which was written: "Bury this with me." A Span-ish-American war medal, such as all the survivors of the battleship Maine received, was also found.
