HOLIDAY SHOPPING.

No need to visit the Larger Cities for Anything in This Line. The custom among some which has prevailed here so long, that of visiting the larger cities to make holiday purchases, is one that should be abolished by those who desire to see the town prosper. There may have been a time when it was necessary, but that time is long past. For weeks the numerous merchants have been busily engaged in unpacking their holiday goods. The various lines are the most complete that have ever reached Shenandoah, and everything in the line that goes to make up an appreciable and acceptable holiday gift can be purchased right here at home, and that at prices far below those in New York and Philadelphia, when your expense account is taken into consideration.

The counters of our merchants are just loaded with holiday goods and to the prudent shopper we say, now is the time to make your purchases. The stock is complete, and then you get away from the hustling and bustle which always exists two or three days prior to Christmas. Many of the smaller things can be purchased now, and in so doing, you will be better satisfied and there will be no need for you to condemn the merchant because you waited until all the choice things were gone. Patronize the home merchant by purchasing your gifts now.

A Card.
We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50-cent bottle of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded.
C. H. Hagenbich, Shenandoah Drug Store, P.W. Riesterstein & Co.

The Companion's New Calendar.
The Youth's Companion calendar for 1909 is unique in form and beautiful in design. An ornament to the home it will take a prominent place.
