Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

MODDER RIVER BATTLE

Declared by a Boer Correspondent One of the Fiercest.

METHUEN'S ARMY OUTNUMBERED

Fifteen Thousand Boers to Oppose the Forces Under the British General—A Large Boer Force Near to the Army of Gatsere.

London, Dec. 9.—According to a special dispatch from Louerenzo Marquez the Modder River battle is declared by a Boer correspondent with General Cronje as "one of the fiercest the Boers ever experienced." The correspondent goes on to say: "General Cronje's wing sustained almost solely the fearful attack of the British right throughout the day. The Transvaalers tenaciously held their positions until 7 in the evening, when the Free State burghers were forced to retire by the heavy British shell fire. General Cronje then retired under cover of darkness, after facing the concentrated fire of all the British batteries. The Boers freely acknowledge the herculean assaults of the British and the death dispensing fire of the attacking infantry, but they held their position for 13 hours against the flower of the British army, replying solely with their Mausers and maintaining an uninterrupted rifle fire. The Boer artillery was silenced early in the battle through the overwhelming number of the British artillery."

General Forestier-Walker has sent the following dispatches, dated at 9 o'clock last evening, to the war office from Cape Town:

Telegraph and railway communication to Modder River has been reopened. A battery of field artillery and a battalion of infantry were dispatched from Modder River against Commandant Prins Loos' force of 1,000 Boers, with one gun, who had destroyed the railway. Our losses were 14 in wounded.

The enemy's forces near General Gatacre are reported as follows: At Dordrecht, 800; marching from Jamestown to Dordrecht, 700, with six guns; at Stormberg, 1,500; at Waterfall, a large force, strength unknown; at Molteno, about 400.

Some interesting light is thrown on the position of affairs along the western frontier by a dispatch issued by a Boer agency last evening in Berlin. The dispatch says: "Commandant Prins Loos' force is near Jacobsdal, between Modder River and Riet River. General Cronje is still on the north bank of Modder river, his rear being protected by fortified positions at Spytfontein. The hills between Modder River and Spytfontein and those between Jacobsdal and Riet River are occupied by Boers. Commandant Delarey's force is stationed between Gras Pan and Honey Nest Kloof."

If this Berlin dispatch be correct—and it is especially significant when judged in connection with General Forestier-Walker's advices to the war office—there must be some 15,000 Boers around Lord Methuen, who is believed to have 11,000 men. Kimberley, however, possessing an armored train, can materially assit Methuen by harassing the Boers from the rear.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by A. Wasley, Druggist.

GENTILES FROM UTAH

Make Answer to the Argument of Brigham H. Roberts.

NOT A QUESTION OF RELIGION.

The Delegation Representing the Opponents of Mr. Roberts in His Own State Declare That He Is Opposed Because He Violates the Law.

Washington, Dec. 9.—An answer to Mr. Brigham Roberts' address to the American people was issued yesterday by a delegation representing the gentile element of Utah, who are here to oppose Mr. Roberts. The answer declares that many facts are suppressed, and proceeds:

"Mr. Roberts claims that the precedent made by his exclusion is both new and dangerous. That it is not new was conclusively shown by Mr. Taylor in his able legal argument before the house, and not a single precedent to the contrary was cited where the ground of objection was ineligibility. Neither is the precedent dangerous. Whenever a prima facia case is made against a member's citizenship by showing that under a conviciton for felony against the laws of the United States he is distranchised, and further, that by reason of his present maintenance of the status of a polygamist he is again suffering from civil disability under the Edmunds anti-polygamy act, such a member refusing even to deny the charge should be excluded. Nor is this dangerous, for it is not likely, as Mr. Roberts seems to assume, that an entire minority or all representatives of a large state are coming to congress to carry such a burden. In other states men who flaunt their violations of these laws of decency in the face of the public are sent to the penitentiary. It is only in Utah where such indecency ever added to one's eligibility and served as a recommendation to political preferment.

"Mr. Roberts says he has not been convicted since statehood. It does not follow that he is innocent. He is now a fugitive from justice in Salt Lake county on a charge of unlawful cohabitation, and in Davis county, Utah, where resides one of his polygamous wives, with her illegitimate twins, a charge of adultery (a felony under the laws of Utah) has been for two months pigeonholed by a Mormon prosecuting attorney.

"Mr. Roberts in his attempt to belittle his crimes insists that he is only charged with a misdemeanor. He knows better. He knows that he has been, under oath before the proper prosecuting officers, charged with the felony of adultery, as well as the misdemeanor of unlawful cohabitation. He asserts that in 1889 he pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor only, and says that if he were guilty of the same acts in the District of Columbia, "even flagrantly so," that as a member of congress he would not be arrested therefor, because it is only a misdemeanor. Here again Mr. Roberts states what is not true, and he ought to know it. Unlawful cohabitation under the Edmunds act, under which he plead guilty, was a felony, as also is adultery.

"These charges, in view of the Edmunds and Edmunds-Tucker laws of the United States still in force, warrant Mr. Roberts' exclusion. They are aggravated, however, because his is not an isolated case, but one representative of a system.

"Many sentimental people are being misled by Mr. Roberts' very ingenious suggestions, from which some people infer that he took his polygamous wives when it was lawful to do so. This is a mistake. Adultery was a crime in Utah when Mr. Roberts was born, and at the time of the passage of the Cullom anti-polygamy act Mr. Roberts was only 6 years old. His plea for sympathy, therefore, amounts only to this, that he should be allowed to continue his criminal practices, notwithstanding he took his polygamous wives in defiance of law. We disclaim any desire to have him declared ineligible because he is a Mormon, but solely because he is violating and defying the laws of our state, of the United States and of common decency.

"Ex-Congressman W. H. King was and is a Mormon, and no claim of ineligibility was ever made against him. We point to this fact as showing that we oppose Mr. Roberts not upon the ground of any religious opinions entertained by him, but because of his criminal practices. Neither is this a matter of religious or political persecution or prejudice. The undersigned include men of different churches and men who belong to no church, Republicans and Democrats.

"Mr. Roberts denies and we assert that the compact between Utah and the other states has been violated. As evidence that this compact has been broken we point to the facts that in Utah 1,000 illegitimate children have been born to polygamous wives since statehood, that about 2,000 polygamous households now exist in Utah, and that the attempt to secure a punishment of these offenders is denounced by the majority, as we believe, of Utah's citizens."

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of Pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at A. Wasley's drug store.

MONSTER SWINDLE REPORTED.

Said to be an Outcome of Captain Carter's Conviction.

Savannah, Dec. 9.—The Morning News says that the grand jury of the United States court for the southern division of Georgia, in session here, has found indictments against John Gaynor, B. D. Greene and E. F. Gaynor, of New York, copartners in the Atlantic Contracting company, and others for conspiracy to defraud the government. This is an outcome of the conviction of O. M. Carter, late captain of engineers of the army.

Messrs. Greene and Gaynor are alleged to have been in conspiracy with Carter to defraud the government in the improvement works in Savannah river and harbor and Cumberland sound, and to have wrongfully collected from the government sums of money variously estimated to amount from $1,000,000 to $2,500,000. The indictments have not yet been made public, as it is the custom of the federal courts to have its defendants in custody or under bond before publishing the indictments. Colonel Gaynor and Captain Greene are understood to be in New York.

"JUST DRAGGING AROUND."

How many thousands of women understand the sad and pitiful meaning of that simple phrase: "Just dragging around." Women everywhere who feel that they have a work and a mission of womanhood to accomplish in this world will appreciate instantly the disheartened spirit of Mrs. Mattie Venhans, of Tioga, Hancock County, Illinois.

"I had been sick for seven years," she says; "not in bed, but just dragging myself around. At last I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and five of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and it is impossible to describe in words the good these medicines did me. My husband says 'Golden Medical Discovery' is the best medicine he ever tried for a cough. No praise is too high for Dr. Pierce's medicines."

Another lady, Mrs. R. P. Monfort, of Lebanon, Warren Co., Ohio, says, "I think Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery the finest medicine on record. I have taken a number of bottles and it is the only medicine that relieved my terrible headaches."

Women who suffer should write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. He will send them the best professional advice that can be had anywhere in America and entirely without charge. Neither the "Golden Medical Discovery" nor the "Favorite Prescription" contains any alcohol to inebriate or create a morbid craving for stimulants.

Every woman should own a copy of his splendid book "The Common Sense Medical Adviser." It is the grandest medical book for popular reading ever written. It contains a fund of knowledge of precious value to women. It has over a thousand pages elaborately illustrated with engravings and colored plates. The first great edition of more than half-a-million copies was sold at $1.50 each. The profit from this induced Dr. Pierce to carry out his cherished intention of issuing a free edition one copy of which in paper-covers will be sent for the bare cost of mailing, 21 one-cent stamps, or a heavier cloth-bound copy for 31 stamps.
