BAIRD'S HAIR VIGOR

Without help, a bald spot never grows smaller. It keeps spreading, until at last your friends say, "How bald he is getting." Not easy to cure an old baldness, but easy to stop the first thinning, easy to check the first falling out. Used in time, baldness is made impossible with—

BAIRD'S HAIR VIGOR

It stops falling, promotes growth, and takes out all dandruff. It always restores color to faded or gray hair, all the dark, rich color of early life. You may depend upon it every time. It brings health to the hair.

$1.00 a bottle. All Druggists.

"I have used your Hair Vigor and am greatly pleased with it. I have only used one bottle of it, and yet my hair has stopped falling out and has started to grow again thickly."

Fight at Summit Hill.

Sports from every part of the region were at Summit Hill on Thursday evening to witness a preliminary four-round bout between O'Donnell and Tate, of Summit Hill, and a 14-round go for the light weight championship of Carbon county between Moran of Lansford, and Mulhall, of Summit Hill. The first battle was a draw. The second was one of the fastest ever witnessed in the vicinity. Science was thrown to the wind, each man endeavoring to put his opponent out at every opportunity. Both fighters were groggy at several stages, and at the end of the fifteenth round was declared a draw.

A Grave Accusation.

The Reading Eagle last night said: The wife of Frank Danbert, of Garfield avenue, at Schuylkill Haven, decided, it is alleged, to desert her husband. She hired two Pottsville teams to remove the furniture. Constantly Bots, who was watching for such a move, told her she would have to leave the furniture behind or he would arrest her, whereupon she started to break and burn the furniture. The constable then secured a warrant for her arrest on the charge of arson. In default of bail she was taken to jail. The couple are well known.

AGAINST A STRIKE.

Speeches by Priests a Damper on Call-Out Order at Shamokin.

Shamokin, Dec. 9.—The threatened strike of anthracite coal miners between this place and Mt. Carmel will not take place at once, President John Fahey, of the United Mine Workers, issuing notice yesterday afternoon that the meeting called for last night had been postponed until further notice. He said action was taken in order to give the business men a chance to settle the strike at Nanticoke.

It is likely that the leaders of the orders here desired to call off the meeting, fearing that if the men were asked to strike that they would not do so, on account of the action of the Catholic priests of this place. In their churches yesterday they addressed over 3,000 United Mine Workers, advising them against striking.

The leading address, and one which created a sensation among the men and public, was delivered by Rev. Father Joseph Koch, Vicar General of the Harrisburg diocese, and pastor of St. Edward's church. He said: "I have lived in Shamokin for over 34 years, and during that time I have seen many strikes, none of which have accomplished any good. They have always caused poverty, misery, suffering and demoralization. I want you all to understand I am opposed to a strike. I have always been with the workingmen and for their best interests, but will not countenance a strike."
