Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

DID ALEJANDRINO SURRENDER?

A Rumor to That Effect Is Followed by Another That the Rebel Commander Is Wounded at Aguilar. Spanish Prisoners Charge Bad Faith.

Manila, Dec. 11.—An expedition headed by the battleship Oregon left Manila for Subig Saturday night. It is reported that the Filipino commander General Alejandrino, with his staff, has surrendered to General McArthur, and there is also a rumor that Alejandrino is at Aguilar, suffering from a wound received in a fight between insurgents and bandits, and that he will be given an opportunity to surrender and will be properly cared for.

Major Spence, with a column of the Thirty-second regiment, captured a new insurgent camp, an uncompleted stronghold, in the Tassan district. He left Dinahupan at daybreak Saturday and marched ten miles along mountain trails, finally encountering a large band of insurgents, who retreated after a brief skirmish. The Americans had no losses.

The records of the treasury of the so-called Filipino government, together with a quantity of paper money and another Nordenfeldt, have been found at Mangatarem.

Three Americans who, with a commissary sergeant of the Twelfth infantry, were traveling from San Fernando to Angels, left their escort for a moment and went into the bush. As they did not return speedily a search was made for them, but they could not be found. They were probably captured by the rebels. A mail orderly disappeared between Angels and Bamban. He also is supposed to have been captured.

A force of 100 insurgents on Saturday attacked near Baliuag a wagon train escorted by 30 men of the Sixteenth infantry. A sharp engagement followed. The Filipinos lost 18 in killed and nine captured. During the recent attack by the insurgents upon Vigan the Filipinos obtained possession of the plaza and of a church in the center of the town, from which the Americans dislodged them. It seems that the escaped Spanish obtained guns and fought with the Americans against the insurgents.

Colonel Julio Delrio, who is among the released Spaniards that have just arrived here, gives an interesting version of the famous Irene incident in Subig bay in July of last year. He was formerly in command of the Spanish troops in the Olongapo district. His narrative is corroborated by Senor Rafael Rosello, a wealthy Spanish merchant, who also fell into the hands of the insurgents.

Both declare that the Spaniards surrendered to Captain Coghlan, of the United States cruiser Raleigh, on an express agreement that they were not to be given up to the Filipinos, and they assert that the Spanish government has promised to press their claims against the United States for their long imprisonment.

Colonel Del Rio says:

"Captain Coghlan gave his word that our capitulation would be accepted as it was made, that is, to the Americans. He promised that we should not be given into the hands of the insurgents, and I believe he was sincere. Later the Concord went to Cavite for instructions, returning with an order from Admiral Dewey that we were to be handed over to the insurgents."

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by A. Wasley, Druggist.

Nitro-Glycerine Magazine Explodes.

Bradford, Pa., Dec. 11.—The nitro-glycerine magazine of the Pennsylvania Torpedo company, located in Bolivar Hollow, one and a half miles from this city, blew up yesterday with a report that was heard for 30 miles. The magazine was blown to atoms and a hole made in the earth 15 feet deep by 30 feet in circumference. Trees were torn into splinters at the scene of the explosion, and the brick of which the magazine walls were constructed was reduced to reddish powder, which covered the snow over a wide area. Much damage was done in this city and vicinity by the breaking of glass, overturning of chimneys, etc. It is not believed any one was killed. An oil stove, fed automatically, is believed to have caused the explosion.

You Try It.

EARNED, NOT BOUGHT.

Such is the Reputation of "The Little Conqueror" in Shenandoah.

How hard it often is to earn and maintain a good reputation, and how easy it is to lose one. As with a man's reputation, so it is with other things in life. Some things achieve a reputation which stays with them. They are founded on intrinsic value. They face the public backed up by honesty, and work their way quietly but thoroughly. Shenandoah people want no better proof of the merit than is contained in the following experience of a citizen:

Mr James Robbins, miner, of 16 South Market street, says: "Whenever I was exposed to bad weather or took cold it always affected my kidneys and back. I then had difficulty with the kidney secretions accompanied by pains in the back and top of my head. The lameness in my back made it very difficult for me to stoop or lift anything and if I sat for a while it hurt me to get up. I tried liniments and plasters but they did not amount to much. At last I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them from Kirlin's drug store. I never had anything do me so much good before and I can heartily recommend them for I have proved them to be reliable in relieving pains and annoyances of kidney trouble."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

BOERS' BIG VICTORY.

General Gatacre's Army Repulsed Near Stormberg.

SIX HUNDRED TAKEN PRISONERS.

While the List of Killed and Wounded, According to British Reports, Is Small, It Is Believed Later Reports Will Largely Increase Casualties.

London, Dec. 11.—It is hardly too much to regard General Gatacre's repulse near Stormberg as the most serious defeat British arms have yet sustained in the whole campaign. Already the official advices show that two men were killed, nine officers and 17 men were wounded and nine officers and 596 men are missing. But it is evident that the worst is not yet known. The proportion of wounded and killed is so small, when compared with the missing—who are undoubtedly prisoners in the hands of the Boers—that the supplementary list of casualties is awaited with serious misgivings, as it is believed it will largely increase the casualties. It is also feared that there were serious losses of guns and equipment.

General Gatacre left Putters Kraal by train for Molteno, and then proceeded by forced march 12 miles toward Stormberg. He had 4,000 men, including the Northumberland Fusiliers, the Royal Irish Rifles and two batteries of field artillery.

The British were unmolested by the Boers until the Boer position was reached, when a hot fire was unexpectedly opened upon the advancing column.

The engagement began at 4:15 a. m. At 7 a. m., after a sharp artillery duel, the British retired. They are now marching toward Molteno. General Gatacre found the enemy's position impregnable. It was impossible for the British infantry to get at the Boers.

The column had arrived safely within a couple of miles of its destination, the only incidents of the march being an occasional sudden call of "halt," under the belief that the Boers were near. Suddenly a terrific fire opened simultaneously on the British front and right flank. The Royal Irish Rifles, which formed the advance, sought shelter behind a neighboring kopje and were speedily joined by the remainder of the column. It was soon found, however, that this position also was covered by Boer guns, which were more powerful than had been supposed. The troops, therefore, sought a safer position about half a mile away, two batteries in the meantime engaging the Boers and covering the troops in their withdrawal.

The action now became general at long range and a detachment of mounted infantry moved northward, with a view of getting on the enemy's right flank. Suddenly a strong commando was seen moving from the north and the Royal Irish Rifles and the Northumberland regiment were sent out to meet it.

It was soon discovered, however, that the Boers had machine guns well placed, and the British were compelled to face a terrible fire.

Finding it impossible to hold the position in the face of an enemy apparently superior in positions, numbers and artillery, the British retired on Molteno, the Boers following up the retirement closely and bringing two big guns to bear on the retiring column.

The Times publishes the following dispatch from Molteno: General Gatacre attempted to assault the Boer position at Stormberg at dawn today (Sunday). The guides led us wrong, and we were surprised while in fours and after a very trying night march. Our retirement was effected in excellent order, there being no hurry, even at the most critical time. The Northumberlands and Irish Rifles behaved as if on review day. I fear our losses are heavy. One of our guns we had to abandon.

A special dispatch from Ladysmith, by way of Frere, says: "General Brocklehurst, with cavalry and artillery, reconnoitered in the direction of Pepworth Hill with a view of cutting off the Boer retreat, but he found the position still strongly held. The Eighteenth Hussars, pushing forward, drew a furious fire and suffered heavily, losing four killed and 17 wounded. We captured four Boer cannon."

General Schalk-Burger and Commandant Louis Botha are in command of the Boer forces investing Ladysmith. Their horses are said to be in poor condition.

A heavy report was heard in the direction of Colenso yesterday. The sound was followed by a big cloud of smoke. The supposition is that the enemy had blown up the highway bridge.

The Transvaal government has decided to consider Mr. Winston Churchill, who was captured Nov. 15 between Estcourt and Chieveley, a combatant officer, and to retain him as a prisoner. Mr. Churchill has applied to General Buller with a view of getting an exchange.

North of Modder River town the British fired lyddite shells on the Boer position, where the enemy was apparently constructing an emplacement for a 40-pounder. The lyddite shells appeared to do immense damage. The Boers retired, but the incident is interesting as showing that the Boers are still in position quite close to Modder River.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of Pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at A. Wasley's drug store.

Did you ever notice the man in the switching-tower? Does it ever occur to you that the lives of every living person on a train frequently depend on the promptness and intelligence with which he moves the switch levers under his control?

If men could only realize how small a thing may act at the critical instant to switch them from a dangerous track on to one of perfect safety, the yearly deaths from lung diseases would be less by many thousands.

"I had a regular consumptive cough, of which I was afraid, and everybody cautioned and warned me concerning it," says Mr. A. F. Novotny, P. O. Box 1437, New York, in a significant letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y. "When I started to take your medicine I was losing weight rapidly; I was very pale and had no appetite whatever. I used three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and now my condition is changed entirely. I do not cough at all; I have gained eight pounds in weight, have gained my healthy color; and my appetite is enormous. I can and will recommend your medicine to everybody who may be in need of it; as it is a sure cure, and no humbug as so many other patent medicines are. It is by far the superior of all."

One chapter of Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated book, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser tells of nearly one hundred men and women thus promptly switched from the track of death by this matchless remedy.
