Liquor License is an Asset.
Judge McPherson on Saturday filed an opinion in the United States District Court, at Philadelphia, holding that a liquor license may be considered the same as other assets of a bankrupt's estate, and can be sold by the trustee or receiver for the benefit of creditors. The matter came up in the bankruptcy proceedings against Louis Becker, who held a liquor license, which was sold for $225. The referee in bankruptcy held that the proceeds are an asset of the estate and the decision rendered sustains him. The finding is the first of its kind and is likely to be quoted as a precedent in other ones.

THEATRICAL.

CHARLES COWLEY IN HIS FAMOUS PLAY.
At Ferguson's theatre on Wednesday, Dec. 20th, will be seen the successful Yankee comedy-drama, "A Country Merchant," with the eminent American comedian, Charles Cowley, in the stellar role of Eben Baxter. This is one of the best attractions before the public to-day, and deserves to play to standing room only in our town.
"THE WORLD AGAINST HER."

Agnes Wallace Villa and her splendid company played to standing room only at our opera house at both performances yesterday and gained, if possible, more favor in the hearts of our people. She is an actress of the very first water and holds her audiences spellbound from beginning to end. Lucie K. Villa, her daughter, also proved herself to be a charming actress, and her goings were the admiration of the ladies. The support is all that can be desired, and the songs, dances and comedy features introduced are clever. — Patterson, N. J. Call, Dec. 1st, 1909. At Ferguson's theatre, Friday evening, Dec. 22.

THE PRIZE FIGHT.
The reproduction of the great Jeffries-Sharkey prize fight, which took place at Coney Island last month, was witnessed by a very small audience at Ferguson's theatre last evening. The entire 25 rounds were shown, including the mix-up in the last round when Jeffries' glove came off. Those present commented favorably upon the remarkable character of the films, which were an improvement upon those previously shown there. The small audience was due to unfavorable reports received from Mahanoy City, where the exhibition was given previously.

Railroads Made Happy.
A genuine surprise was in store yesterday for the trinitrons on the Reading Railway, who on receiving their November wages found that they had been allowed from four to six days overtime. By reason of this allowance every trinitron found his pay increased from $10 to $15. The men were naturally delighted at this action on the part of the company.

Seeking Brennan's Pardon.
The State Board of Pardons will hold its regular monthly meeting at Harrisburg tomorrow, at which time argument will be made for a pardon for Brennan, now in the county jail under sentence of death for murder.
