LOCAL NEWS.

—Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement, began at 6 o'clock last Sunday evening among the faithful Jews all over the world, and was observed until six o'clock on Monday evening. The day is the celebration of the greatest and most sacred festival in the Jewish calendar, and in its observance the places of business of our Jewish merchants were closed.

—A. F. Voigt, Fred. Michels, Henry Schoell, Jonas Katz and Carl Roeger, of the Honesdale Skat Club, are representing the local organization in the North Eastern Skat Congress, now holding its session in Philadelphia. The contests opened on Wednesday evening last, and will close with a "commers" and grand reception entertainment to-night. As the delegates from Honesdale are among our strongest players there is good ground for the hope that they will secure at least one of the valuable prizes.

—Prof. Fred. L. Grambs, formerly of Honesdale, now organist of the Church of the Advent, Birmingham, Alabama, is thus complimented by the Advent Herald: "It is hardly claiming too much to say that the best music rendered in any church in Birmingham is heard at the Advent. Professor Grambs, though the organist for many years loses none of his enthusiasm for his loved employ. As choirmaster he is painstaking, patient, capable and highly esteemed, while his musical ability and knowledge of his art command the respect of all."

—The past season was a most favorable one for the raising of muskmelons in Wayne county. R. Wilnot Carr, of Prompton, has been a most successful grower of above description of melons for a number of years, but this season eclipsed all previous efforts. Several weeks ago the writer had the pleasure of sampling one that weighed eleven pounds, besides numerous others since. George Eck, who lives just above the fair grounds; John Brecher, of Honesdale, and Treasurer Fred. Saunders, of East Honesdale, also grew generous quantities of them.

—An encouraging start was made on Tuesday evening toward the organization of a choral society here under the leadership of L. B. Phillips, organist and chorister of the First Presbyterian church of Scranton, and leader of the Scranton Symphony orchestra. Mr. Phillips is a thorough musician, who for eight years had charge of the musical department of Syracuse University. Honesdale is to be congratulated on the opportunity which he affords our people to develop latent musical talent. This should be an epoch-making winter, musically. All who are interested are invited to attend the meeting next Tuesday, at 8 p. m., at Grace church Sunday school room, when the first rehearsal will take place.

—Most people have heard of the cautious fellow, who, many years since, refused to pick up a ten dollar bill which was lying on the sidewalk, because he was obliged to allow a discount on one he had found the week before, when he wanted to use it. His sort are not all dead yet if we may credit the following: Half a dozen men passed by a fat-looking wallet lying on the Main street sidewalk, in Monongahela, on Wednesday, each chuckling as he thought he was too smart to be fooled. Then Ernest Milward, a business man, came along, picked it up and found it contained $237 in bank notes. He left it with a trust company, and two hours later the owner came and identified it and left $37 as a reward for Milward.

—"Othello" at the Lyric, on Tuesday evening, was well patronized, but it cannot be said that the audience was an enthusiastic one. In fact there are few situations in Shakespeare's tragedies calculated to draw forth great applause, and "The Moor of Venice" is perhaps the one least stimulating in that direction. John Griffith is an actor of the old Forrest school, and the strut and rant and violence which was characteristic of the latter's acting half a century ago does not captivate the average audience of to-day. Miss Totten made a most presentable Desdemona, so far as personal appearance aided by beautiful costumes went, but she was greatly disappointing in what should have been the emotional parts of her role. Iago, ungracious as is the character portrayed, was exceedingly well rendered by Pedro DeCordoba, and Miss Graham, as Emilia, his wife, was acceptable throughout and specially strong in her denunciation of her husband's treachery and double-dealing with the jealous Moor. For the rest it may be said that the play was well costumed and staged, and that Manager Dittich is to be commended for his evident effort to please all taster in his selection of attractions.

—J. V. Starnes, H. C. Jackson, Hon. J. L. Sherwood, J. F. Lee and E. P. Jones, have been re-elected directors of the Wayne County Agricultural Society.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a Dutch Supper in the chapel, Thursday evening, Oct. 23d. Dutch costumes, music, singing and a good Dutch supper will make a most attractive evening. Tickets, 35 cents.

—A two-story frame dwelling house belonging to DeForest and Arthur Dow, at Preston Park, was destroyed by fire on the 23d ult., probably the result of a defective line. The loss is estimated at $11,500, on which there was an insurance of $700 in the Wayne County Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company.

—A Trust Company holding the bonds of the Port Jervis trolley lines has commenced foreclosure proceedings against the corporation, and the public service commission has instituted suits for failure to comply with its orders. So it appears that other towns with street railways have troubles as well as Honesdale.

—The annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Foreign Missions in the Archdeaconry of Scranton, was held in Grace Episcopal church on Wednesday. The morning session opened at 10:30 o'clock with holy communion, followed at 11:30 by a business meeting and at 1 p. m., by luncheon. The afternoon session opened at 5:30 o'clock. Addresses were given by Miss Lindley, of New York Junior Auxiliary, and Mrs. H. P. Waltz, who has resided in Porto Rico for the past two years and who is intimately acquainted with conditions there. The sessions were well attended. Quite a number were present from Scranton and other places.

PERSONAL.

—William H. Hulsizer, of West street, has been connected with the Durland-Thompson Shoe Co. for thirty-two years.

—Miss Gertrude Box, of Honesdale, who was the guest for a few days of Miss Leona Barnes, of Stroudsburg, has returned home.

—Married, in Waymart, Oct. 5, 1908, by the Rev. W. E. Davis, Miss Della Reynolds, of Tirzah, Sasq. county, to Hugh T. Williams, of Uniondale.

—Miss Alice Z. Gregory leaves to-night for West Chester, Pa., where she will spend a few days with her sister, Miss Harriet, who is a student in the Normal School at that place.

—Edward A. Lindsey and Miss Elizabeth M. Chambers will be married at the residence of O. T. Chambers, uncle of the latter, Fourteenth street, on Thursday afternoon of next week, October 15th.

—Rev. E. E. Davidson, the evangelist, has closed his labors at Hawley. He will preach in the Presbyterian church, Carbondale, this Friday evening, and will begin a series of meetings at Cooperstown, N. Y., on Sunday.

—Sheriff William B. Roadknight took possession of his recent purchase, "The Diamond Restaurant," so long successfully managed by C. J. Weaver, the 1st inst. At the expiration of his term his family will occupy the residential portion of the building.

—Clarence H. Young, son of our former townsman, Horace G. Young, now of Albany, has been admitted to membership in the firm of Joseph Walker & Sons, of 20 Broad street, New York, bankers, and members of the New York Stock Exchange.

—Frank Cornell, long in the employ of J. E. Richmond as coachman, had a bad fall through a misstep into the cellarway while engaged in closing the blinds at Mr. Richmond's residence on Church street on Monday night last. He managed to reach his room after the accident, but when Dr. H. B. Ely was called on Tuesday on Tuesday morning, it was found that he had fractured three ribs in his left side. He will doubtless be housed for some time.

PICKUPS.

Our special correspondent reports having interviewed all the candidates for office in Wayne county, and all those running for office in Lackawanna county who remain in a condition long enough to be interviewed. All are highly elated over their respective prospects and without a single exception are fully persuaded that they will receive immense majorities.

He also reports a fair "Apple" crop in Wayne, but is satisfied that the "Promise" crop is unusually large, with strong indications that the latter will be worm-eaten before election, to such an extent that delivery will not compare favorably with the expectations of those who booked their orders early in the season.

He reports that ground has been broken at Farview for the new Insane Asylum, but the institution will not be ready for inmates until at least a year from the present election.

He further reports that several of the people who were so ruthlessly treated by light fingered gentry at the late county fair are considering the embellishing of their homes with the new motto "What is a County without a Fair," which is a companion piece to "What is Home without a Stove."

OBITUARY.

Michael Ryan died at Prompton on Sunday last, Oct. 1, 1908, aged 62 years. He had been afflicted with cancer of the face, and a fortnight ago was removed from the residence of Mrs. Mary Short to the home of Salinda Roloson, where he died. He was a son of the late Michael Ryan, of Steene. One sister, Mrs. Penelope Finton, of Carbondale, survives him.

Mrs. George Kellam died at Dalton, Lackawanna county, on Saturday last, Oct. 3, 1908. The remains were brought to Honesdale on Sunday and the funeral took place from the residence of her mother on Delaware street on Monday, with interment in St. John's R. C. cemetery. Deceased is survived by her husband and an infant child; also by her mother, a brother, John, of this place, and two sisters, Mary of Honesdale and Mrs. Lewis Beeny, of New York city.

George D. Oliver died at his home in Carbondale, Oct. 5, 1908, of pneumonia, following a cold contracted on the fair grounds, near Honesdale, last week. He was 61 years and 3 months old, and a native of Wayne county. He had been a resident of Carbondale for some forty years. He is survived by his wife, a son, Floyd, and three married daughters. The funeral services were conducted at his late home, this morning, after which his remains were taken to Bethany for interment.

The death of Joseph P. Williams, of Starlight, on Monday, Sept. 28th, was briefly mentioned in our Tuesday's issue. Mr. Williams, who died of heart trouble, and reached the advanced age of 81 years, 8 months and 8 days. He was born in Fell township, Luzerne, now Lackawanna county, and married in 1849, his wife dying six years ago, since which time he has been cared for by his daughter, Emeline. The surviving children are Perry J., Starlight, Frank, Cook's Falls, N. Y., LeRoy, Laquinn, Pa., Miss Emeline, Starlight, and Mesdames Ophelia Cicer, Lako Conno, Myrtle Taylor, Athens, and Julia Burt, Starlight. The funeral services were held at Starlight, on Thursday of last week, Rev. O. A. Marchant officiating.

A Good Work.

In our last issue we gave a summary of the praiseworthy work accomplished by Honesdale's Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in the course of four days. The organization is in good hands and violators of the law under its special supervision would better take heed lest they find themselves subjected to the heavy penalties specified as punishments for the common, and as they may think, excusable offenses. Overloading, insufficient padding of harness, saddles, etc., and unnecessary or cruel beating of horses, as is shown by the report, brought eleven offenders to grief during fair week. The same vigilance which was exercised during that annual exhibition will be continued throughout the year, and the inhuman owner who attempts to run the gauntlet of our streets with lame, insufficiently fed or otherwise incapacitated horses may expect to be taken before a magistrate and mulcted in the heavy fines and costs which the law authorizes.

Siko. Oct. 7th.—Mrs. Merritt Bolkeon and daughter, Nettie, of Carbondale, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hild.

Several from this place attended the Wayne County Fair last week. Although this season has been a very dry one, the exhibition of grain, fruit and vegetables was very good.

Lavinia Pallas is visiting friends in Carbondale.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, of Jersey City, are visiting friends in this vicinity. Mr. Jenkins preached in the chapel last Sunday evening. They will also hold meetings on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week.

Anna Bolkeon and Daisy Kinble are at Ocean Grove, N. J., where they are employed as waitresses at the Alaska House.

Robert Henderson started on his return trip to California on Monday morning, having spent two months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Henderson, of Rileyville.

Sterling.

October 6th.—After a long illness Berry Deckard died on the evening of the 3rd, and was buried on the 5th at Noble-town. He is survived by a widow and three daughters, Mrs. W. E. Hafler and Misses Ada and Eloda.

John Gillner is improving. Thomas Musgrove will sell at public sale the effects of his brother William on next Saturday.

The sale last week at John Smith's was well attended and everything brought a fair price.

Burton Cliff and family came up from Philadelphia last week on an automobile and on returning Miss Adalaide Noble accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Broadhead, of Delaware Water Gap, came to town in an automobile, Minnie Howe and Mrs. Lipman, of Philadelphia, accompanying them.

Miss Mabel Howe of Detroit, Mich., is calling on her many friends in town and we are all pleased to see her.

Miss Foster is teaching the Maple Grove school; Miss Noggle, at Jericho; Miss Finley, at Leetown, and Miss Heberling at Zion—so peace and harmony again reigns in the community.

We were all very thankful for the recent rains and never saw a better time for farmers to do fall work. We are sorry to say that but few will have very much to dispose of in the shape of apples, potatoes, or in fact anything else that will bring much money.

We are all pleased to receive two copies of the Citizen each week, and certainly wish the editors and all connected with the paper success.

Mrs. Grace Butler Fisk of Shickshinney came to town yesterday and is the guest of her mother.

J. W. Maddox, having disposed of his real estate to a Mr. Graves of Sparrowbush, N. Y., moved away last week.

White Mills.

Oct. 7th.—Joseph Kelch, Jr., who has been working in Corning, N. Y., for some time, is in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Werner are rejoicing over the arrival of a young son.

C. H. Dorflinger made a business trip to New York, on Friday last.

W. H. Ham purchased a pair of mules at the Wayne County Fair.

The White Mills Central Republican Club will hold their regular meeting on Friday, Oct. 9th.

Whoever will return the same to Joseph Stephens will be rewarded with the paper for one year for one dollar and fifty cents.

Teach your chickens to roost where they are to remain for the winter, and do not close the building too tight at first. If you do they will get too warm, and when they are let out these frosty mornings will contract the roup.

Minor Brown has gone West in search of potatoes and cabbages, to supply the people of White Mills, owing to the scarcity of these essentials in this county.

Harry Williams held a dance on Saturday evening, to which his many friends were invited.

Florence Atkinson, our postmaster, has gone to Corning, and from there will go to Rochester on a pleasure trip, and also to visit her old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Little.

The executive board met at Wm. H. Ham's, insurance office, to make preparations for the coming campaign. There was considerable chewing, as Mr. Ham treated the board to chestnuts.

One day this week Prof. Howell built a fire in the furnace of the school building, and as some birds had built their nests in the chimney, obstructing the draft, the rooms at once became full of smoke, whereupon the principal blew the fire horn. Great credit must be given White Mills teachers, as the building was vacated in a few seconds, with no confusion in using the new fire escapes. The children say it was like a real fire.

At The Lyric.

What is regarded by long odds as the most important theatrical event of the season is the announcement that Manager Benj. H. Dittich, of the Lyric Theatre, has completed arrangements with Alfred E. Aarons whereby there will be presented here on Friday evening, Oct. 16th, the greatest of all New York dramatic successes, "The Devil." Mr. Aarons is to present to us the genuine article exactly, as presented at the Garden Theatre, New York, by permission of Henry W. Savage, who controls the only authorized version of Franz Molnar's famous play, which has been the rage of Europe for the past season.

The International Picture Co. of Pittsburg, will present at the Lyric on Friday evening, Oct. 9th, beautiful new moving pictures of the Life of Christ, giving illustrations of his birth, baptism, miracles, Last Supper, trial, crucifixion, resurrection and ascension. Absolutely nothing that could be construed as offensive or sacrilegious, but as pure and beneficial as the most impressive sermon. In connection with the Life of Christ a series of other new and up to date pictures will be shown. Box office open Friday, Oct. 9th, at 9 A. M. Orchestra and Dress Circle, 30 cents; Balcony, 20 cents; Gallery, 10 cents. All seats reserved but the gallery.

The Era of New Mixed Paints!

This year opens with a deluge of new mixed paints. A condition brought about by our enterprising dealers to get some kind of a mixed paint that would supplant CHILTON'S MIXED PAINTS. Their compounds, being new and heavily advertised, may find a sale with the unwary.

THE ONLY PLACE IN HONESDALE AUTHORIZED TO HANDLE CHILTON'S MIXED PAINTS Is JADWIN'S PHARMACY.

There are reasons for the pre-eminence of CHILTON PAINTS: 1st—No one can mix a better mixed paint. 2d—The painters declare that it works easily and has wonderful covering qualities. 3d—Chilton stands back of it, and will agree to repaint, at pro own expense, every surface painted with Chilton Paint that was defective. and 4th—Those who have used it are perfectly satisfied with it, and recommend its use to others.
