The Artillery Society of America makes the sale of its picture of the war and the battle at the Union Hotel on Tuesday. The proceeds will be donated to the Union Hotel.

The pickpockets remain a constant attraction on A.o. Street. The United States Government is purchasing from them in order to make complaints against them.

The New York Post, in an article on the Honesdale Fair, says: "The fair was held on October 18, 1891. Mrs. Maguire was married at Horse Show, and she was born in Dublin, 1810, and thence came to the United States. She is married to Mr. Thomas, and the two of them have been residents of Honesdale for many years."

The Wooltex Garments, the STANDARD! Three per cent. Compound Interest Paid. MONEY LOANED TO HOME PEOPLE. WHERE THOUSANDS OF HONESDALE DIME BANK, Honesdale, Pa., have been able to expand their business, and the bank is now in a prosperous condition. The bank has been in existence for twenty years, and the business has increased every year. The bank is well capitalized, and is managed by Messrs. John H. and John M. Reynolds, who have been associated with the bank for many years.

Uniform Bill of Lading. All cargoes must be endorsed in the county where the vessel is registered before the Uniform Bill of Lading is issued. The Uniform Bill of Lading is the standard form of bill of lading used in this country, and is the only form that is recognized by the courts.

Wayne County Savings Bank, Honesdale, Pa., has a Capital of $10,000 and surplus profits of $200,000, making altogether $202,000. Every dollar of which is secured and paid up for at least 10 years, and in cash is protected by IOU'S STEEL CASH.