LOCAL MENTION.

—“Human Life,” a splendid illustrated monthly magazine, edited by Alfred Henry Lewis, will be sent as a premium to each of the first hundred friends of THE CITIZEN who sends us one dollar and a half, either for a new subscription or as an advance payment for a name already on our list. Be one of the hundred!

—The Amity Social Club will hold their annual ball, Thanksgiving Eve, Nov. 25th, at Lyric hall.

—John L. Meyer, of East Honesdale, is having installed in his home an up-to-date steam heating furnace.

—The Honesdale Band played at a concert in White Mills, Saturday evening. Prof. Wagner had charge of the concert.

—Rev. J. R. Atkinson, of Elizabeth, N. J., will hold service in the Indian Orchard school house, Sunday, at 3:30 P. M. The Sunday school will meet three-quarters of an hour earlier.

—Theodore Lisen, practical upholsterer and cabinet maker, will open a shop at 530 Main street, on Saturday, Nov. 21st, for work of above character. Mr. Lisen is a man of experience and work entrusted to him will be satisfactorily done at reasonable rates.

—The following epitaph is inscribed on an old tombstone in the Plateau, Erie county, Pa., cemetery:
“Mary E. is my name, America is my nation, Lockport is my dwelling place, and Christ is my salvation. Now I am dead and in my grave and all my bones are rotten. Then on this stone you will see my name when I am quite forgotten.”

—Mary Helpin, of Binghamton, aged about 70 years, was committed to the Broome county poor house, a few days ago. She was covered with rags, and her person was in an extremely filthy condition. When her clothing was removed there was found concealed in various pockets $675.00 in bills, all of them badly soiled. The money will be utilized for maintaining the old woman while she is an inmate at the county farm.

—It is contended that the year 1808, just one hundred years ago, gave more celebrities and persons of genius to the world than any other year of the nineteenth century. Among those who were born in that memorable year were Abraham Lincoln, Edgar Allan Poe, Oliver Wendell Holmes, William Ewart Gladstone, Charles Darwin, Lord Houghton, Alfred Tennyson, Edward Fitzgerald, Professor Blackie, Mary Cowden Clarke and Felix Mendelssohn.

—Commencing with our Thanksgiving number, which will be an eight page paper, with illuminated cover, we will begin an absorbingly interesting serial story by Robert W. Chambers, entitled, “The Younger Set,” and also a series of Character Sketches of Wayne county’s prominent and successful men. These biographical articles will be prepared with great care and from the most reliable data, and cannot fail to be not only interesting but inspirational to the rising generation. As Character Building is being taught by example in the schools throughout this county, we will make a strong personal appeal to every school teacher in Wayne county to arrange to have these sketches read to their scholars, and special copies of the articles will be prepared to distribute free among the pupils, with a view to impressing the young people of Wayne County with the opportunities that lie at their door; of the superior chances of succeeding in life through a cultivation of the many traits of character which the successful men of their own county have demonstrated to be factors in life’s success.

—Rev. John R. Atkinson, of Elizabeth, N. J., an exceptionally able minister, will preach in Grace Episcopal church, Sunday, at 10:30 A. M., and at 7:30 P. M., in exchange with the Rector.

—Former patrons of The Honesdale Citizen are again informed that THE CITIZEN PUBLISHING Co. is a distinctly and entirely new corporation, which commenced business on the 1st of October last, and has no connection whatever with the accounts or affairs of the firm whose plant it purchased.

—The Honesdale Electric Installing Co., Harry Pruemers, Manager, is a new concern which will fill a long-felt want. They will open up their place of business, 530 Main street, on Monday, the 23d, and will be ready to do first-class electric house wiring in conformity with the laws, rules and regulations of the Insurance Department, governing same.

—William Henderson, a well-known resident of Lebanon township, aged 79 years died suddenly, yesterday morning, Nov. 18, 1908. At four o'clock he was up and around the house, and talked with some members of the family, so far as we can learn without complaint as to his health. Later he returned to his bed in which he was found dead at six o'clock.

—“Sherlock Holmes,” or “The Sign of the Four,” will be the Thanksgiving attraction at the Lyric Theatre, for two performances, matinee and evening. This is a high class melodrama, and being booked through the Norcross Amusement Co., of New York, our theatregoers will be assured of a good play on this holiday, Thanksgiving. Prices and particulars will appear in the next issue of THE CITIZEN.

Harry Branley and Miss Amelia C. Herrman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Herrman, were married at noon, Nov. 18, 1908, at the home of the bride, on Cliff street, Rev. W. F. Hopp, of St. John's Lutheran church officiating. After a short trip to New York, Jersey City and other places, they will commence housekeeping at No. 153 Cliff street. The bride is one of Honesdale's attractive and popular young ladies, and the groom is an esteemed employee of the American Knitting Company.

PERSONAL.

—John H. Weaver and George H. Seaman left on Wednesday morning last for Sizerville, Cameron county, this State, where they will take the benefit of the noted waters of that place, which are regarded as a specific for rheumatism. Mr. Seaman was a patron of the Sizerville Sanitarium several years ago, and received great benefit from the treatment.

—Andrew J. Miller, of River street, Honesdale, and Mrs. Rose Kniffen, of Walden, N. Y., were married at the home of the bride, at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning last, November 18, 1908. The happy couple started for Kingston, N. Y., after the ceremony, and will enjoy a few days in New York city before coming to their permanent home in Honesdale, to-morrow. As a token of their esteem a party of Mr. Miller's friends will present him with a handsome watch on the occasion of an “at home” which he will tender them on his return.

FINE feathers make fine birds—for awhile; sooner or later they make fine winter hats.

Indian Orchard.

Nov. 17th.—The Berlin teachers all attended the County Institute last week; so also did several of the directors, all of whom report a well spent week.

W. C. Spry, of this place, W. H. Dunn, of Beach Lake, T. Y. Boyd, of Boyd's Mills, and George Engleman, of Narrowsburg, are spending a few days in the metropolis.

Frances Gray, one of the Dyberry teachers, visited her sister Mabel, on Saturday and Sunday last.

Mrs. John Richmond and Mrs. Chas. Wagner are spending several days visiting Hawley friends.

The Episcopalians of this place will hold a donation in the Grange Hall on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Spry and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Buckingham attended their aunt, Mrs. Short's, funeral at Waymart on Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bayly have moved to East Honesdale. The former is working at the Irving glass works.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Swartz made a business trip to Hawley on Wednesday last.

John and Charles Spry will return home from the far west soon.

Prof. J. L. Henshaw, principal of the Winwood High school, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Henshaw, on Sunday and Monday last week.

Nellie Hall is visiting friends and relatives in Scranton.

Miss Goodnough, of Carley Brook, is spending a few days at the home of L. R. Garrett.

Frank Hollenbeck has several teams hauling mine ties and caps from Swamp Brook to Honesdale.

Roy Spry, who has been spending several weeks in Michigan, has returned to his home at Chestnut Lake.

H. H. Bunnell and H. D. Wood have gone to Pike county on a deer hunt. If Harry gets sight of one, it will be his.

The ministers at the Lake are holding protracted meetings. Both are well thought of, and no doubt will have good success.

White Mills.

Nov. 18th.—Joseph Schmidt, of Indian Orchard, shot the first deer that he ever saw on Monday.

On Saturday, Nov. 14th, Professor Joseph Wagner held his annual musical entertainment at Florence Theatre, and it was a grand success, his scholars all showing up well in their knowledge of music. A dance was held afterward, which was enjoyed by all; the Honesdale Band was here with bells on, and gave the White Mills' a treat in the way of good brass band music.

The first annual banquet of the Central Republican Club, of White Mills, will be held at the Opera House, Nov. 21st. A bountiful spread has been arranged by the committee, in charge. Some elegant toasts are looked for, as they are a jolly lot.

Lena Davey, of Beach Lake, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stephens.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reid are rejoicing over the arrival of a young son.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Firmstone, of Honesdale, spent Sunday with the former's brother, Arthur Firmstone.

Lake Como.

Nov. 17th.—Mrs. Blanche McDermott is visiting in Binghamton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knapp started Sunday for Michigan, where they will spend the winter.

Harry Lake, of Binghamton, spent Sunday with his brother, Ralph.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Watson, of Equinunk, were callers in town Sunday.

Inez Knapp spent Sunday in Equinunk with Katherine Bullock.

George Gilchrist, wife and daughter, visited at Geo. Atkins' at Rileyville, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mott and Mrs. Colquitt returned to their former home, Newark, after spending several days at John Jaycox's. Mr. Colquitt will remain a few weeks.

“A Knight For A Day.”

Among the gay bebies of good looking femininity accredited to the chorus ranks of the musical gaiety, “A Knight for a Day,” to be seen here on Monday next, Nov. 23, are: The Sweet Girl Graduates, The Corsican Belles, The Grand Opera Prima Donnas and the Candle Light Girls. The last ensemble is said to be a striking feature, suggesting something of the effect of an illuminated Rembrandt panorama. The girls are presented before a scarlet curtain, all lights of the theatre being reduced until the curtain is fairly in shadow. In single file, the girls appear from the wings and cross the stage in front of the curtain, their nether portions lost in blackness, and their faces brought into striking relief by tiny lights, in the shape of roses, that they carry, and which they switch on and off with fairylike effect.

Bethany.

NOVEMBER 18th.—Band practiced in the brick building Saturday night and we hope to hear them again.

Union Thanksgiving service will be held in the Presbyterian church Thursday evening, Nov. 26. Rev. Signor will give the address.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ballou and children spent Sunday in Carbondale with the latter's sister, Mrs. Ernest Paynter.

The Ladies' Aid appointed Tuesday to clean the Presbyterian church, and they met and accomplished their work.

Dreher.

NOVEMBER 16th.—Mrs. Mary Frey, widow of Lambert Frey, deceased, of South Sterling, died Thursday, Nov. 12, at the residence of her son, J. G. Frey, aged 82 years. Deceased had been in failing health for some time, of illness incident to old age. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Lewis Robacker, and five sons, namely: William, of Tafton; J. G. and G. V., of South Sterling; D. L. and Alonzo, of Virginia. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon in charge of Rev. J. H. Boyce. Interment was made in Pine Grove cemetery.

Clifford Simons, aged about five years, son of Frank and Annie Simons, had the little finger of his right hand almost cut off by a horse trampling on it, on the morning of Nov. 2nd. He was in a wagon when the horse started, and being called to stop, did so suddenly, and threw the little one out of the front of the wagon and under the horse, with above result. Dr's Gilpin and Simons cut off what remained of skin and flesh and dressed the stub. The little fellow is doing nicely.

Clifford Smith, a 16 year old son of Merritt Smith, living near the old North and South turnpike, in the southern end of Wayne county, caught a bear cub in a trap and then shot it, one day last week.

Elmer Waltz, an employee of the New York Central R. R., and in charge of a series of block signal switches in New York city, has been spending a short vacation at the home of his parents.

Abe Miller, in the employ of his brother, H. R. Miller, swapped horses with a trader from White Mills (one day recently, and the horse he got proved to be balky, and in an effort to induce it to work it was shamefully abused, and later its injuries proved so serious that it had to be killed. In disposing of the carcass, the parties having charge started to bury it near the Wallenpaupack creek, but before they had it out of sight they were advised to plant it elsewhere, as the law forbids placing dead bodies too near streams of water, and with some extra labor they moved it to a proper limit.

Robert Boyce will start in a few days to visit relatives in Ohio.

Some forty or more of the laborers on the State road in Dreher are still in camp at Angels, but with the present condition of the weather they may quit until warmer weather.

South Canaan.

NOV. 16—Thanksgiving union services will be held in the M. P. church at 10:30. Rev. Renville, of the M. E. church will preach the sermon. You are welcome.

The Sunday school of the M. P. church will hold their annual Christmas exercises on Christmas eve. A beautiful cantata will be rendered by the school.

The sheds of the M. P. church are being repaired and shingled.

A series of sermons is being preached at Kizer's M. P. church by the pastor, Thomas Hooper. The first was delivered last Sunday afternoon.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Next Sunday being the last Sunday in the church year, will be observed in St. John's Lutheran church as a day of commemoration of the dead. Rev. W. F. Hopp will deliver a German sermon in the morning on “Our Heavenly Home.”—St. John, 14.2. In the evening at the vesper service, an English address from Isaiah, 40.1.—“Comfort Ye; Comfort Ye My People.”

The beneficial effect of storage on the sanitary quality of water now seems to be well established, and a further contribution to the data on the subject has just been made by one of the experts of the London Water Board. He has shown that typhoid bacilli put in river water gradually disappear as the water remains longer in storage.

Extradition and Crime.

When the case of the Russian refugee, Jan Pouden, is finally determined it will be likely to stand as a precedent for the United States in future cases. Russia claimed to ask in good faith under an existing treaty for the extradition of a man charged with four crimes, one being murder. Pouden's friends insist that the killing was committed as part of a political movement in which he was involved at the time.

If the Russian should be surrendered for trial for one of the lighter offenses and the trial should take on the color of political persecution this country would have the right to protest. An extradited prisoner should not be tried for an offense other than that for which he was surrendered without his consent. If this rule is applied in the Pouden case the United States will be committed to it as fundamental in treaty obligations. England established it in 1870, and other nations have gradually yielded the point.

Uncle Sam has plenty of “balkin” right at home and doesn't need to work in Europe's continuous dispute as a side line.

General Apathy proved to be the kind of a soldier who is “missing” at roll call when the battle opens.

Commissioners are Appreciative.

We sincerely thank the citizens of Wayne county for the confidence expressed in us by our re-election, by safe majorities, as County Commissioners, in spite of the base slanders and falsehoods by those opposed to us, published the week prior to election. We shall endeavor to show our appreciation of this confidence by fulfilling the duties of the office in the interests of the tax-payers to the best of our ability.

Sincerely yours,
T. C. MADDEN,
J. K. HORNBECK,
J. E. MANDEVILLE.

A Protest from Waymart.

THE CITIZEN: Under the “Home Topics” of the last issue of the “Independent” we read that thirty years ago, or less, butter was selling for fifteen cents a pound. Now, thirty-four years ago Nov. 4th, our butter sold for forty-five cents a pound by the commission merchants in New York city. At that rate butter has depreciated in value, while we all know very well that hired help, salaried officers and taxes have been multiplied. JUSTICE.

ONE OF THE FIENDS.—“Pardon me, sire, but why do they call you Satan?” His Diabolical Majesty—“Oh, that's just an Old Nick name.”

Mr. Hornbeck Asks a Fair Deal.

“Newspapers ought to be fair; it pays to be fair; the people expect a fair deal even for Bryan.”—Wayne County Herald, Nov. 17, 1908.

On October 30th, the Herald published a letter alleged to have been written to C. A. McCarty, in which it was stated that a portrait of W. J. Bryan was tacked upside down on a building owned by me in Hancock, N. Y. An editorial in the same issue of that paper practically says that I put this “insult upon the peerless leader.” Like all of the Herald's campaign articles, this is false and misleading. This act is alleged to have occurred on Saturday, October 24th. On Monday of that week I came to Honesdale; on Tuesday with the other Commissioners we inspected the Dyberry State road; on Wednesday we inspected the Lehigh State road; on Thursday we met with the Susquehanna County Commissioners at Forest City, and I returned to Honesdale that night. On Friday I went to my home at Equinunk, and was there all day Saturday. I was not in Hancock that week at all, and had no knowledge of any pictures in any shape being tacked on my buildings. I do not know now that a portrait of Mr. Bryan was upside down on my building in Hancock. I have never seen it there, and if it was there at any time I do not know who put it there. J. K. HORNBECK.

The Era of New Mixed Paints!

This year opens with a deluge of new mixed paints. A condition brought about by our enterprising dealers to get some kind of a mixed paint that would supplant CHILTON'S MIXED PAINTS. Their compounds, being new and heavily advertised, may find a sale with the unwary.

THE ONLY PLACE IN HONESDALE AUTHORIZED TO HANDLE IS JADWIN'S PHARMACY.

There are reasons for the pre-eminence of CHILTON PAINTS:
1st—No one can mix a better mixed paint.
2d—The painters declare that it works easily and has wonderful covering qualities.
3d—Chilton stands back of it, and will agree to repaint, at his own expense, every surface painted with Chilton Paint that proves defective.
4th—Those who have used it are perfectly satisfied with it, and recommend its use to others.
