All of the banks of Honesdale will be closed on Thursday, Nov. 30th, Thanksgiving day.

Moscow, just over the Wayne county line, in Lackawanna, is to have a National Bank, with a capital of $25,000.

The net proceeds of the cake sale, in the town hall, last Saturday, in aid of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, was $15.50.

There are now at rest in beautiful Glen Dyberry, the remains of 1,568 persons, in which are included the bodies of sixty-nine soldiers of the war of 1812, the Mexican and civil wars. The first interment was made in the cemetery, Nov. 21, 1859.

A year ago Fred W. Kreitler purchased a lot, 50 by 52 feet, on 10th street, of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank. The property was recently sold to Kreitler Brothers. Consideration in both transactions, private. The latter firm gave the barn and shed to Frank J. Varcoe, if he would remove them, and he has completed the work. Kreitler Brothers will at once erect a modern two-story dwelling, containing ten rooms, and high attic, on the lot. There will be no difficulty in renting the property.

Howard Hartung, formerly a Honesdale butcher; now employed in a Dickson avenue meat market, Scranton, picked a chicken on a wager in forty seconds, a few days since. The feat seems likely to give him more than local notoriety, as a travelling man for a baked bean company happening to see an account of his accomplishment, promptly visited him and made an arrangement for another contest to come off with a rival chicken picker at an early day. There will probably be some hot work when the match comes off.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Scranton Life Insurance Co. on the fourth page of cover of this issue. This company wrote $13,000,000 worth of life insurance during its first year. It is offered by men who have been very successful in business life, and the same care and energy which brought success in other lines has fitted them to safely and successfully carry on the business of the Scranton Life Insurance Co. Those desiring insurance will do well to read their advertisement and carefully examine their new plan for placing life insurance.

The first American Thanksgiving Day was observed in 1621, the year after their landing from the Mayflower, by the Pilgrims at Plymouth, Mass., as a token of gratitude for an abundant harvest. In 1623 a public day of thanksgiving is noted and one is mentioned in a letter of 1632. Washington appointed such a day in 1789, after the adoption of the Constitution, and in 1795 for the general benefit and welfare of the nation. Lincoln revived the custom in 1863 and since that year the Presidents have always issued proclamations appointing the last Thursday in November as Thanksgiving Day.

—Factory No. 2 of the Hawley Glass Co. has resumed work with a full force, after being idle since the first of July.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian church packed and shipped, last week, three barrels to North Carolina, filled with clothing, shoes, etc., for destitute colored people of that State.

—By a recent order of the post office department, registered mail matter is to be delivered only to the person to whom addressed. Not even on a written order will it be delivered to another person.

—N. E. Kingsbury, of Autumn Leaves, this county, has bought out the bakery business of W. H. Fox, in Deposit. He took possession on Monday last, Mr. Fox remaining for the present as an assistant.

—District Superintendent M. D. Fuller, of Carbondale, will hold quarterly meeting services in the M. E. church, Aldenville, Sunday, Nov. 29th, at 2:30 P. M., and at Pleasant Valley the same day, at 7:30 P. M.

—Eugene Fay is building a summer boarding house at Starlight, calculated to accommodate forty city guests. Wm. Cummings, of Lake Como, has the contract for the erection of the hotel, which will be up-to-date in every detail.

—The fact that November 15th fell on Sunday this year added one day's lease of life to the lot of some of the deer that roam the forests. The deer season should have opened on November 15th, but as Sunday hunting is not permitted, Monday, November 16th, marked the opening of the season, and the killing of deer may continue until December 1. Each hunter is limited to kill one male deer, with horns, in a season.

—Officials of the Prudential Insurance Co. are investigating the circumstances surrounding the death of Norman E. LaBarr, formerly of Starucca, who was killed by a train at Hazleton, recently. The deceased took out a policy for $5,000 with the company during the past year, and the policy is void if the insured committed suicide within one year. The company claims that there is sufficient mystery about LaBarr's death to warrant an investigation.

—Governor Stuart has approved the application for a charter for a railroad to run from Matamoras to Milford, Pike county. It will be the second railroad in the county, and will be styled the Port Jervis and Delaware Valley. Its length will be seven miles and the capital stock is $300,000. The directors are Francis A. Sawyer, Canton, President; ex-Congressman C. F. Wright, Susquehanna; Isaac N. Beardslee, Edward P. Emerson and James S. Helden, Port Jervis, and Representative Alfred Marvin and T. F. DeGraw, Matamoras.

—Stroudsburg's free mail delivery system was inaugurated on Monday of last week. The town is favored with three deliveries a day—at 8 A. M., and 1 and 5 P. M. Here, where we have had carriers for years, we have to content with two deliveries a day, and it so happens that they are not by any means at the most convenient hours. A letter reaching Honesdale by the afternoon Erie or D. and H. railroads, if addressed to street and number, must lie in the post-office till the next forenoon, too late for a reply even by the morning mails on either road; and such manner as comes after noon on Saturday will not reach the parties addressed before nine o'clock, on an average, the next Monday morning. Certainly here is good occasion for Uncle Sam to sit up and take notice.

—It is an ill wind that blows nobody good. When the Park Theatre in Brooklyn, N. Y., was entirely destroyed by fire last week, patrons of that house were for the time being robbed of the delights of stepping from their front door into a New York attraction, and those that desired to visit a theatrical performance were compelled to take a long trolley or subway ride, or stay at home, and on the other hand, some sixty persons were thrown out of work until the theatre can be rebuilt; but had not this undesired catastrophe occurred, patrons of the Lyric would have been compelled to go to their turkey repast without the thought that afterwards they could witness what the Brooklyn folks were missing, for "The Sign of the Four," the famous Sherlock Holmes detective drama, was booked for Brooklyn this week, and now that it has no theatre to house them, Honesdale theatre goes can reap the harvest. Tickets now on sale at the box office.

—Wayne county is quite noted for its cases of exceptional longevity, a number of its residents having passed the century mark before answering the final summons, and one at least—Mrs. Sarah Benjamin—attaining the ripe old age of 113. We have several octogenarians in Honesdale to-day, and an occasional nonagenarian, Mrs. F. B. Penniman of the latter class, clear in mind, though physically weak, having reached her ninety-ninth year. Just at this writing, however, we must yield the palm to Towanda, Mrs. Eliza McKean having celebrated on Saturday, the 21st, in that town, her one hundred and first birthday, in possession of all her faculties with the exception of her eyesight. She can see, but not very well. She was born in Litchfield, Herkimer county, N. Y., on Sunday, November 14, 1807, to Mr. and Mrs. Truman Merry. She married Allen McLean and moved to Towanda in 1848, where she has since lived, her husband serving twelve years as Prothonotary of Bradford county.

—The Bostonian Ladies' Orchestra and Mart King, Reader, is announced for Monday, Dec. 7th, at the Lyric Theatre. This concert company needs no introduction to Honesdale people as they have appeared before large audiences in this town on several occasions, the last time under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church. Their program this season is entirely new, consisting of classical and popular selections.

—Graham Watts, who, May 16, 1865, was promoted to the grade of Regimental Quartermaster Sergeant of the 67th Reg. Pa. Vol. Infantry, left on Sunday morning last for Frederick (Monocacy) Junction, Maryland, where he witnessed on Tuesday, the 24th, the ceremonies attendant upon the dedication of the monument erected in honor of the gallant dead of the 67th, 87th and 138th Pa. regiments. Co. Commissioner Thomas C. Madden, of Angels, this county, Peter Wolfe and Charles Yetter, of Stroudsburg, and Samuel R. Tier, of Swiftwater, Monroe Co., were also in attendance. Sergeant Watts made the trip via New York city.

—Henry W. Dunning, Esq., of Wilkes-Barre, has just purchased a lot on the eastern portion of Glen Dyberry, adjacent to the Reed-Dorflinger plot.

—Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Chambers, of 14th street, will partake of their Thanksgiving turkey at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Geo. G. Johns, in New York city.

—Dr. Dwyer, of Forest City, has announced his intention of removing to Great Bend, for the purpose of practicing medicine. He will also open a drug store in that place.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Holmes entertained the choir of the Presbyterian church, and the Sunday school class of the latter, at their pleasant home, last Friday evening.

—A second son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Keyser, of Salt Lake City, Utah, a few days ago. Mrs. Keyser was formerly Miss Florence L. Snydam, of Honesdale.

—Mrs. Frank McKenna, of Ridge street, returned home on the 19th, from the State hospital, Scranton, where she submitted to a severe operation. Her health is greatly improved.

—Wm. G. Faatz and F. H. Faatz, of Lestershire, N. Y., former Honesdalers, will eat their Thanksgiving dinner in Savannah, Georgia, where they are attending the great automobile races.

—Fritz Breidenstein, of Willow Avenue, has received the legacy recently left him by a relative in Germany. While the amount ($800) is not startlingly large, the money will come very handy now that winter is closing in. Our artistic friend has our congratulations.

—Anna, the only daughter of Judge and Mrs. R. W. Archbald, will be married on Tuesday, Dec. 1st, to William W. Silvey, of New York city. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom will be present.

—Miss Caroline L. Petersen, President of the Honesdale Improvement Society, has been made a member of the standing committee on civics of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edson H. Blandin, of Scranton, welcomed a little daughter of nine pounds to their household, Nov. 21st. The mother was formerly Miss Ethel M. Knapp, of East Honesdale.

—Elizabeth Dodge Hull is the name of a young lady, weighing eight pounds, who came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Hull, of New York city, Nov. 19th. Mrs. Hull was formerly Miss Edith F. Torrey, of Honesdale.

—Mrs. Adam Metzger visited her daughters, Mrs. George Gottschalk and Mrs. George Alfring, in New York city, last week, and while there attended the wedding of her granddaughter, Katherine E. Alfring to Frank Enger, both of New York.

—Mrs. Frank Voltier, and her two children, Hildegarde and Frank, left last Saturday morning for Philadelphia, to spend a few weeks with Mrs. Voltier's parents, prior to going to Hartford, where Mr. Voltier is to take charge of a large Elevator concern.

—George W. Knapp has been assigned to the run of trains No. 7 and 8, from Jersey city to Elmira, in the place of Edward Rosencranz, deceased, and Wm. H. Lent, of Port Jervis, succeeds him on trains 47 and 48, the Southern Tier Express. Mr. Knapp will move from Hornell to Elmira in the spring.

—The late Webb Horton, a native of the town of Liberty, N. Y., who died in Middletown a few years ago, leaves an estate of between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000. Deceased was well known in the northern part of this county, and in Damascus, where he was interested in the tanning industry.

—Announcement was made at a dinner recently tendered by Harvard men in Boston to the crew and ball team, that Christy Mathewson, of the New York Giants, will coach the Harvard pitchers next spring. He will have charge of the work in the baseball cage, and has been invited to stay with the squad until outdoor work is well under way.

—Royal Taft, of Dunmore, formerly of Hawley, finding his name coupled with that of the President-elect as an intimate relative, writes the Scranton Times that while he believes the genealogical statement true, he desires to correct the item so far as to his being intimate with the president-elect is concerned, as he has no personal acquaintance with him and, in fact, has never seen him.

—The following young people of Wayne county, are students at the West Chester, Pa., State Normal School: G. Lucile Abraham, Damascus; Mary N. Bradbury, Beach Lake; Mildred J. Elliott, Hollisterville; Reed F. Gager, Cold Spring; Harriet L. Gregory, Prompton; Floyd W. Hawk, South Canaan; Walter J. Kimble, Torrey; John S. Lee, Waymart; Maude E. Noble, Calkins; Cassie S. Reed, South Canaan; Leland F. Reynolds, Milanville.

—Under the heading of "Walks and Talks Among Artists," last Sunday's New York Herald says: "Miss Jennie Browncombe is at work on a painting of three young girls in an orchard in blossom. She has recently completed a single figure of a girl seated by a window embellished with coats of arms. The girl is making a garland from a profusion of roses that lie on the carved bench on which she sits. Miss Browncombe also has just finished some successful portrait work in pastel."

—The marriage of Helen Elizabeth, daughter of Mrs. Henry M. Boies, to James Jerome Belden, of Syracuse, will take place Tuesday evening, Dec. 8th, in the Second Presbyterian church, of Scranton. A reception will follow at the Boies home on Clay avenue. The bride-elect's sister, Miss Ethel Boies, will be maid-of-honor, and Mrs. David Boies will be one of the eight bridesmaids. Meade Belden, of Syracuse, will be best man. Among the social functions given this week for the bridal party are a luncheon, by Miss Frances Jernyn; a tea by Mrs. J. M. Wainwright, and a bridesmaids' luncheon Saturday, to be given by the bride-elect.

—The many friends of Rev. Dr. H. C. McDermott in Honesdale will be pleased to learn of his appointment by the Board of Bishops as one of the representatives of the Methodist Episcopal church to the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, which is to meet in Philadelphia in December. The Methodist Episcopal church, with its three and one-third million members, will be represented by 67 men, nine of whom are bishops and some of the most prominent editors, secretaries of benevolent boards, college presidents and pastors in the denomination. The Council, which represents some fifteen million church members, and about twenty-five million Sunday school scholars, will be one of the most significant gatherings ever held on the American continent. His appointment is a fine tribute to Dr. McDermott.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Dorflinger and Miss Dorflinger, of White Mills, who are in New York this week, are staying at the Hotel Walcott. They are attending the opera, as well as shopping.

—Philadelphia is to have a new $10,000,000 art gallery. If they don't watch the graters, they'll fill it with caricatures at the price of old masters.
