CENT A WORD COLUMN

FOR SALE—A good two-seated Sleigh casonable, Inquire Hotel Wayne, 45tf

HOLIDAY FURNITURE at BROWN'S, Parlor Sults at Brown's, Bedroom Suits at Brown's, Couches at Brown's, Fancy Chairs at Brown's, Dining cane and wood Chairs at Brown's

LOCAL MENTION.

-At a meeting of the stockholders of Durland, Thompson & Co., shoe manufacturing company, on Monday last, the old officers were re-elected, and the Durland, Weston & Co.

-The Foreign Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Perry A. Clark, of Dyberry Place, on Monday afternoon. After the usual business was transacted, the hostess treated the members to an English lunch, served on her rare and beautiful old English china.

cheese firm of Seelyville, have followed mittee. their annual custom by sending their thousand patrons renewal calendar pads weight receptacles furnished by them several years ago.

-The Wayne County Savings Bank the good management and prosperity of that institution. This, it must be under- New York for trial. stood, is after paying or crediting to sixty thousand dollars, as interest on their deposits during the past year.

pany met at the office of the Secretary, Hon. Perry A. Clark, on Monday last, The board organized by the election of Secretary. H. C. Jackson, of Damascus, President: E. T. Tiffany, Pleasant Mount, Vice Treasurer, and Perry A. Clark, Honesdale. Secretary.

-Eugene V. Coleman, of the Irving Cut Glass Company, of this place, has zone south to establish a branch of the firm's business at Alton, Georgia. 'The train upon which he was riding, while on his way, was wrecked, and the engineer and two other men killed. Fortunately Mr. Coleman was dining at the time of the accident, and, as the buffet car was not involved in the wreck, he escaped uninjured.

-The second annual public speaking and Dunmore High schools will be held ooem, "The Baron's Last Banquet." be the selection for the declamation con-dates in caucus; and consequently the great bulk of local tickets in Pennsylis still selecting its candidates by the old officially certified to the county commissioners' office. Up to this writing there seems to be but little rivalry for nominhis year, and, the law precluding his re- College. election, there may be some strife for have not as yet been forthcoming. In by Mrs. C. Harry Rockwell. Neil Hiller the State Bar examinations in February, past, the incumbents having been about P. Greene spoke of the advantages to be the examination at that time. The ansince the creation of the borough, and Pierce. Miss Dorothy Menner told of latter feat attracted considerable attention it is not likely there will be any great the many fine things Vassar offered the at the time, owing to Mr. Kent's promistruggle for it now. The new borough law, under which Honesdale has been affairs, imposes some duties upon the pleasant events, on the first school day versity after preparation at the high burgess unknown to past incumbents, and consequently a slight salary has emolument will hardly be regarded as excessive pay for the extra services requir- High School in the spring. ed. Yet as town councilmen, school directors, collector, auditor, constable and other officers are to be chosen, as well as burgess, all citizens of both continuous and continu directors, collector, auditor, constable parties interested in the prosperity of the town as well as in their personal welfare, should make it a point to attend than cost. the caucuses of their respective parties and, so far as in their power, see to a that good tickets are put in nomination. winter stock at cut prices.

-Richard Dusinberre announces himself as a candidate for tax collector for the borough of Honesdale.

-The Ladies' Circle of the G. A. R. of Honesdale are making arrangements for an appropriate celebration of the hundredth anniversary of Lincoln's birthday on Friday, February 12th, next.

-By request the performance at the Lyric Theatre on Monday evening, Jan. 11th, will not begin until 8:30 in order that the husiness men and their clerks can attend the play, Yorke and Adams 'Playing the Ponies.',

-The directors of the Honesdale Consolidated Water Co. met on Monday last and organized for the year as follows: President, S. A. McMullen, Sr.; Vice Presidents, John D. Weston, Thomas Medland; Secretary, Charles J. Smith; Treasurer, E. C. Mumford; Superintendent, S. A. McMullen, Jr.

-The re-elected board of County Commissioners met at the Court House on Monday last and organized by the election of John E. Mandeville as President. The appointments were as folname of the concern was changed to low: George P. Ross, Clerk; E. C. Mumford, Solicitor; Isaac H. Ball, Janitor ; H. B. Ely, M. D., Jail Physician.

-A note from C. S. Penwarden, Secretary, informs us that the annual banquet of the Wayne County Pennsylvania Society of New York City will be held some time during the month of February, concerning which a special notice -G. Smith & Son, the enterprising will be issued as soon as the details have Mrs. J. Adam Kraft and other Honesmanufacturing and importing butter and been completed by the Dinner Com-

-Gilbert Coleman, a negro, who murdered his wife by striking her on the for 1909, for use in the neat glass paper- head with a flat iron, and then stab- of Mrs. E. O. Hamlin, on North Main bing her in the throat, leaving the knife street. sticking in the dead woman's neck, was captured in the caboose of a west bound has declared a semi-annual dividend of freight train at Callicoon on Thursday twelve per cent., which speaks well for night last. He made a full confession ents, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Gardner of of his crime, and was taken back to East street.

-At a meeting of the stockholders of savings' depositors, the sum of over the Creamery and Cheese Factory Mutual Fire Insurance Company, held in Honesdale on Tuesday last, the old Intruder." -The stockholders of the Wayne Co. board of directors was re-elected, and Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Com- the following officers were chosen for 1909: Perry A. Clark, President; Chas. J. Smith, Vice President; Emerson W. and re-elected the old board of directors. Gammell, Treasurer; W. E. Perham,

-Postmaster Allen has received a bulletin which provides for the payment President; John H. Ames, Hawley, of rewards for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons who interfere with the government mails. The rewards are as follows: One thousand dollars for the arrest and conviction of any person who robs a mail car attached to a railroad train or for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons who wounds anyone having the custody of government mails. Five hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of anyone who robs mails while being conveyed over a post route. Two hundred and fifty dollars for the conviction of anyone who attempts to rob the mails being conveyed over a post route. Not more in Dunmore on Friday evening, April 16. into a postoffice. If the postoffice safe the new primary method for the nomin- last time. School, called at 9:15, open- S. Kent, under the firm name of Bushation of candidates for borough and ed with hymn "Holy, Holy, Holy," nell & Kent, with offices at 917 Chamber ownship officers, have returned to the scripture reading by Mr. Oday, Lord's of Commerce. Mr. Bushnell is a son of old way, the practice of naming candi- prayer, song, "Hail and Farewell," and the late Sidney N. Bushnell, and grandopening address by Mr. Oday.

vania will be so nominated. Honesdale school was founded, and of the old nent citizens of this county. "Ralph S. principals, all of whom are living with Kent," says the Buffalo Evening News, method, and the caucuses of the Repub- the exception of Prof. Fowler; of "is one of the best known Cornell men and Miss Sutton, a most excellent teacher, of the last decade. He received the debe held at a date not as yet determined Miss Jennie Brownscombe, a celebrated gree of Bachelor of Arts in 1902, and apon, but in time for the selections to be artist, both of whom were students in the degree of Bachelor of Laws in 1905. the Honesdale high school.

ations on either ticket, with the bare ex- on the violin by Dr. Edward W. Burns, ter on Cornell football teams that de- will not be heard from again, ception of the tax collectorship. The Harold VanKeuren, in an interesting feated Princeton and the University of term of the present burgess expiring speech, put forth the merits of State Pennsylvania. He is one of the two the honor of that position; but names advantages of Wellesley College. Solo, Phi Beta Kappa key. Mr. Kent tried Song by the school, "The Palms." Giles men throughout the State who passed O'Connor has been notified. equally divided between the parties obtained at Yale. Solo, Miss Blanche nouncement by Judge Hiscock of this girls who were thinking of entering col- nence in intercollegiate athletics. Mr. lege. Piano solo, Miss Grace Hanlan. Kent was born and reared in Franklinfor the past three years conducting its Edward Jenkins, the originator of these ville, N. Y., and entered Cornell Unifor a more active Alumni Association, warm congratulations on the very auspibeen attached to the office, but the and we think the public may see evi clous opening of his professional career

MENNER & Co. will close out a lot of single suits for Ladies and Misses at less

PERSONAL.

-Miss Ruth Monaghan, of Scranton, Annual Report of the President of the visiting relatives here.

-Miss Mae O'Neill spent several days ecently in Carbondale.

-Mrs. Emma H. Brown, of Scranton, is visiting relatives and triends in this

-Mrs. Charles Mangini and son Ralph, of New York city, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Barbieri.

-Miss Grace Williams, of Carbondale, is the guest of the Misses Secor and other friends this week. -Winfield Bush, of Meriden, Conn.

returned home the first of the week, after a pleasant visit with friends in town. -Hon, Leopold Fuerth left for Harrisburg on Sunday last, and was in his seat at the opening session of the Legis-

-Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kiegler and Miss Pauline Kelz, of Honesdale, are spending a few weeks in Philadelphia.

-Mrs. Frank Steinman and daughter, Mrs. Lester R. Knapp, went to New York on Monday, for a few days' recrea-

-Miss Nellie H. Killian, of West Pittston, has returned from a holiday visit with Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hebert, of 1231 Spring street.

-Mrs. Lawrence Wefferling and son, of Newark, N. J., are visiting Mr. and dale relatives and friends.

-Sigmund Katz, of the Katz Underthe early spring, has leased the residence

-Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Gardner and daughter, Sarah, of Scranton, were guests last week of Mr. Gardner's par-

-The January number of Hampton's Broadway Magazine has a very fine color reproduction of Miss Jennie Brownscombe's beautiful painting, "A Fair

- Miss Clara R. Torrev lett vesterday morning for New York city, where she will spend a week with her sister, Mrs. Arthur B. Hull.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Suydam took a party of friends to the Lyric, on Thursday evening last, to see "Paid in Full," and after the performance entertained them at their home on Ninth street, where they watched the Old Year out with much mirth and good cheer.

-We are grieved to announce the death of Harriet Kennedy Torrey, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fuller Torrey, and grandchild of Cashier Edvin F. Torrey of the Honesdale National Bank, which occurred at the home of her parents in Clinton, N. Y., on Tuesday of last week, Dec. 29, 1908, after an llness of two days with ptomaine poison-

-Married at the home of the bride's mother, in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Wednescontest of the Honesdale, Carbondale than $200 nor less than $50 for the arrest day, December 30th, 1908, Miss Rey and conviction of anyone who breaks Bonner to Dr. Leander Newman, of New York city. The groom is a promis-The subject in the essay contest will be, be broken open the maximum sum is to ing young physician, and the bride a > son of the late Pope Bushnell of Bethany, R. M. Stocker spoke of when the for many years one of the most promimen in the history of Cornell football Miss Florence G. Brown told of the who have won both a varsity "C," and a lawyer as Mr. Bushnell."

> > Up to the Minute Romance "Will you be my true love?" he

"No," she replied, "but I am perfectly willing to be your affinity."

MENNER & Co. will close out their only difficulty now is the adjustment at cut prices.

OUR DUMB ANIMALS.

Honesdale Branch of the W. P. S. P. C. A.

The Honesdale Branch of the Women's Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was organized Nov. 26, 1907, at the residence of Mrs. Thomas B. Clark, with five members and the following officers:

President—Miss Florence Stuart Wood. Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs. Charles

T. Bentley.
Vice Presidents—Mrs. W. F. Suydam,
Mrs. Charles R. Brady and Miss Clara
R. Torrey.

After faithful work on the part of the committee the membership was increased to 165 active members and 15 contributing members.

Nicholas B. Spencer was appointed Agent for the Society, and Walter S.

Hennig, Honorary Agent. Mrs. Charles T. Bentley resigned as Secretary and Treasurer the first of July, and Miss Clara R. Torrey was elected to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the year. In March Miss Emma Stuith, of Seelyville, was elected Vice President.

Our Agent's Report for the year is as follows: Number of cases investigated.

Number of horses ordered blanketed.

Number of horses ordered sharp shod.

Number of animals taken from work.

Number of animals taken from work.

Number of pads erdered on harness.

Number of warnings against cruelty.

Number of prosecutions.

Though we have only three prosecutions to report, we feel that through the wear Company, who is to be married in warnings given we have been able to do a great deal towards alleviating the suffering of animals caused so often by mere ignorance and thoughtlessness.

We had this fall twelve blanket signs printed and posted in prominent places in the town and outlying districts.

During the year the committee held two cake sales-one in August and the other in December, the proceeds of which replenished the treasury, and the committee wish to thank those members of the Society who so graciously responded at that time.

of $49.04.

We expect to have an Honorary Agent appointed in Hawley, within a few days, None but a Pompeian mummy could chorus of thirty. The song hits were and in this wry widen our field of work.

and the generous support of the citizens the audience to catch its breath between and the entire production was staged by of Honesdale and Seelyville, we look the laughing spells. It is an uproarious Frank Smithson, General Stage Manager forward to the coming year, hoping to pandemonium of ludicrous misunder- for the Shuberts. accomplish still more for the welfare of our dumb but faithful friends.

Respectfully submitted. FLORENCE STUART WOOD.

The D. & H. Summer Paradise Directory.

All persons desiring to entertain summer boarders at resorts on or adjacent to the Delaware and Hudson rail and lake steamer lines now have opportunity to secure free representation in the 1909 edition of the D. & H. Summer Hotel and Boarding-House Directory by sending at once to the General Office of the Company information as follows: Name of house, name of manager, Post-office address, name of nearest D. & H. R. R. 'Pennsylvania in Art.' Three scholars, be paid. Not less than $50 or more than pianist of rare talent who studied for a station, distance from station, how reach be paid. Not less than $50 or more than pianist of rare talent who studied for a $200 for the arrest and conviction of any says on that subject and read them on the evening of the contest. The three mails, and the same price for the contest. The three mails, and the same price for the contest. the evening of the contest. The three essays are to be in the hands of the judges on April 5. The selection for the recitation contest will be Albert G. Green's at a railway station.

| Pleasant township, this county, who is county, which is cou A part of Webster's reply to Hayne will be the selection for the declamation contest.

Tuesday morning, high school students, teachers and the alumni met in the old assembly room probably for the he new primary method for the nominal rate of $15.00 for a full-page of $7.50 for half-page advertisement is made to cover cost of the extra space required. As the book goes to press next attorney-at-law, of Buffalo, has associated with him in co-partnership for the dental practice of his profession, Ralph he new primary method for the nominal rate of $15.00 for a full-page of $7.50 for half-page advertisement is made to cover cost of the extra space required. As the book goes to press next dents, teachers and the alumni met in the old assembly room probably for the last time. School, called at 2.15 open. ticket agent, from whom blanks as contracts may be obtained. 45eoitf.

PRIEST AND GIRL GONE.

Letter Says Curate Has Eloped and Married Miss Testa.

Newark, N. J., Jan. 5.-The Rev. Filomena Siani, assistant priest at St. Rocco's Roman Catholic church, this city, and Julia Testa, seventeen years old, disappeared simultaneously three He was president of the senior class of days ago. Her father has received a Piano dues by Mrs. Edward Burns 1902, and ranked among the highest of letter from the priest stating that they and Miss Flossic Bryant, accompanied his class in scholarship, and played cen- had been married in New York and

The Rev. Father Siani had been a curate in the church for two years. He had heard the confessions of the girl with whom he eloped and had called frequently at her home.

The Rev. James Zuccorelli, rector of fact the office does not appear to have upheld Syracuse as the ideal University. 1905, and stood first on the list of 300 to have the priest unfrocked. Bishop the church, said he would take steps

> Duel by Letter. Dueling is going just a little out of fashion in Paris.

It holds its own

still upon serious questions, but in small matters, such as a squabble over trivialities, the only form of duel used of the new year, put forth a strong plea school in that village. He is receiving ly a literary duel between an actor of late has been duel by letter. Recentand a critic has caused some amusement. The critic had written unfavordence of this in the opening of the new in association with so able and busy a ably of the actor's performance. "Sir," wrote the actor, "I will not send my seconds to the scoundrel that you are, but box your ears in the present letter. Consider your face smacked upon both cheeks and be grateful that I have not used my cane." The critic answered: "Sir, as you wish it. I consider my ears boxed. I beg you in return to consider this letter the equivalent of six revolver shots through your empty head. Consider yourself dead when you read this. I salute your corpse."

OBITUARY.

Lemuel Brown died at his home in Beach Lake, Dec. 26th, 1908. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. A. Tuthill, at Beach Lake, Dec. 29th, and the remains were taken to Narrowsburg, N. Y., for interment. Mr. Brown was born at Ellenville, N. Y., May 29, 1827. Sixty-two years ago he came to Pennsylvania, and two years later he was married to Hannah J. Branning, eleventh child of Michael and Hannah Branning. He is survived by his wife and two children, Mrs. H. S. Whitmore, of Inglehart, Pa., and J. H. Brown, of Alaska, author of "Heirloomoscheuyemera." Three died several years ago, David J.; Mrs. J. W. Rice, and Wallace. Mrs. Brown extends her thanks to those of her many friends who so kindly assisted in caring for her husband during his last

One of the newly elected members of the Oregon legislature announces his intention of introducing at the next session a bill making it a crime to shoot any person under the belief that such person is a deer or a canvas-back duck.

Subscribe for THE CITIZEN.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Labor Grange, No. 13, of Damaser township, will give an entertainment at Calkins, on Saturday evening, January 9th, at 80'clock. A five act drama will be the feature of the occasion.

The picture services at the Baptist church are being well attended, and a general interest manifested. These sernons will be continued every evening this week except Saturday. Old and young alike are cordially invited.

The Choral Society will meet at 8:30 P. M., this (Tuesday) evening, instead of 7:30, as heretofore, owing to the fact that the Presbyterian Chapel is being occupied every evening for the Week of Prayer Farmers in the vicinity of Lawrenceburg, Ind., have found that a herd of goats will clear the underbrush from a farm in a few months, and do a good job at a moderate cost. For the last five years a herd of forty goats has been enting and working there, and in that time the animals have changed owners ten times. As soon as their owner discovers that there is nothing left on the farm for the goats to feed on but good grass they are lent or sold to another farmer for a similar purpose.

"Playing the Ponles."

can make humanity laugh itself into the Ponies," is radiant beyond the most Onr Treasurer reports that we have forgetfulness." A contemporary gives sanguine expectations. The same cast received $244.44, and have expended the palm to Yorke and Adams and their that presented this comedy during its $195.40, with a balance in the treasury roistering host of players who will be Circle Theatre. New York, engagement, seen at the Lyric, on Monday, January will be seen here, including the famous Jan. 11th, in "Playing the Ponies." withstand this funny frolic and its ever written by Morse and Madden, who Encouraged by the interest aroused changing situation, which barely allows wrote "The Rogers Brothers in Panama," standing. Replete with catchy music, dazzling with its handsome choras of pretty girls, the whole embellished with Some one said "Blessed be he who an extravagant scenic investure "Playing pony ballet and the singing and dancing

Menner & Co.

Wish their patrons a HAP-PY NEW YEAR.

OF LADIES' AND MISSES'

SUITS

Ladies' Misses' Children's Winter Coats CAN O Separate SKIRTS

and WAISTS CAN O BEAUTIFUL

FURS S KIMONAS and HOUSE GOWNS

രം Our Entire Stock of Ready-made Garment low regular prices.