LOCAL MENTION.

—Letters uncalled for at the Honesdale post office:

Jacob Bassin, Philip Caffrey, Miss Lulu C. Peters, Mrs. Hiram Shane, Miss Blanche C. Williams.

—A four-year-old child of Edward Dennis fell down the cellar stairway at the home in Carley Brook, on Thursday last, and sustained fractures of both bones of the right arm near the wrist. Dr. H. B. Ely was called.

—Through an inadvertence we made it appear that the beautiful lines following the obituary notice of the late Christopher Hiller, which appeared last week in THE CITIZEN, were written by Mrs. W. J. B., and she writes us to disclaim their authorship. We regret our inability to give the proper credit for the poem.

—The board of directors of the Honesdale and Texas almshouse met on Friday last and organized as follows for the ensuing year: John L. Burcher, President; Thomas Gill, Secretary; O. L. Rowland, Treasurer; Dr. H. B. Ely, Physician; Charles A. McCarty, Attorney; Harry Bunnell, Steward.

—The record of the Archbald base ball club for the season of 1908 was a very creditable one, and well sustains the claim of that club as Amateur Champions. Out of 41 games played, all of them with strong teams, Archbald won 30 and lost 11, giving them a winning percentage of 732. Honesdale and the Catsaquaga semi-professionals, about half of whose members were Wayne county boys, were the only clubs to take a series from them during the season. Out of the 22 games pitched by "Willie" Dougher, he lost only 5.

—There will be a public meeting at the court house in Honesdale on the evening of February 12th next, to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln. A distinguished speaker is expected from out of town. There will be vocal and instrumental music by choir and orchestra. Other features will make an interesting programme. The affair is in the hands of a committee of the ladies of Capt. James Ham Post, assisted by a committee of leading citizens. Admission will be free.

—N. R. Buller, of the Mount Pleasant fish hatchery will meet with the other hatchery superintendents of the State at Harrisburg on Thursday of next week, Jan. 28th. In the evening a banquet will be served at Hotel Ross. The next day in the company of commissioner Meehan, they will pay a visit of inspection of the Spruce Creek Hatchery, in Huntingdon county and the Bellefonte Hatchery, in Centre county. The object of these meetings is to make a division of the output of fish propagated in the various hatcheries.

—Jerome Cuperman, a Hebrew peddler residing in Port Jervis, with his wife and four children, was foully murdered on Friday night, Jan. 8th, about a quarter of a mile below that city. The mutilated body was discovered at eight o'clock Saturday morning where it had been thrown over a fence at the roadside. The peddler had been absent from home for two weeks selling his wares in New Jersey, and when attacked was returning to his home on foot with a pack on his back. It is evident that a fierce struggle occurred between the peddler and his assailant or assailants, but he was finally overpowered and after a number of stab wounds had been inflicted in various parts of his body, and his head had been nearly crushed by some instrument the body was hurled over the fence. The sheriff at once set about finding the murderer, and there is little room for doubt that he has succeeded in his quest. Henry Brink, of Montague, N. J., is being detained in Goshen jail, nominally as a witness, but actually as the assassin, and such a web of circumstantial evidence is being woven about him as seems to render his conviction certain when he is put upon his trial.

Dr. Joseph H. Odell officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis will reside in Dayton, Ohio, where Mr. Curtis is manager of a car manufacturing plant. The bride is a sister of Mrs. N. B. Spencer of this place, and she was one of the guests at the wedding.

—Hon. Perry A. Clark leaves Honesdale on this afternoon's Erie train for New York city, with the present purpose of visiting Mexico in company with F. E. Erhardt, the well-known financial agent for the sale of the securities of the Mexican and American Lumber Co. For many years Judge Clark has devoted himself to the business of the Wayne Co. Farmers' Mutual Insurance Co., practically without a day's vacation, and it is in compliance with the advice of his physician that he has been led to consider the advisability of the present trip, for the benefit of the rest which it would afford. The itinerary will include the ocean trip from New York to Havana, Cuba, where two days will be spent, then another sea voyage of 850 miles from Havana to Vera Cruz, Mexico, through the southern part of the Gulf of Mexico, and then a railroad trip of 300 miles to the City of Mexico. Plans were not fully determined upon for the return, but the trip will probably take the travelers on another Gulf voyage from Vera Cruz or Tampico to New Orleans, and thence home by the seaboard railways. If he makes the journey Mr. Clark expects to be absent about three weeks, during which his daughters, assisted by Attorney O. L. Rowland, will attend to his office business connected with the insurance company.

HYMENEAL.

A nuptial event which created a very pleasant flutter in social circles in Carbondale, and interested many acquaintances of the contracting parties in Honesdale, was solemnized on Thursday evening, Jan. 14, 1909, when Miss Janet Bryden, a former school teacher, and Thomas R. Durfee were married at the home of the bride's parents on South Washington street. Rev. Charles Lee, of the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony. The couple were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Durfee will at once go to housekeeping in an elegantly furnished home at No. 60 Lincoln avenue. "The principals of this felicitous event are popular and esteemed," says the Leader. "The bride, until recently, was a member of the high school faculty and is a young lady who is held in the highest regard by all with whom she is acquainted. She is an active worker in the circles of the Presbyterian church, and is also active in local social circles."
