LOCAL MENTION.

—Letters uncalled for at the Honesdale post office:
Miss Dally Elliott, Fred. Fuller, Wm. Haggerty, Joseph Mack, Siek Co.

—The White Mills Basket Ball team will play the Hawley Basket Ball team at the Florence Theatre, White Mills, on Saturday next.

—The Honesdale crew of the Delaware & Hudson passenger train are enjoying a few days' vacation. The crew is relieved three days each month by a Carbondale crew.

—At the matinee at the Lyric this Friday afternoon, the performance commences at 3 o'clock, instead of 3:30, as erroneously printed in the advertisement in Wednesday's paper.

—John Theobald, who is obliged to vacate the restaurant building which he has been occupying on 7th st., the first of April, when the new owner, Fred. Gelbert, will take possession, has bought out the saloon and billiard rooms of Joseph Schiesler immediately adjoining.

—John Williams was arrested by N. B. Spencer, on Monday evening, on a charge of vagrancy. Williams claims New York city as his home. For several days he has been wandering about the streets of the town and the officers took him in charge. He was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace Smith, who sent him to jail for sixty days.

—A quick and ungovernable temper is responsible for years of unhappiness to those directly concerned in "Tempest and Sunshine," a dramatization of Mrs. Mary J. Holmes's popular novel, to be seen at the Lyric, on Friday evening, Feb. 12th. Matinee at 3 P. M. The play deals principally with two beautiful Southern girls, who are sisters, and their sweethearts, who mix things up generally in their wild endeavors not to encroach on the other's choice. Laughable and serious situations are thereby presented to the confusion of all.

—A special order was issued from the Adjutant General's office, Harrisburg, on Tuesday, designating the organizations of the National Guards which are to compose the provisional brigade to attend the inauguration at Washington on March 4th. Among those selected from the third brigade are the following:

Third Battalion—Major William A. Raub, Thirteenth Regiment, commanding; Lieutenant Wilson Bailey, Thirteenth Regiment, adjutant; Company E, Thirteenth Regiment, Honesdale; Company I, Thirteenth Regiment, Easton; Company E, Twelfth Regiment, Sunbury; and Company I, Twelfth Regiment, Williamsport.

They will probably leave on the night of March 3d.

—Sunday next—February 14th, is St. Valentine's Day and the store windows bear full evidence of that fact. The custom of sending remembrances has increased remarkably with the development of the post card craze and the treasury of the postal department is greatly benefited, with a corresponding depletion of the physical endurance and good temper of the army of postal employees. While most of the cards are in the shape of cordial greetings we still find the old comic ones on the market. It would be highly desirable if it were possible to eliminate the funny ones, for they frequently cause great mental distress and worry where only fun and good humor is intended, but at the same time they also serve the purpose of permitting one to see himself as others see him. As Valentine day falls on Sunday this year it is probable that Saturday and Monday will be the busy days in the postoffices.

—The Lincoln Memorial services will be held at the Baptist church next Sunday evening, under the auspices of the Sunday school. An appropriate and varied program has been arranged. Mrs. Archer will sing.

—The State Highway Department will not ask for any bids for construction of State roads for a time. The appropriations for most of the roads have been pretty well used up and the districts will have to wait until more money becomes available.

—In a former issue we inadvertently gave the signature to a contributed article on "Wool vs. Cotton," as "Nonogenerian M. D." We should have printed it "Octogenarian," as, though the writer owns to a ripe age, he has several milestones to pass yet before he reaches his ninetieth.

—Charles McDonald was the lucky holder of the ticket which won the noted white bull dog Belle, owned by F. G. Reynolds, manager of the Family Theatre. "Belle" is the winner of several blue ribbons in Madison Square Garden, New York, Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, and other bench shows. She is said to be valued at $150.

—Superintendent N. R. Butler, of Pleasant Mount, returned on Saturday last from a business trip to Erie and Union City taken in the interest of the fish hatchery. He brought with him 100,000 lake trout eggs to be hatched in this county, and claims that species of fish will, in the near future, be the leading lake fish in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

—Homer Davenport, who entertained a Lyric audience on Friday evening last, was paid $13,000 a year salary by W. R. Hearst for his caricature work on the New York Journal and has accumulated a fortune of $300,000. Readers of "Human Life," sent without cost to cash in advance subscribers for THE CITIZEN, will find a serial biographical story of Mr. Davenport's life running through its issues for the current year.

—The Presbyterian Church Society held their annual meeting on Wednesday evening, Feb. 10th—A. P. Thompson, Chairman, Wm. H. Lee, Secretary, Treasurer H. S. Salmon made his report of the financial condition of the church, which was accepted and ordered placed on the minutes. An election of trustees followed, which resulted in the reelection of H. S. Salmon, W. T. Moore and John D. Weston.

—The Scranton Republican in yesterday's issue gives an account of a smallpox case, the victim being a young lady who had never been vaccinated, and hence has the disease in severe form, and locates the patient in Honesdale. We are glad to be able to say that the young lady in question is lying ill at Prompton, a village several miles from Honesdale, and that there is no case of smallpox either in this borough or its immediate vicinity.

—The Ministerial Association of the Honesdale District will hold its sessions in the M. E. church, Hawley, on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, Feb. 15th and 16th, opening at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. There will be five sessions, closing on Wednesday evening with an address by Rev. Homer C. Stuntz, D. D., First Assistant Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal church. Other addresses will be delivered, papers read and discussions held by several prominent clergymen of the district. The program bearing the imprint of the Hawley Times, is a very creditable piece of printing.

—The Uncle Tom's Cabin Co., which recently gave an entertainment at the Lyric has been having all sorts of trouble since it left Honesdale. In West Pittston after the show, B. S. Boyer, a member of the band, demanded of the manager, Grant Luce, payment of arrears of salary amounting to $65. The money not being forthcoming, an altercation ensued in which it was alleged that the manager struck the musician. A midnight arrest followed with a hearing before Squire Gillespie, at which the entire troupe appeared. Marks, the lawyer defended Mr. Luce, who was finally put under $500 bonds to keep the peace, the money trouble being arranged by a promise to Boyer to pay over to him nightly ten per cent. of the receipts, until his claim is settled. At Freeland, there was another ruction. A. W. Vanda, another of the musicians attaching the box office receipts. He got his money.

—The club house at Blooming Grove, Pike county, together with its entire contents, was completely destroyed by fire on Wednesday night last. The blaze was distinctly seen from Honesdale. The fire started at 8:30 P. M., between the boiler room and first floor, under the pantry, which is situated at the back and center part of the building. The smoke was so thick that it was impossible to enter the building to save anything. The entire building was burned to the ground in three-quarters of an hour. The building contained beds and bedding, cooking utensils, dining and sitting room furniture, pool and billiard tables, a piano, a fine collection of stuffed wild animals and deer heads, also a fine specimen of lake and brook trout. Everything was lost except a few specimens of stuffed birds. The property was well insured, $7,000 of the risk being held by the agency of J. Ben. Robinson, of this place.

—The honors of the coming Honesdale High School commencement, Class of 1909, go to Coe Lemnitzer and William Freund, the first named being the Valedictorian and the latter the Salutatorian.

—On Wednesday last the deal for the Coyne House property between C. J. Weaver and the McGarry estate was closed, the representative of the estate receiving $13,500 and turning over the keys to the new owner. Mr. Weaver will open the hotel as a strictly up-to-date establishment, and it will be rechristened "The Commercial Hotel."

—A large and appreciative audience assembled at the Lyric on Friday evening last to listen to the noted caricaturist, Homer Davenport, lecture on "Arabia, its Horses, and the Habits and Customs of its Tribes." A. T. Searle, Esq., prefaced the lecture by giving a brief history of the building of the Lyric theatre, the reasons for building; and the cost of the structure, which he stated was $35,000, and announced that the proceeds of Mr. Davenport's lecture were to help reduce the indebtedness that now existed. After complimenting those who had been active and instrumental in giving Honesdale one of the finest opera houses in this section of Pennsylvania, Mr. Searle introduced the lecturer of the evening, Homer Davenport, who at once commanded the appreciative attention of the audience by his inimitable chalk caricatures of distinguished persons, and an entertaining recital of his experiences with people whom he made the subjects of his pencil. He plainly proved that while this method of journalism is not always relished by those who are portrayed, it is very effective and popular generally.

Mr. Davenport's talk on Arabia was of a very instructive and interesting character. His personal experiences were related in a manner that highly pleased his audience, and the horse-talk appealed very strongly to the many in the audience who are lovers of good horse flesh. His illustrations, given by the aid of a stereopticon were most excellent while his descriptive abilities were such that his subjects were given a reality that made the evening entertainment a most delightful one, and one long to be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to be present. Michael J. Hanlan closed the entertainment by an appropriate address on the benefits that accrue from a well managed opera house, and called attention to the fact that Mr. Searle, who made the opening address, though his innate modesty had omitted to mention it, was entitled to a large share of credit for the successful completion of the Lyric, his efforts as one of the committee having the matter in charge having been indefatigable. The entertainment was a financial success, netting the Realty Co. about $250.

PERSONAL.

—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Welch, of Grove street, a son.

—Elmer Hambley of West Park street, spent Sunday in Carbondale.

—Miss Florence Moon, of Carbondale, is the guest of Honesdale relatives.

—William Turner died at Shieldboro, of typhoid fever on Wednesday last.

—Perry LaBarr, of Elmira, was a business caller in town on Wednesday.

—George Deitzer and Floyd Bidwell spent several days this week in Scranton.

—Joseph Spellman attended the funeral of the late E. H. Burke, in Carbondale, on Monday last.

—Mrs. Wm. H. Ham and granddaughter, Bessie Linton, are spending the week end in Scranton.

—A marriage license has been granted to George L. Klenck and Jennie Baringer, both of Long Ridge.

—Mrs. E. E. Williams, of Honesdale, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. S. Anderson, in Narrowsburg, N. Y.

—Miss Millicent Brown, of East Honesdale, returned Tuesday from a four months' sojourn in New York City.

—Miss Sadie Lane, of Lookout, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lane, of South Main street.

—Francis Murtha is assisting at the Wells-Fargo Express office, during the absence of Benj. Bayly, who is confined to his home with scarlet fever.

—The following from this place attended the meeting of the Pennsylvania Bankers' Association, held in Scranton, on Thursday: F. S. Steinman and Joseph Fish, of the Dime Bank; H. S. Salmon, of the Wayne County Savings Bank; H. Z. Russell, of the National Bank, and Charles Emery, of the Farmers' & Mechanics' Bank.

—There has been no apparent change in the condition of ex-Sheriff Thomas Medland, within a few days past. He is a very sick man, but it is thought possible that he may recover from this attack. His son, T. L. Medland, of Carbondale, was summoned to his bedside last week, when his condition was regarded as very critical.

—Homer Greene attended the twelfth annual dinner of the Scranton Engineers' Club, held at Hotel Jermyn in that city on Thursday evening last. James G. Shepherd presided, and filled the position of toastmaster with rare ability. One hundred and fifty members were present, and had the pleasure of hearing fine speeches from President Sparks of State College, and other distinguished and eloquent guests.

—O. M. Spettigue and Joseph Welch are attending a hardware convention in New York city. From there they will go to Philadelphia for a short visit.

"The Volunteer Organist."

Much interest is attached to the forthcoming production of "The Volunteer Organist," which will hold the boards at the Lyric Thursday, Feb. 18th.

The play is of the pastoral order, and is an idyll in its way. The story of the drama is simple, and is blended with genuine comedy and exceptional pathos. Advance criticisms of the show speak in glowing terms of the cast and scenic effects. There is not a dull moment throughout the play, and the plot is never permitted to drag. The story it tells is of every day people in a New England hill town, with the common touches of sentiment and humor, and the sermon it preaches is the good old sermon on temperance in physical indulgence and liberality in religion.

One of the special features is the rendering of those beautiful solos "The Holy City" and "The Palms," and Trinity Church Choir boys, with special scenic effects, by Master William Nelson, a boy soprano and boy choir from Trinity church, New York.

Four distinct, massive sets of scenery are carried by the company, together with every electrical device known that could possibly enhance the beauty of the piece. Besides a force of stage carpenters and electricians with the company, it is always necessary to greatly augment the working force at the theatres where "The Volunteer Organist" plays, to facilitate the handling of the scenery and properties the drama calls for.

HYMENEAL.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Korb, on Wednesday, Feb. 10th, when their daughter, Miss Mary M. Korb, was united in marriage to Nicholas Matthei, of Brooklyn. The ceremony was performed at high noon, by Rev. Wm. F. Hopp, of the German Lutheran church. The bride was attired in a blue suit, with hat to match. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to a few relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Matthei left on the afternoon Erie train for New York city. They will make their future home in Brooklyn.

Joseph Herzog and Miss Rose Rickert were married at St. Mary Magdalene's Catholic church, at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 10th, the ceremony being performed by Rev. William Dassel. The bride was attended by Miss Hortense McKanna, and Frank Herzog, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The bride was attired in a blue silk dress, and wore a hat of the same color. Her maid wore a champagne colored gown and white hat. After the ceremony a wedding repast was served at the home of the bride's parents, at Indian Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. Herzog are both well known young people of this place, and received a number of beautiful presents from their large circle of friends. They will reside at East Honesdale.

At the Lyric Theatre on Tuesday afternoon and evening, Feb. 16th, the Wells Animated Picture Company will present the only authentic Messina Earthquake pictures, which are the first genuine films to be shown in this country. Also the sunken steamship Republic and the famous Marconi operator Jack Binns will be shown. This is an added feature and will be used here for the third time in any theatre. In connection with these pictures of so much importance will be many others of the newest subjects, including a series of the side-splitting kind. The Earthquake Pictures will be lectured on and fully explained by a capable lecturer who travels from city to city with the Wells Company.

Parents should send their children to see these instructive pictures, as the subjects referred to are of very recent occurrence and will go down in the great world's history.

In order to give the school children an opportunity to witness the matinee performance, the management of the Lyric will not start the first picture until 3:15, and he is pleased to announce the remarkably low prices of 10 cents for children and 20 cents for adults. These prices apply to the matinee only.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Joseph W. Losey, relict of the late Joseph W. Losey, a son of Dr. E. T. Losey, for many years one of Honesdale's most prominent physicians, died at LaCrosse, Wisconsin, on Sunday last, February 7th, 1909, aged 75 years. Mr. Losey left Honesdale for the west about fifty years ago, and became a leading and wealthy citizen of LaCrosse, in which city he died many years ago.

Mrs. Estelle B. Strong died suddenly at her home in Starucca, on Tuesday morning. The funeral will take place Saturday, Feb. 13, at 11 A. M.

Girdland.

FEB. 12.—Miss Florence L. Goodnough, of Girdland, who has been teaching sixth grade in Ocean Grove, N. J., has resigned her position at that place. Miss Goodnough is to return to Pennsylvania. She having been elected Vice principal of the borough high school at Belwood, Blair county, Pa.

In her new position Miss Goodnough is to have charge of the departments of Science and Mathematics.

Spanish Marriages.

In the announcement of marriages in Spain the ages of the contracting parties are always given.

Horseback Riding.

Horseback exercise possesses, according to some physicians, the faculty of both increasing and reducing weight. If meals are taken immediately after riding additional flesh is gained; otherwise a decrease of flesh results.
