LOCAL MENTION.

—The following is the list of unclaimed letters at the Honesdale post office for the week ending April 5th: Bankers' Protective Society and W. C. Crusier.

—The Katz Underwear Company are making arrangements for the erection of an addition to their factory on Sixth street. Owing to the increase in their business, the firm have been compelled to enlarge their quarters. The new structure will be 50 by 100 feet, and two stories high. The contract has been let to Kreitner Brothers, and the new building will be ready for occupancy about August 1st. This concern commenced the manufacture of underwear in the Dodge building on Main street, but the large demand for their product compelled them to erect a factory. At the present time 175 people are employed, but the force will be doubled when the new factory is completed. The payroll of the concern is now the second largest of all of Honesdale's manufacturing industries.

—George Nicholson, of Fifteenth street, while taking camera pictures in the woods last Sunday, made a mis-step and sprained his ankle.

—Holy Thursday was observed at St. Mary Magdalen's and St. John's Catholic churches yesterday. Masses were celebrated at 9 A. M. The service in St. John's church was followed by a procession of the boys and girls of the congregation, the latter dressed wholly in white.

—Dr. C. W. Trevorton, of Green Ridge, formerly of Beach Lake, this county, who was tried in Scranton last week on a charge of malpractice, to which the death of Miss Helen Broek, was alleged to be due, was acquitted. It is understood that the girl's confessed betrayer, her cousin, W. F. Brown, who was for some time a resident of Honesdale, has been forgiven by her parents, and will probably make his home with them at Cowanogue, Tioga county, where they reside.

—The Monticello basket ball team defeated "The Boston Girls," at their match in that village on Wednesday of last week, the score standing 46 to 43 against the pretty maidens from "The Hub." It is said that in the first half the Monticello boys were handicapped by their embarrassment when one or more of the Bostonians locked them in fond embrace, but in the last half the referee was kept busy calling fouls on the local lads for holding.

—A bill introduced by Representative Fuerth, to increase the pay of constables while in attendance at court from $2 to $2.50 a day, passed the House Tuesday.

—Rev. J. B. Cody, of Bethany, writes us that the most important poultry meeting ever held in Wayne county, will take place on Wednesday, April 14th, in the Court House. J. H. Wolsifer, one of the most expert poultrymen of New Jersey will be present. In the afternoon he will give an address on "Incubation and Brooding." In the evening he will speak on "Winter Eggs and How to Get Them." No person interested in the raising of poultry that can possibly be present, should miss being there. Mr. Wolsifer is a breeder of high class poultry, and does not crowing, but sticks to his text, and proves that "Biddy is one of the most important business propositions in the United States. The poultry women of the county are especially urged to be present. Do not forget the date, April 14th; first address at 2:30 P. M., second at 8 P. M.

—Deputy Sheriff N. B. Spencer, assisted by Constable Denk, of Waymart, took Herbert Vail, of Farview, in custody on Wednesday, charged with the robbery of the Varcoe store at Waymart, on Sunday night last. Vail made a confession of his own guilt and implicated others, who were soon afterward arrested by Mr. Spencer, and brought to Honesdale on the four o'clock train. Further particulars will be given in next Wednesday's issue of THE CITIZEN.

—We call your attention to the ad. of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. in this issue of THE CITIZEN. It shows very clearly that this old reliable company is making great headway in the insurance world and that it will pay all intending insurers to investigate the merits of this large company before placing their insurance. W. C. Knapp, of Hawley, Pa., will be glad to call on you and explain the merits of the new policy the company is now selling.

—On Wednesday evening last, S. P. Quicks' sawmills, in Mt. Pleasant township, one mile east of Pleasant Mt. village were destroyed by fire. Nothing could be done to check the flames and the entire plant was consumed, involving a loss of $5,000 with no insurance. Owing to the high wind which prevailed at the time of the fire other property in the vicinity was endangered, but fortunately the loss was confined to the mills.

—The Easter displays in our shop windows are unusually attractive this season. The large establishments like Menner & Co.'s and Katz Brothers, are making most artistic and tempting displays, while the millinery stores have a genuine Parisian appearance. A fine show of blooming potted plants and flowers is made at Helferich's, and Miss Carrie Smith's daintily decorated store windows opposite the Lyric are attracting much attention. The confectionery and other stores dealing in Easter toys, candies and cards are exhibiting a bewildering variety of goods in that line.

—The very high winds that prevailed throughout the country on Wednesday afternoon and night, causing many deaths and wide destruction of property, did considerable damage in this county, the details of which have not reached us up to the hour of going to press. Among other losses we hear of the blowing down of a Megivern barn at White's Valley, and the twisting out of shape of a windmill on the store building of Judson Faatz in Bethany.

Y., a fireman on the Ontario and Western railroad, died at the Carbondale Emergency hospital last Friday night, as a result of injuries received in a wreck near the Jermyn passenger station. Knapp was fireman on a north bound coal train which crashed into the side of a south bound train north of the Jermyn station. Mr. Knapp was caught between the tender and locomotive proper. His left arm and leg were badly crushed and he was torn about the head. Internal injuries were sustained.

Peter Bried died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bried, of Terrace street, about 2:30 A. M., Wednesday. Deceased was twenty years of age. He was born in Honesdale, and was employed in the Blakney paper box factory at this place. For the past year he had suffered from lung trouble, and his condition became serious the past two weeks. McKAY & CO.

Has "Uncle Sam" Made a Mistake?

A SCHENECTADY PAPER'S VIEW

Deposits of Coal at Coaldale Exactly as Represented—The Equity Company a Lineal Descendant of the Bullfrog Mining Co.

[From the Schenectady Gazette.]

The arrest of George L. McKay and Charles R. Colby, who form the firm of George L. McKay & Co. stock brokers, at 20 Broad Street, New York, has a Schenectady significance owing to the fact that the firm was the fiscal agents for the Equity Mining Syndicate of which P. W. Dalton of Hardin's Crossing, is the president. The New York company has for some time been under the surveillance of the postal authorities owing to its use of the mails in advertising and selling alleged worthless stocks and last Friday the two men composing it were arrested by a postoffice inspector and a detective from the New York police department. The men were arraigned Saturday before United States Commissioner Shields, bail fixed and the hearing set down for this week.

The Equity Mining Syndicate is the lineal descendant of the Electric Bullfrog Company. The stockholders, in the latter were paid off with stock in the new syndicate. It was said last night by a stockholder in the Bullfrog Company that when the bottom dropped out of that enterprise, the firm of McKay & Company was instructed to find another property. This was done and some 600 acres of land, said to be rich in coal deposits and located at Coaldale, Nev., was purchased.

The Equity Mining Syndicate, capitalized at $1,500,000, was formed and Mr. Dalton, who is connected with the General Electric Company, was elected president. Theholders of Bullfrog Company script traded it for stock in the new concern, even up. In this way between $2,000 and $3,000 worth of Bullfrog stock held by Schenectady people were exchanged for a like investment in the Equity Mining Syndicate. The firm of McKay & Company was appointed fiscal agents and began pushing the sale of stock. Mr. Dalton yesterday in speaking of the arrest of McKay and his partner, said that about six months ago the officers of the Equity Mining Syndicate held a meeting in the office of McKay & Company and it was decided to take the stock of the syndicate off the market. This was done and since that date none of the stock has been offered for sale. Referring to the assertion of prospective purchasers that the syndicate's property at Coaldale did not measure up to the advertisements of its value, Mr. Dalton said that the coal deposits were exactly as represented.

Up-to-date Auto Garage.

Under the management of Chas. W. McMullen the Maple City garage, located on High street, near Main, is making rapid strides as an up-to-date establishment. The garage, which is partitioned off from the machine shop, is 35x25, having a fine cement floor, and is large enough to accommodate six machines. Mr. McMullen has secured contracts for taking care of automobiles. The gasoline and oils are stored in a separate building. Besides looking after repairs on automobiles and bicycles, Mr. McMullen does a large repair business in the machinery line.

If a man is not the better for his religion, it does not amount to much and neighbors will soon discover the fact.
