LOCAL NEWS.

—William and Elizabeth Hertel, of White Mills, have sold to Henry Wietl, 63 acres and 152 perches of land, in Lackawaxen township, for a consideration of $800, and all the timber 5 inches and upward at the stump, to Charles Spruks, of Scranton, for $800, with three years to cut it.

—On Wednesday evening last a china shower was given Miss Maud Murray, by the Misses Demer, at their home on River street. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

—S. P. Quick, whose saw mill near Pleasant Mount was destroyed by fire some weeks ago, has bought the J. M. Spencer mill at Preston, and is moving it to his lumber tract.

—Guillot Brothers, of Bushkill, Pike county, from late in the fall, when their pullets began to lay, until March 31, shipped 2,130 dozen eggs to Orange, N. J., for which they received an average of 41 cents per dozen. During the month of March they gathered 10,464 eggs. They now have 1,140 chicks out, 600 of which are feathered, and 2,180 eggs in the incubators hatching. The Guillots are engaged in building 600 feet of new henneries. This will increase their capacity to 2,700 hens. Their stock is all of the White Leghorn variety.

—There are many people living to-day who remember, during a period of hard times, when chickory and acorns were browned and used for coffee, and the leaves of a kind of woodbine, almost exactly like the tea plant, were gathered and steeped as a substitute for tea. In many households a saucer of grease, with a bit of a rag for a wick did duty for candles. Lard was used for butter, and corn bread and sorghum constituted the principal daily food in many families. Bread and butter was a luxury, and was eaten with the butter side next the tongue. Brides were married in the best clothes they had on hand and the sweet school girls and their mothers appeared at church in calico dresses. These facts reveal what can be done under circumstances of enforced economy.

—Look out for the shoe blacking swindler. He recently put in an appearance in Pleasant Mount, and sold two gross of the polish to a merchant taking a check in payment which he had cashed in Herrick Center. It was part of the agreement that he should furnish wrapping paper with advertising matter to help the sale of the goods, and his failure to do so aroused suspicion as to the quality of his product. An analysis showed the blacking to be made of mutton tallow, scented with wintergreen.

—Misses Marietta and Lucy Russell will give a dance in Lyric Hall, this evening, in honor of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Z. H. Russell, and as a farewell to their sister, Miss Sophie Russell, whose marriage occurs Thursday evening.

—Bregstein Brothers have opened a store in Narrowsburg. Ernest Hartman, of this place, is clerk in the new establishment.

—The only railroad mentioned in the Bible is the Erie: "The Lord created all crawling and creeping things."

—Following are the recently installed officers of Samuel Meredith entrapment No. 175, I. O. of O. F., of Pleasant Mt.: Earl H. Spencer, chief patriarch; E. T. Tiffany, high priest; Cecil Glandin, senior warden; Charles J. Jay, junior warden; James Pope, scribe; Judson E. Tiffany, treasurer.

—On Wednesday of last week, Lackawanna Railroad stock reached its high water mark. Sales at 600 were recorded. Lackawanna is a magnificent property with an earning capacity of 50 per cent. on its little issue of $28,000,000 stock. The charter is one of the most valuable of all the anthracite charters; under it the company can mine, transport, and sell coal, and it has done all these things for generations, even selling coal at auction weekly in New York city. There is little doubt that the shares are selling for less than they are worth, though the market price is six times the par value.

—"Poly of the Circus," a very beautiful and realistic four act drama will be an attraction at the Lyric Theatre sometime during the month of May. This production comes here under the auspices of the Honesdale Realty Company, who, in order to secure it, are under a large guarantee. "Poly of the Circus" played a return engagement at the Lyceum, Scranton, on Saturday last, and will return to Scranton again about the same time that it comes to Honesdale.

—The committee in charge of arrangements for the annual banquet of the Honesdale Business Men's Association, met on Friday, and decided to hold the entertainment at Hotel Heumann on Tuesday evening, May 11th. The following speakers will be heard during the evening: State organizer, J. W. Rittenhouse, of Scranton; Burgess John Kubbach; Ex-Burgess T. J. Ham, and W. W. Wood. N. B. Spencer will act as toastmaster.

—The Carbondale Leader notes the fact that William M. Kenworthy, of Honesdale, is the only surviving driver of the Honesdale and Carbondale stage, which traveled over the Moosic forty years ago. Mr. Kenworthy, who lived here for many years, succeeded Jerome Townsend and drove three years, or until thirty-eight years ago, when Briggs Brothers sold the route to M. B. Allen. Mr. Kenworthy made one trip a day, leaving Honesdale early in the morning and arriving home at night. In the writer's school days, we used to go by stage all the way from this place to Wilkes-Barre, leaving here in the morning and reaching Wyoming Seminary the same evening, a distance of fifty miles. Horses were changed at Carbondale and Hyde Park.

—George Bartron, a resident of Fortenia, took a dose of carbolic acid on Sunday morning, and died about seven o'clock on Monday evening, from the effects of the poison. Bartron lived with his daughter, Mrs. Loseg. He owned a farm adjoining her place, but for some time had made his home with her. Sunday morning he arose at the usual hour, and appeared to be in a happy frame of mind. He left the house to perform his duties about the place, and was gone almost an hour, when he returned to the house and, upon entering, fell to the floor in a semi-conscious condition. Dr. Peterson, of Honesdale, who was quickly summoned, found, on investigation, that the man had swallowed the contents of a bottle of carbolic acid. Bartron's wife died about a year ago, and as he has mourned his loss continually, it is thought that his rash act was the result of a disordered mind.

—The Grain Market.

From A. J. Coleman and Company we have grain market quotations up to half-past ten, an hour before putting The Citizen to press. The main feature is the decline in wheat.

July wheat sold from 115 3/4 to 115 1/2 on the opening and at 11:30 a. m. sold low at 114 1/2. This is a decline of one and three eighths points from the low price of yesterday.

May wheat sold from 126 1/2 to 126 on the opening, and sold low at 11:30 a. m. at 125 1/2. This is one and one quarter points below the low price of May wheat for yesterday.

July corn sold from 68 1/2 to 69 on the opening and low at 68 1/2 at 11:30. May corn from 70 1/2 to 70 on the opening, high at 71, and low at 70 1/2.

July oats opened from 49 1/2 to 49 1/4, high at 40 1/2, and low at 48 1/2. May oats opened from 55 1/2 to 55 1/4, high at 56 1/2, and low at 11:30 a. m. at 55 1/4.

This represents a net decline in prices of July and May wheat, from the high figures of last week, of approximately 4 cents per bushel on both options.
