On Sunday evening the members of the lodge attended services at Grace church, where Rev. A. L. Whittaker, the rector, gave a sermon on the appropriate subject "Friendship," for their especial benefit and edification. On the anniversary evening a fine repast was served, which was followed by speaking, interspersed with music. Mrs. C. M. Betz had charge of the refreshment feature, assisted by a competent corps of helpers, and Geo. P. Ross was master of ceremonies. Addresses were given by M. E. Simons, district attorney; Rev. W. H. Hiller, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church; Rev. W. H. Swift, pastor of the Presbyterian church and Dr. A. J. Simons, of Newfoundland. Jones, J. A. Bodie, Jr., and F. A. Jenkins. A. L. Baird, W. H. Varcoe and Alfred Wilmarth were presented with veteran jewels for twenty-five years of faithful service in the order. The Easter number of St. Mark's Dial, a parish paper devoted to the interests of St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal church, of Danville, Ill., of which Rev. Talarferro F. Caskey, D. D., for some years rector of Grace Episcopal church of this borough was the editor, announces the probable discontinuance of the publication. Dr. Caskey says in his valedictory: "The editor does not feel that he has struck the ideal outlined in the salutatory, but he has ever had that ideal in view. The Parish history has been printed from month to month, and every article has been written with a view to the deepening of personal religious life, and has been sent out with the earnest prayer that it might accomplish that whereunto it was sent. The editor lays down his pen with regret that he has not done more, but with heart-deep gratitude for the kind words that have been said, and for the efficient work of the business manager without which the Dial could not have been printed. To these printed records we will often turn, realizing their value as they recede into the past. As the hand of time moves on and on, most things that we possess must weaken as they approach the ultimate end. But the friendship of a good, true comrade is a thing that never diminishes. As each year rolls by it gets stronger and stronger and we appreciate more and more its ever-increasing value to us." The editor would fain make these beautiful words his Easteride greeting to all his friends, not only in St. Mark's Parish, but in that wider circle into whose hands this good-bye number may fall.

Last Tuesday's Scranton papers contained elaborate accounts of social functions enjoyed by the friends of Miss Dorothy Warren, daughter of the eminent attorney, Major Everett Warren, at the homes of her girlhood intimates, in honor of her approaching marriage to Nathaniel P. Cowdey, of New York City, which has been publicly announced for noon yesterday, April 29th. On Wednesday morning, however, Major Warren having been ailing for a day or two, was subjected to a critical examination, and it was definitely decided by the physicians in attendance that he was suffering from acute appendicitis, and that an immediate operation was imperatively necessary. Consequently all arrangements for the announced marriage function were abandoned, and the simple ceremony took place at the Warren home, at noon on Wednesday. Rev. Rogers Israel, D. D., rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, officiating. Immediately after the ceremony Major Warren was removed to the State hospital where an operation was performed, which the local papers say was eminently successful. Mr. and Mrs. Cowdey are now at the Watkins Summer Home, at Glenburn, where they will remain pending developments in Major Warren's condition.

The serial story entitled "The Tangled Web," which we began publishing in our Wednesday's issue, will be continued in each Friday's issue until finished.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, her mother and a sister.

On Monday of this week a telegram was received at The Citizen office from Patchogue, Long Island, which read as follows: "A new (will be) subscriber to the Citizen reached here to-day; the name is Elizabeth Wood Potter. Mother and child doing well." This makes our manager, W. W. Wood, a great grandfather, as the new-comer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Potter, the mother being formerly Miss Mignon Wood, who was born in Honesdale and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Wood, formerly residents of this borough.

Miss Elizabeth Kelly, of Lake Ariel, is visiting friends in Matamoras, her former home.

The Gardner-Vincent Company.

Manager Dittich is to be congratulated upon being able to install "The Gardner-Vincent Stock Co. in Honesdale for the month of May. Their idea is to give two different plays each week, three nights for each play at popular prices and one matinee on Saturday.

It will be remembered this company played here last season and at once established itself as one of the best organizations on the road. Mr. Gardner and Miss Vincent have been starring this season in all the large cities and have scored heavily. Through a special effort on the part of our local manager this company comes back to Honesdale, with even a better company than they had here before. Only the latest New York successes will be presented.

"A Woman's Struggle," a comedy of manners, the opening play is a very strong one, dealing with up-to-date New York society, on the style of "Paid in Full" and "The Lion and the Mouse." Strong, stirring situations, great heart interest and a vein of clever satirical comedy throughout. It calls for beautiful settings, handsome gowns and without doubt will be the event of the dramatic season here. Every member of the company is called upon to test his or her ability to their utmost.

Mr. Gardner as Schuyler Ainslee, a young clubman, has a part which fits him like a glove. Miss Vincent as Margaret Irvington, will no doubt gain new laurels and will be called upon to display her emotional talent even to greater degree than she did as "Camille" (if it is possible). It is hoped that the people of Honesdale will appreciate Manager Dittich's effort to provide them with the best possible, and patronize the Lyric Theatre during the month of May.

SEIDLITZ POWDER CARTRIDGE.

A Man's Life Saved After Choking on Tough Beef.

How a man's life was saved by a common Seidlitz powder is described by a German physician, Dr. Franck, who was called to treat a man who had swallowed a large piece of tough meat, which stuck in his gullet. As it was impossible to dislodge the meat by natural means, and as the patient's condition was critical, the doctor tried the efficacy of the gas which is generated when the constituents of a Seidlitz powder are mixed. He directed the man to swallow the two halves of one of the powders separately, and the resulting pneumatic pressure, aided by the man, who shut his mouth and closed the nasal passages, was sufficient to drive the piece of meat out of the gullet into the stomach.

A Lazy Boy's Invention.

The long-handled shovel has made over three hundred thousand dollars for its inventor, and the inventor was a lazy, shiftless boy of seventeen, named Reuben Davis, whose father lived in Vermont at the time. He set Reuben to digging dirt and loading it on a wagon, and the short-handled shovel made the boy's back ache. One afternoon when his father was away, he took out the short handle and substituted a long one, and found the work much easier.

When Mr. Davis reached home Reuben got a whipping; but after the old gentleman had used the shovel himself, he saw that it was a good thing, and had it patented. They are now manufactured almost by the million.

The Gods of India.

India is a land of idols. It is estimated that there are three hundred and thirty-three million gods in Hindustan. The three great and specially venerated deities are Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva—the Hindu Trimurti or trinity. Brahma stands first, unapproachable. There are only three temples in all India erected in his honor; he is merely invoked as the chief of the Trimurti, but is not made the object of actual worship, as he is not supposed to take any interest in mundane affairs. He is the creator, the giver of all gifts and of all blessings and controls the destinies of men, yet at the same time is completely indifferent to them.

American Limburger.

It is now claimed that the United States makes just as good Limburger cheese as does the province in Belgium, where it originated. The American method is to take a piece of a calf's stomach and set it away in a warm place in a can of whole milk. In about forty minutes the curdling mass is pounded and then the whey pressed out. Afterward forms are filled and further drainage permitted. Salt is rubbed on the outside until it becomes slippery; then the cheese is set away in the cellar, where it is left to ripen for a month or two, and the germs do the rest.

Famous Woman Explorer.

Mrs. Marie Robinson Wright of Georgia is believed to hold the record for having accomplished more in the way of penetrating countries hitherto unknown than any other living woman, with the possible exception of Mrs. Fanny Bullock Workman. She is called by some "the Columbus of South America," from the fact that she, undaunted by hardships and perils in the countries she has visited, has opened to the pioneers of trade and commerce a new paradise that blooms south of the equator, where untold wealth awaits development at the hands of civilized man. She estimates that she has traveled 200,000 miles in pursuit of her work.

HYMENEAL.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. John's Lutheran church, on Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Minnie Wizzard was united in marriage to Howard C. Beck. The ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock by Rev. W. F. Hopp. The bride was attended by Miss Mellie Bea, of Hawley, a sister of the groom, and Andrew Wizzard, a brother of the bride, acted as best man. The bride's dress was of white albatross cloth, and her maid was attired in a gown of white mohair. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Bea, of Hawley. After a short trip to Scranton and other cities Mr. and Mrs. Bea will reside in Honesdale.

Miss Stella Mizler and John Mauer, both of White Mills, were united in marriage at St. Mary Magdalen's German Catholic church Wednesday afternoon, Rev. William Dassel performing the ceremony. The attendants were Miss Stella Getline and Charles Mizler. After the ceremony a luncheon was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wagner, of South Church street. Mr. and Mrs. Mauer will reside in White Mills, at which place the groom is employed at his trade as glassblower.

Leslie Brader and Kathryn Heinicke were married at St. Mary Magdalen's German Catholic parochial residence on Wednesday afternoon, April 28, 1909. The ceremony was performed at 5:30 o'clock by Rev. Wm. Dassel. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Sophia Heinicke, and David Reese, of Wilkes Barre, was best man. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to a number of relatives and friends at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Heinicke, of Tryon street. Mr. and Mrs. Brader are both well known young people of Honesdale and have a large circle of friends in this vicinity. The groom for several seasons was the popular third baseman on the local team. They were the recipients of a number of beautiful presents, consisting of linen, cut glass and silverware. Mr. and Mrs. Brader will reside at Dyberry Place.
