Lady-Do you drink beer? Wild William-Yes'm. How do you take it?

One Way of Looking at It. During the recent political campaign, the son of a certain United States Senator was running for office. Naturally he was not so well known as his father. Consequently his friends very often had to appeal to the popularity of the father. "I do not know the candidate." said an old farmer, who was appealed to for his vote.

"But you know the father?" "Yep; I know him, and he's a grand man. "Then you will surely vote for his son, won't you?" But the Scotch farmer was still doubtful. "I'm no' so sure about that," he replied; "it's no' every coo that has a cauff like hersel'."
