LEDGEDALE.
May 21st.—Under the management of Fessenden & Son the creamery at this place has been in full operation since the 4th of May, about one ton of milk each day being used. About twice this amount will be used in the course of another month.
A good opportunity offers for some live up-to-date blacksmith to take charge of the blacksmith shop here, which has been closed for some time.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at Mrs. William Sturmer's on Thursday, and did considerable work for the benefit of Mrs. Christian Schrader, whose home was destroyed by fire some time ago.
The many friends of M. J. Madden, whose family was stricken with scarlet fever, will be pleased to hear they are out again.
Considerable plowing but very little planting.

INDIAN ORCHARD.
May 24th.—On account of the cold, wet weather of late, several have not finished sowing oats.
Mrs. Jos. Atkinson, of White Mills, spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. O. D. Henshaw, of this place.

Mr. Calvin, of Prompton, was a business caller at this place on Friday and Saturday last.
Mr. and Mrs. John Case were visitors at Narrowsburg on Sunday last.
G. W. Taylor, proprietor of one of the leading boarding houses at Beach Lake, was a visitor at the home of Richard Ham on Thursday last.
Warner Robins, of Chestnut Lake, was at this place drilling in oats for the farmers the past week.
Miss Irma Ham is spending the summer with her aunt, Mrs. G. W. Taylor, of Beach Lake.
The school directors and auditors will meet at Beach Lake on the first Monday in June.
Joseph G. Schmidt has sold the farmers in this vicinity several tons of phosphate and land plaster this spring.
The young people of this place held a dance in Grange hall on Friday evening last. All had a good time.

WILSONVILLE.
May 24th.—Byron Tuttle left on Tuesday for Ashley, Pa., where he has secured employment. Monday night his friends gave him a surprise and farewell party. The entertainment of the evening consisted of dancing and instrumental selections on accordion, violin and guitar. After a delicious lunch served at midnight, the company bade farewell to their host, and departed for their homes, having passed a very delightful time.
G. A. Kessler, of Atco, Pa., visited his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Pennell, on Wednesday and Thursday.

George Helchebeck and wife passed Sunday with relatives at Lakeville.
Frank Ben and sons launched their new motor boat on Thursday. This will be the finest craft on the river and will accommodate about twelve persons.
Mrs. Weeie entertained a visitor from Bone Ridge on Thursday.
Louis Shook and wife, of Hawley, visited relatives here yesterday.
William Maston is working on the stone crusher at Tafton.

There was a dance at Casper Unger's on Saturday night. Several from Hawley attended.
Several gardens at this place are yet too wet to be plowed.
Harrison Tyler, who works in the Stone silk mill, at Hawley, met with a painful accident by running the points of a pair of shears into his hand on Monday. He was able to work again the latter part of the week.
Mrs. Byron Tuttle sold her horse and wagon on Tuesday to Mr. Steinbauer, real estate agent, of Hawley.

HUB.
May 22.—Mrs. Alfred Locklin, of Lakeville, has returned to her home after spending a few days with her parents at this place.
Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Conklin made a business trip to Scranton on Thursday.
Mrs. Arthur Becker and Miss Mabel Walker attended the meeting of the Rebekah at Lakeville, on Wednesday evening.
Miss Clara Schaffer is attending school at Lake Ariel.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Clemo, of Carbondale, visited the latter's brother, Charles Gillett, on Sunday. Ella Gillett accompanied them on their return, and will spend a few days at their home.
Buell Mitchell, of Scranton, is spending his vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Walker.
The Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Lucien Brink on May 27th.

The members of the Epworth League will celebrate the twentieth anniversary to-morrow evening.

MAPLEWOOD.
May 24.—Friend Black is having his barn repainted.
Mrs. E. S. Noble, of Pittston, spent last week with relatives here.
Mrs. E. M. Keene was the guest of her son, E. L. Keene, of Dunmore, last week.
W. S. Gibbs is adding a porch to his home.

Mrs. Elmer Meyers, of Dunmore, spent Tuesday with Mrs. G. M. Black.
Lyle Keene was pleasantly surprised by his young friends Friday evening on his fifteenth birthday. The evening was pleasantly passed in the usual manner.
O. P. Sharpe is suffering from a fall, received while pushing a wheelbarrow up a plank into a wagon. He slipped and fell striking his ribs on the edge of the plank.
Planting is late owing to the wet weather. Many have their oats yet to sow.

W. W. Kizer, of Scranton, spent Saturday with his son, Leslie.
Sunday was observed as "Old Folks Day" at the Grace church, Rev. James Savitts, of Varden, preached from Exodus 33:14—"My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest." Rev. Savitts is 75 years old and has been on the superannuated list for some years. During the service Miss Frances Olmstead gave a recitation, and the Juror league rendered "The Lily of the Valley" and pinned bouquets on the old people.
There will be a union memorial meeting at the Methodist church on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
There will be a teachers' meeting and choir practice on Friday evening at the Grace church.
Next Sunday evening Rev. J. G. Rosensky will give a memorial sermon. There will be music appropriate to the occasion.
F. S. Keene is paying 15 cents per pound for live chickens.

SHERMAN.
May 24.—Charlie Harrison, who is attending school at Great Bend, is home on his vacation.
Oscar Curtis, who is on the road selling McCormick harvesting machines, is home over Sunday.
Ira Clearwater came home from the lake sick last Friday, but at this writing is a little better.
The Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith on Wednesday afternoon, May 26th.
The ladies' prayer meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Willis Early Friday afternoon at 2:30.

The many friends of Mrs. D. Lowe will be glad to hear that she is drawing a pension.
Several from this place attended the funeral of George Huyck, at Hale's Eddy, last Tuesday.
Walter Curtis is attending school in Deposit.
Installation of our pastor will take place in the church June 1st, at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially requested to be present.

HAMLINTON.
May 21.—C. L. Simons is making extensive repairs on the George Simons house. The rooms, when completed will be occupied by Max Simons and wife.
Miss Emma Lempke, of Hawley, visited Grace Farm on Saturday and Sunday.
Howell Bortree, of Ariel, was in town on Sunday.

Mrs. Alt and daughter, Cora, C. L. Simons and G. O. Gillett were Scranton visitors last week.
Mrs. Emily Simons has returned home after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Clark Abbey, of the East Side.
Mrs. G. O. Gillett returned Saturday from a week's visit in Wilkes-Barre.
Mrs. F. A. Abbey spent Friday and Saturday of last week in Scranton.

Mrs. C. A. Spangenberg visited relatives in Pink the latter part of the week.
On the evening of Sunday, May 30th, Miss Gertrude Crogan, of Hopewell, Bedford county, Pa., will deliver a lecture in the M. E. church at this place.
David Lee spent last week in Hawley as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Stevenson.
Mrs. James Hineine is somewhat indisposed at this writing.

Miss D. P. Hamlin, who has been spending the past few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. George Clearwater at Hackettstown, N. J., has returned to her home here.
Celia, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Stevens, died at the home of her parents here at four a. m. Monday, May 24th, of typhoid fever. She was seventeen years old, and is survived by her parents and two brothers, both younger than she. The funeral will be held from the M. E. church on Wednesday at 10:30 o'clock. Dr. Stevens is very well known throughout this and the surrounding neighborhood, and he and his bereaved family have the deep sympathy of a host of friends.

FALLSDALE.
May 24th.—The wet, cold weather of late has greatly retarded planting. Many gardens are not plowed.
David Orr has sweet corn two or three inches high in his garden. We will try to remember it and be on hand when it matures.
Wm. H. Crocker and son are plowing up the earth, or a goodly portion of it, for corn, with the intention of putting in a silo this summer.

George W. Sheard has laid the same plans.
S. D. Noble has the foundation laid for a new hen house.
Mrs. H. E. Decker is making preparations for painting her residence. W. D. Orr will do the work.
Last Sunday Mrs. C. R. Jackson was taken to Binghamton, N. Y., to a sanitarium where, on Tuesday, a double operation was performed of a serious nature. Reports each day have been that she is doing well and hopes are entertained that she will recover.
Orman Ralston has the measles, but is improving.

Miss Lilly Sheard is visiting friends in Freeport, N. Y., and at other points nearby.
Miss Leah Bates is spending a few weeks with her parents here.
C. D. Stoddard's family accompanied by his father, A. J. Stoddard, of Onsetta Center, arrived here last Monday. Mr. Stoddard returned later in the week. He says our crops and fruit trees are about two weeks in advance of those at his home in Chenango Co., N. Y.
C. D. Stoddard, supt., and butter maker for Fallsdale Creamery Co., had his butter tested at the State College, and received a score of 93 per cent, being third highest in the state contest for April.

EQUINUNK.
May 24.—Mrs. Holbert and daughters, Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. McKee, of Syracuse, remained several days with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Woodward, last week after the funeral of Mrs. Libbie Jaycox, who died in Syracuse at the home of Mrs. Phelps, and was buried here last Monday from the M. E. church.
Mrs. Gregory, of Walton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Knapp, of this place, is quite sick at the home of her parents.
Mr. Winnie, who is looking after the interests of Dr. Prickette, of Brooklyn, is doing quite a little work on the farm at Dillontown recently purchased by the doctor.
Mr. and Mrs. Delos Lester moved to Hancock recently. Thus Equinunk is being depopulated. With one acid factory burned and the other closed and the stone business a little indifferent hereabouts, and the tariff unsettled, the business outlook for this season is not very bright.
Next Sunday being Memorial Day all the old soldiers are cordially invited to be present at the memorial service to be held in the M. E. church. The graves of the departed will be decorated on Monday, the 31st, at 2 p. m. All interested in this matter are requested to meet at the church at 2 p. m., whence we shall proceed to the cemetery.

Mrs. Oakley Tyner was reported on the sick list last week.
