GIRL KILLED IN ELEVATOR.

Friend of Judge Alton B. Parker's Daughter Meets Tragic Fate.

New York, June 8.—On her first visit to New York and her first ride in an elevator Miss Lena Schoonmaker, nineteen years old, one of a party of sight-seers chaperoned by Mrs. Charles M. Hall, a daughter of Judge Alton B. Parker, was crushed to death when her head was caught between the floor of the elevator and the sixth floor of the Fatron building.

Mrs. Hall brought Miss Schoonmaker, with nine other girls, from Kingston to New York to see the city. Mr. Hall, who is rector of Holy Cross Episcopal church in Kingston, met them here.

When the girls started to descend in the elevator Lena gave a nervous little scream and fell forward in a faint, her head near the door of the car.

The operator threw over the controlling lever, and the car stopped with a savage bounce and started up again.

As it did so the head of the prostrate girl rolled over the edge of the car, and the protruding ledge of the sixth floor caught and crushed her skull, broke her neck and crushed in her chest. She died instantly.

OWNED RACER ON $900 A YEAR

Ex-Clerk of Baltimore's City Register's Office on Trial For Larceny.

Baltimore, June 8.—William F. Downs, ex-clerk in the city register's office, was placed on trial here charged with the larceny of $67,000 city moneys.

Downs, who is twenty-three years of age and married, was a $900 clerk in the register's office. He was known as a liberal spender and sporting character, the owner of a race horse and the financial backer of several pugilists.

One of his duties at the register's office was to deposit the city funds received there at various banks, and it is alleged that he violated his trust by abstracting money during a period of many months.
