ANNOUNCEMENTS.

"The Singing School" will be given at the Seelyville Chapel on Wednesday evening (to-night), proceeds for the benefit of the Seelyville Fire Department. The play is a caricature of the old-fashioned New England singing school and is most excellently staged.

For the rest of the summer the second service in the Presbyterian church will be from 5 to 6 in the afternoon. Ladies are invited to come without hats or gloves.

A short, bright, helpful service. The Lord's supper will be observed Sunday morning, July 4th. Preparatory service the Wednesday night before.

The Ladies' Aid of the Rileyville Presbyterian church are to hold an ice cream festival at the church and on the lawn, Thursday of this week, June 24th. Go and spend a pleasant evening.

There will be an ice-cream social at the Grange hall at Calkins, Pa., Friday evening, June 25th. Proceeds for the Union church.

FALSE ALARM.

About half past eleven on Saturday evening the fire department responded promptly and proceeded to the lower end of town, but finding that there was no fire that necessitated their help, they returned to their quarters. While promptness in sending in an alarm is commendable, it is a serious offence to send in an alarm for any other purpose than that for needed help in case of fire.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made at the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of Wayne county, on Thursday, the 24th day of June, 1909, at 10 o'clock, a. m., by the undersigned for a license to carry on the business of detective, with the principal office in the borough of Honesdale, Wayne county, Pennsylvania, for a period of three years, and that said application was filed with the clerk of said Court on the 14th day of June, 1909, under the provisions of the act of the General Assembly approved the 23d day of March, 1867, and the supplements thereto.
