WHITE MILLS.
 June 21.—There has been several arguments around the town about how long it takes to raise different kinds of vegetables. One man says that he can sow lettuce seed and in twenty-four hours after it is planted he will be eating the lettuce on the table. Maybe it is a mushroom or asparagus variety. I would like for this same fellow to tell me how long it takes a chicken to cut her teeth after she comes out of the shell.
 One of our White Mills boys asked this question: He said that he had a hen setting on eggs for four weeks and he said, "Do you think that she will bring them out if I leave her on the eggs a few days longer." One of the boys replied by saying: "Leave her on until she brings them out. That's the way I would do," and I guess she's setting yet.
 Here is the latest on raising chickens and ducks around Carley Brook. A hen left her nest when about to hatch, and one of our White Mills boys was visiting in that vicinity, so he suggested that they put the duck eggs in the oven and hatch them out, which they did and it proved satisfactory, but the second attempt they tried it on chickens and when they went to the oven there were some chicks minus of a leg. They were confounded. They knew that the cook was fond of chicken but did not suspect her of taking the legs off so soon, but upon a little closer examination they found out that one was minus a bill and they found out that it was "Bill" that did the deed. Charley said all Bills are dandies even on a young chicken.
 A short time ago in the vicinity of White Mills several of the boys in town were invited to celebrate the wedding of one of their old chums, and of course they had everything in elaborate style. Eating, drinking, and dancing were indulged in and when everybody was in high glee and enjoying themselves, and in order not to make any confusion the farmer was asked to tap another keg of beer which he did with his heart's delight but probably not being accustomed to that kind of work he placed the faucet upside down and in less than five minutes everybody surrounded the keg to offer some suggestions how they could get the beer without wasting it. One said take it out and put it back quick; another said get a monkey-wrench and turn it around and after a whole lot of suggestions too numerous to mention, the farmer came with a wash tub and an umbrella and said: "Stand back here, you bunch of greenhorns and I will have the beer before you can get your glasses ready." He fastened the umbrella in the middle of the tub and opened the faucet; the beer went up against the umbrella and fell down into the tub, and all present by this time were getting dry. You have seen ducks drink out of a pan, with their heads up and down but just imagine this for yourself. The children on rainy days are now using the new device to go around in the duck pond and if you are lucky enough to pass the way, just listen and you will hear them singing, how dry I am."

German Business Woman's Idea.
 One of the cleverest young business women in Germany, well known in Berlin society and considered one of the prettiest girls in the German capital, has just secured on behalf of the company of which she is chairwoman a contract from the Belgian State railways which marks the last thing in railway economy effected by a foreign government. Miss Stoette's syndicate has received permission to collect all newspapers and paper of every description left in carriages on the Belgian railways and in return contracts to manufacture and supply free of charge from the paper thus obtained as many cardboard tickets as the railway may require.
 It is estimated that the company will make a profit of from 12 to 15 per cent a year.—Bystander.

Modern Damascening.
 In the ancient art of damascening, in which Damascus excelled in the thirteenth century, a surface of bronze or iron was engraved with lines or figures, and threads of silver or gold were pounded into the design with a mallet. Attempts have been made to produce the same ornamental inlaying by some cheaper method. The latest process is that of Sherrard Cowper Coles, the British metallurgist, who coats the object to be decorated with a protective composition and in this cuts out the design. Placed in an iron box, in which it is surrounded with filings of the ornamenting metal, the object is then heated to the proper temperature.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

A Young Hero.
 During the daily bath of two young sons, aged two and three and a half, the mother was suddenly called to the telephone. On her return she found them both out of the tub, thoroughly excited. Thereupon the older one exclaimed:
 "Harold was about to go down in the hole, but I got him out, murrer; I got him out!"—Delineator.

Heehaw! His Joke.
 "Yes," said the old mule, "exercise is a good thing. I always believed in it, but not on the towpath."
 "Ah," heehawed the young mule, who had heard of the old times on the canal, "that was where you drew the lines, eh?"—Catholic Standard and Times.

THE STRONG HAWLEY TEAM GOES DOWN IN DEFEAT!
 The Strong White Mills Team Play a Pretty Game of Ball on Sunday—The Hawley Men Could Not Hit or Even See Smith's Curves

About fifteen hundred fans and families witnessed one of the fastest games of base ball at White Mills on Sunday last between Hawley and the Crescents that has been played in this part of the county in some years.
 The game was full of ginger from start to finish. Fast and snappy fielding on both sides prevented runs time after time. Hawley was handicapped by not having their star pitcher, McClosky, in the box. Gibbons kept the hits well scattered until the seventh inning when two hits and two errors netted the Crescents two runs. Our own "Billy" Smith was the boy with the swat getting two singles and a double at four times at the bat. Only thirty-three men faced Smith in the nine innings. Thielke and Bea were the only men to get as far as third.
 Hawley's first inning—Winters muffed the third strike on Edwards but caught him at first. McNamara flied to Lilly, Siler was disposed of from Lilly to Dorflinger. The Crescents went out in one, two, three order. Lilly sent a high fly which Langon squeezed, Edwards gathered in Guthell's fast liner and nailed him at first by four feet. Gibbons handled Winters' slow grounder and threw him out at first. In the second inning Thielke put the first ball pitched that looked good for a couple but Bellman made a high jump that broke all records and pulled it down out of the clouds. Gibbons was hit by pitched ball but was caught at second trying to steal. Rose struck out. W. Smith started the second for the Crescents with a Texas leaguer to left, Lawson hit to McNamara, forcing Smith at second. By a quick throw to first Siler caught Lawson napping. C. Smith struck out. Bea reached first on an error by Lilly, Langon went out from W. Smith to Dorflinger, Gaffney flied out to Lilly. W. Smith by fast throw gets Edwards at first a second ahead of time. White Mills went out in the third inning on three infield hits. Hawley's fourth innings—McNamara and Siler fly out to Lawson, Thielke gets first on a wild throw by Lilly to Dorflinger, Gibbon's long fly was speared by C. Smith. Lilly in the fourth hits over second base for a single, Guthell struck out, Winters hit to McNamara, forcing Lilly at second. Hawley tried for a double play on Winters, but was one hour late, on the first ball pitched. Winters digs for second and by a long slide confined the bag; the best W. Smith could do was a liner right in Edwards hands who threw him out at first. Rose gets the first hit for Hawley in the fifth, a neat single over first base. Bea lays down a pretty sacrifice advancing Rose to second. Langon fies out to Lawson. Gaffney hit liner to Teuman and is thrown out at first.
 White Mills half of the fifth Edwards makes two fine assists of Edwards hit to Guthell for an easy Beelman hits a dinky grounder to Gibbons and was thrown out at first. Hawley's half of the sixth—Edwards hit to Guthell for an easy out. McNamara batted a hot one down to Lilly and was safe on a wide throw to Dorflinger. Siler pops up a fly to Guthell. Thielke dropping out at first by Winters after dropping the third strike. White Mills had a faint chance to score in the sixth, after Truman had gone out at first by an assist from McNamara. Dorflinger hit to deep left for two bases. Lilly puts up a pop fly to Gibbons and Guthell went out from Edwards to Thielke. Both teams made changes in the fielding line-up in the seventh; for Hawley Bea took Langon's place in left and McNamara went to center for White Mills, Guthell took Lilly's place at short, C. Smith came in from center to second and Lilly took Smith's position in center. Gibbons was struck out by three splitters that came near putting kinks in his back. Rose was thrown out at first by W. Smith. Bea again got his base on an error by C. Smith and on a wild throw to first reached second but died right there as McNamara went out from Truman to Dorflinger. In the last half of the seventh Bea started the fireworks for White Mills by miffing Winters' fly. W. Smith landed on the second ball pitched for a beauty over second. Lawson rips out a hummer between third and short sending in Winters and W. Smith. C. Smith banged a single to center. Lawson thinking he was a ten second man tried for home from second and was caught between home and third by Siler. Beelman hit to McNamara, forcing C. Smith out at second. Truman reached first base on miff by center. Dorflinger hit a hard liner that bounded right into Edwards hands and was easy at first. Hawley went out in the eighth on fly to left and two assists to first. White Mills got another run in the eighth on a hit and a stolen base by Winters and a two-bagger by W. Smith. Hawley's half of the ninth—Siler got his first on a line hit to C. Smith which he booted. Thielke struck out, Gibbons went out on a fly to Guthell and Rose was an easy out on an assist from C. Smith to Dorflinger.

FEW JOTTINGS ABOUT BASEBALL.
 Hawley and White Mills are to play a series of five games. The first game of the series will take place in Hawley on Saturday, July 10th.
 Hawley plays the Battling Giants at Hawley on Saturday, June 26th. The Giants are considered to be the equal of the Cuban Giants. With McClosky in the box for Hawley a hot game is looked forward to. Turn out everybody and loosen up.
 Bea has the right ideas on the coaching line. A good man on the line is a winner.
 Every time Billy threw a spitter, Winters got a bath.
 McNamara is a umpire of the first water. No kick coming on Eugene. White Mills play the Battling Giants on the 27th.

HAWLEY 18; Y. M. I. 2.
 A fairly good crowd turned out on Saturday to witness the game between the Y. M. I. of Green Ridge and the local team. It was a good practice game for our boys as it gave them an idea how to place their hits when it becomes necessary to do so. The game was a batting bee after the first inning for Hawley only, as McClosky was mean enough to make monkeys out of the batters of the visiting team whenever the hummer struck him. He had mercy on Gibbons on account of old times' sake. It was McClosky's first game since coming home and he makes the fans feel joyful by his good work in the box, getting three hits out of six times at the bat. McClosky let up on the visitors after the third inning and allowed them to get seven hits, but they were so well scattered that the Y. M. I.'s never had a look in. A game of this kind fits in alright and is a good chance for the boys to get their eye on the ball. Hawley had a total of fifteen hits of which six were two baggers.

THE POSTOFFICE.
 It seemed to be located in a Rather Lonely Place.
 A veteran stagecoach driver in Idaho used to tell of an incident that happened when he drove the stage over to Boise City from the Union Pacific line. He had on one trip only a single passenger, a little tenderfoot of a New England schoolma'am going to take charge of a school in that town. She had never before been farther from Boston than the Hudson river. Along about dusk one evening as she sat on the box by the driver and the team wound its way around the shoulder of a bleak mountain, a highwayman suddenly stepped into the middle of the road and held up his hand. A cocked rifle rested easily in the hollow of his arm and its muzzle pointed straight at the driver's head. He quickly pulled up.
 "Throw over Wells-Fargo's box!" said the man with the gun.
 The driver reached down and flung the box into the road; then he started to gather up the reins.
 "Hold on!" the other cried impatiently. "Where's the mail bag? Don't you think I want that?"
 For reply the driver swiftly kicked it overboard.
 "All right," said the man on the ground in affable tone; "you can drive on now."
 For half a mile they rolled along in silence, schoolma'am and driver. The former seemed to be in deep study. At last, turning to the driver, she said, "I don't know anything about the west, of course, but that certainly does seem to be an awfully lonesome place to have a postoffice."
