Interment was made at Lakeville cemetery. Funeral services were held at the M. E. church on Monday, the 5th. Rev. Lucas, of Hawley, officiating.

GOULDSBORO.

Gouldsboro, July 6.—The great Fourth of July picnic held at Union Park on Monday, under the auspices of the Park Association, and the base ball team was a distinct success. A great many people were present, and enjoyed themselves most thoroughly. The base ball game in the afternoon between the local team and the Central City Tigers, of Scranton, resulted in a victory for the former by the score of 6 to 3. In the neighborhood of $150.00 was cleared. Fred Greggs, of South Sterling, umpired the game in a most satisfactory manner.

INDIAN ORCHARD.

July 5.—The festival held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Buckingham was well attended on Wednesday evening last. Several from Honesdale, Laurella, and Beach Lake were in attendance.

The grangers will celebrate at the hall to-day by repairing the building and clearing the ground around the hall, from brush, weeds, etc.

The Free Methodist Sunday school of Beach Lake will hold a picnic in E. E. Avery's Grove at the Bethel farm.

Mrs. R. B. Marshall and daughter, Edith, of Beech Lake, were visitors at A. M. Henshaw's on Wednesday last.

The roads in this vicinity are being badly worn by running so many heavy automobiles over them. We believe it would be a great saving to the owners of machines in Honesdale and other towns of Wayne, if they would hire some idle stone crusher, send it out in Berlin and crush the stones of the stone walls along the Honesdale and Narrowsburg road from Grange hall to Beach Lake. Most of the farmers will give the labor required to get same to crusher, but when we mention anything of the kind to them they excuse themselves by saying that the streets of Honesdale are in a far worse condition than the poorest of country roads.

The young people of this place and Beach Lake are going to Narrowsburg to-night. W. C. Spry will handle the reins over the four horses that haul them to the Burg. Eva Toms is spending a few weeks at Tuscarora cottage on the east coast of Beach Lake.

Haying has already begun in this vicinity and a good crop is anticipated.

USWICK AND LAKEVILLE.

July 7.—There was a picnic in the grove near the church on Saturday, July 3rd, but the glorious Independence Day was saddened by sickness and death in our vicinity.

A telegram was received on the picnic ground stating that Mrs. Anna Keith of New York city died on Friday evening, July 2d. She was an old neighbor of ours and sister of Mrs. James Swan who was attending the picnic. The remains of Mrs. Anna Keith, and also the remains of her oldest daughter, who died several years ago in New York city and was interred there, will be brought here to-day. There will be a double funeral this afternoon at the M. E. church at 3 p. m. when the remains arrive here; funeral services conducted by the Baptist minister of Hawley. Interment will be made in the family plot near the church. She leaves to mourn her loss three daughters, namely: Misses Virginia, Eleanor, and Harriet, all living at home, and one brother, Mr. James Swan, who lives on the old homestead. The bereaved family have our heartfelt sympathy.

Mr. Jacob Everly, of Audell, died Friday. Deceased was born in Germany, eighty-six years ago. He came to America when a young man, helped to dig the Erie canal, working near Lackawanna. He afterwards purchased a farm at Audell, and was a very successful farmer. He married and there were four children born to them, namely: Mrs. Vincent Schlager of Park Place, Scranton; Frank and Adam of Scranton and William who lives on the homestead. He was married four times and his last wife and the four children survive him. He was buried on Monday afternoon. Funeral service at 2 o'clock at the M. E. church at this place, conducted by Rev. Mr. Lucas of Hawley. Interment in the cemetery near the church beside his first wife. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

N. Stephens. She is improving a little at this writing, and the children have all returned to their homes.

Charles W. Pennell was taken suddenly ill on Monday afternoon. Dr. Rodman of Hawley was called, who said he had kidney trouble. He is a little on the gain to-day.

There are several boarders at A. Gobles at Lakeville.

Mr. L. Cohen had 66 boarders at last report.

Mr. Cleeman also has city boarders.

Mr. Miller is expecting city boarders to-day.

There was a Fourth of July party at Mr. J. Schleupner's on Sunday. The following named guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Muntz, George Shearer, and Mr. and Mrs. Casper Unger, of Bone Ridge, Mr. and Mrs. Kline and two children, of Uswick, Mr. and Mrs. Younge of Ammermantown and Mr. Honstitchner, of Hawley.

F. R. Olmstead killed a rattlesnake in his garden on July 4th.

Walter Pennell, who has employment on the new hospital at Waymart, is visiting his relatives at Uswick.

SOUTH STERLING.

July 5.—The nice weath is a big improvement. Hoeing and sowing is about finished and now we are getting ready to reap. City people are coming in fast.

Mr. George H. Lancaster is pushing the new factory with all possible speed.

Oscar Lancaster, of Washington, D. C., is visiting his father, Geo. H. Lancaster.
