

NELSON DEFEATED

Wolgast Has Much the Best of Ten Round Fight.

LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION SORE.

Milwaukee Man Administers Severe Punishment and Draws Blood From His Opponent Repeatedly During Bout.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 14.—In the presence of the biggest crowd that has seen a prizefight in this city Battling Nelson, lightweight champion of the world, was defeated by Ad Wolgast of Milwaukee.

The fight went the limit, and Wolgast had Nelson thoroughly whipped at the end of the tenth round, though no official decision could legally be rendered. Nelson was badly punished. It was a terrific fight from the start.

Second Round.—Wolgast reached the head with right and after a lively mixup in the center of the ring was backed to the ropes. Nelson fought his way to the center of the ring with body punches. In close quarters Wolgast sent a right and a left to the head. Blood flowed from Nelson's nose. Wolgast sent two right uppercuts to the mouth as the round closed.

Third Round.—Wolgast landed right and left to head and body and then showed Nelson with rights and lefts to the head and jaw. Nelson fought back for the stomach, but Wolgast landed repeatedly to the face and body. In close quarters Wolgast had all the better of the fighting and had a big lead at the end of the round.

Fourth Round.—Nelson was first to land, getting a left to the stomach. Wolgast sent two swift rights to the face, and Nelson's left eye began to swell. They exchanged body punches, and Wolgast reached Nelson's head with a left. Nelson was missing and falling short. Wolgast shot a terrific right to Nelson's stomach and then landed half a dozen rights and lefts to the face without a return.

Fifth Round.—Nelson landed several effective rights to the body. In a neutral corner Wolgast stopped Nelson with a right and left to the body.

Sixth Round.—They exchanged lefts to the face, and Wolgast put in two rights to the head. Nelson reached Wolgast's face with a right uppercut. Nelson forced Wolgast to the ropes, but did not land effectively. Wolgast swung left to the head and sent Nelson back, but he came on fighting hard.

Seventh Round.—Wolgast put a left to Nelson's eye and continued to land the greater number of blows. They clinched against the ropes. Wolgast landed on the head and Nelson on the body. Nelson's nose and lips were badly swollen.

Eighth Round.—Nelson landed hard right and left to the face. Wolgast came back with rights and lefts to the body. Nelson put right and left to the head, and Wolgast reached the ear with a right. Wolgast put a left to the head and then shot his right to the nose.

Ninth Round.—From the going they fought around the ring, Wolgast landing three blows to Nelson's eye. Wolgast rushed in with a stinging right to the face and landed an overhead right to the head. Wolgast sent Nelson back with a left swing to the face and swung half a dozen blows to the head.

Tenth Round.—Nelson fell short with right, and Wolgast smothered him with rights and lefts. Wolgast hammered Nelson's stomach. Wolgast fought Nelson to the ropes. Another left landed squarely on Nelson's stomach.

Nelson's face was badly swollen, and blood streamed from his nose and mouth at the close of the fight. He had many bruises on his body. Wolgast was unmarked.

GREAT AEROPLANE FEAT.

Cross Country Flight of Twenty-five Miles in France by M. Bleriot.

Etampes, France, July 14.—M. Bleriot, one of the French aeroplanists who are planning to fly across the English channel, flew across country from here to Orleans, winning the French Aero club prize of $2,800. The distance is twenty-five miles in a straight line, a little more than the distance across the channel.

M. Bleriot made a successful landing at Chevilly, having covered the twenty-five miles in fifty-six minutes ten seconds elapsed time. This included a stop of eleven minutes near Toury to examine his aeroplane.

The flight of M. Bleriot is regarded as the most remarkable yet made in a heavier than air machine. The Wright brothers have remained longer in the air and traveled longer distances, but they have always flown over a circumscribed field.

ELKS ELECT SAMMIS.

Iowa Beats Herrmann For Grand Ruler by 592 to 529.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 14.—J. U. Sammis of Lemars, Ia., was elected grand exalted ruler of the Elks over Garry Herrmann of Cincinnati. The vote was extremely close, Sammis receiving 592 votes and Herrmann 529.

The only other contest was over the office of grand exalted lecturing knight. Harry Walter of Philadelphia lost to J. D. Jones of Scranton, Pa.

Detroit was selected as the place for holding the reunion in 1910.

Girl and Would Be Rescuer Drown.

Iowa Falls, Ia., July 14.—While riding in a launch with other girls and young men Dorothy Bruce was caught under the chin by a guy wire and dragged into the water and drowned. Archie Drake jumped in to save her, but was drowned.

BOLIVIANS STILL HOSTILE.

Demonstrations Against Argentina and Peru by Mobs at La Paz.

Buenos Aires, July 14.—The minister of foreign affairs has received a telegram from Senor Fonseca, Argentine minister at La Paz, announcing that he has left that city.

The telegram adds that mobs in La Paz continue to make hostile demonstrations against Argentina and Peru, and that Mme. Fonseca was obliged to take refuge in the artillery barracks.

The note adds that the Argentine government did not consider what might be the wishes of the Bolivian government with regard to the terms of the decision. It was merely a question of acceptance or refusal. It holds that whatever may be the views of the Bolivian government, it cannot constitute itself a judge in the matter of the decision.

Peruvians Leaving Bolivia.

La Paz, Bolivia, July 14.—The people approve the government's refusal to accept Argentina's boundary decision. Bolivia's reason for nonacceptance is that part of the territory, which Peru never occupied, is recognized by the award as belonging to Peru.

The populace, fearing a war and scarcity of provisions, are leaving heavily. Many Peruvians are leaving the country, the Peruvian government paying their expenses.

Peru Makes Energetic Protest.

Lima, Peru, July 14.—President Leguia has sent instructions to Minister Polo to present an energetic protest to the Bolivia foreign office against the assaults made upon the Peruvian legation and the Peruvians at La Paz.

SUFFRAGETTES STILL DEFIANT.

Refuse to Eat or Don Jail Garb and Will Not Be Silent.

London, July 14.—The suffragettes who were sent to Holloway jail on charges of disorderly conduct while attempting to present a petition to Premier Asquith are making it lively for the jail authorities.

They are following up the tactics inaugurated by Miss Dunlop, and in addition to refusing to eat they refuse persistently to change their street clothes for the prison garb. The rules of silence are ignored, and in short there has broken out a general revolt against the attempt to treat them as ordinary criminals.

Moorish Tribesmen Pillage Fez.

Teheran, Morocco, July 14.—Roghl, leader of the rebellious tribesmen, has made an attack on Fez and succeeded in forcing an entry into the city. His followers pillaged the stores and many of the merchants fled to Mequinez.

EVELYN A WITNESS

Young Mrs. Thaw Not Too Friendly Toward Husband.

SAYS HE GIVES HER NO MONEY

Not Allowed to Tell That He Threatened to Kill Her When She Visited Him at Matteawan.

White Plains, July 14.—Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was called to the witness stand in the taking of testimony as to the present mental condition of Harry K. Thaw before Justice Isaac N. Mills in the supreme court here.

Mrs. Thaw, who was called by the state as its first witness in establishing the fact that Stanford White's slayer is still mentally irresponsible and would be dangerous if released, showed plainly that she was not very friendly to her husband at the present time.

She was quietly dressed in a dark blue suit and black hat and quietly faced the assistant attorney general. He said:

"After Mr. Thaw was committed to Matteawan did you have a conversation with him?"

"I had rather not answer that question," she replied.

"Did Harry K. Thaw ever make a threat to kill you?" was the next question.

"I object," shouted Thaw's counsel. A discussion among the lawyers followed, and through it all the young woman slowly fanned herself and appeared thoroughly at her ease.

When asked to describe Thaw's appearance, she said:

"I do not wish to answer."

"What was the appearance of Mr. Thaw's eyes when he was talking with you?" the attorney went on.

"I met him in the dining room at Matteawan. We sat on chairs, he being seated all the time. The conversation lasted a few minutes. His hair was mussed and he wore a handkerchief in place of a collar."

"Did his eyes protrude from his head?"

"Well, I would not say they protruded, but they were very prominent."

"More prominent than usual?"

"Yes."

"During that conversation did Harry K. Thaw say this, or words to this effect, to you, 'When I get out of here I will have to kill you?'"

Thaw's counsel objected to the question and the witness did not have to answer, although she was careful to state that she did not claim her legal privilege and asked to have that fact recorded.

Justice Mills ruled that the conversation between Thaw and his wife at that time was confidential and need not be repeated by the witness.

Mr. Clarke argued that the conversation was not confidential, as it contained a threat against the life of one of the parties.

Attorney Winslow argued that the conversation was material as bearing upon the sanity or insanity of Thaw, the real issue before the court. Mr. Clarke asked the privilege of asking the witness one more question.

"Was the subject of conversation partly in regard to the killing of Stanford White?" asked Mr. Clarke.

Mrs. Thaw said it was.

At one time when the fencing over the admissibility of the questions asked Mrs. Thaw was under discussion she turned to Justice Mills and said:

"Will I be in contempt if I don't answer? I cannot afford to go to jail, and as my husband is not paying anything to me I have not money enough to hire counsel."

The state's representative announced that they had retained Dr. Austin Flint and Dr. Carlos F. MacDonald, who with Dr. Amos B. Baker of Matteawan will make up the state's trio of alienists. Thaw's counsel has not decided what alienists to call. It was agreed that the state's alienists are to be permitted to make a physical examination of Thaw in the White Plains jail. The mental examination to test his sanity is to be conducted in open court by the lawyers prompted by the experts.

BOY TORTURED TO DEATH.

Playmates Bound Him to a Tree With Rope, Causing Appendicitis.

Medford, N. Y., July 14.—His son George dead as the result of torture by boys, J. C. Tracy, a contractor, refuses to divulge the names of those whose prank had brought woe to his household.

"I am sure the boys only acted in sport," he said, "and I would not for the world make public their names and cause their families any of the grief we suffer."

George Tracy was nine years of age. His death was the result of being tied to a tree by playmates. The rope was tied so tightly around his stomach as to cause appendicitis. He died in the hospital at Freeport.

Woman Killed in Auto Wreck.

Middletown, N. Y., July 14.—Mrs. Sylvester M. Runk of this city, a widow, was killed in an automobile accident near Bloomingburg when the touring car in which she was riding with several relatives struck the iron-work of a bridge and overturned.
