

CENT A WORD COLUMN

FOR SALE—One of the finest dwellings on one of the finest streets in Honesdale. All modern improvements, furnace, hot and cold water, bath room, etc. If you want a swell home go and look at it. It's grand—only $3100. DORIN.

BOARD WANTED—Office man, neat and orderly, desires board and lodging with private family. Address XT., Citizen office.

FOR RENT—Room suitable for office or shop. Jno. F. Roe, 1209 Main street. 5911

I OFFER two modern dwellings on Church street at irresistible prices. DORIN.

FOR SALE—Main street corner property, 100x150, improved. Jno. F. Roe, 1209 Main street. 5911

FOR SALE—Roll top desk and office chair. Jno. F. Roe, 1209 Main street. 5911

If you want to sell your town property just go to a Citizen's phone and ask for 79J. I'll be at the other end—all days and at all hours. Give me your address and I'll call on you. DORIN.

FOR SALE—Lady's bicycle, Iver-Johnson make; good order, cheap. Inquire Citizen office. 571f.

WANTED—5 day laborers at the Fish Hatchery, Pleasant Mt., Pa., Apply to N. R. Buller. 5614

A HOUSE on East Extension street to rent. Inquire Hotel Wayne. 5713

FOR SALE—House and nine acres of land in Prompion. Terms to suit buyer. F. P. Kimble, Honesdale, Pa. 5712

BRAMAN has some splendid native and western horses for sale, all in excellent condition at Allen House barn. 251f.

SPECIAL attention given to children at Charlesworth's Studio. 28

FOR SALE—Ray house, on East Extension street. Large lot with sixty feet front. M. E. Simons. 38001f.

LOCAL AND VICINITY

Conductor M. M. Pepper of the Erie, was struck on the leg by a drawhead at M. Q. tower on Wednesday. He came to Port Jervis and was treated at the hospital.

Miss Delia Fowley was found drowned in White Lake, Thursday morning last. She had given her address as 219 West 68th street, New York. It is supposed to be a case of suicide.

Scranton is apprehensive of another catastrophe. The barbers of that city threaten to strike, if they are not allowed to quit at 10 o'clock on Saturday nights. Buy yourselves a "razzer" and let them strike.

An Italian laborer slipped while unloading stone from an Erie car at Middletown Summit on Wednesday and struck his head against a cross-beam. He received a scalp wound which was treated at the Port Jervis hospital.

The board of directors of the Erie Railroad has passed a resolution restoring the salaries of officers and employees reduced some time ago. The conditions of the company are so satisfactory that it was stated that the restoration will date from July 1.

An unknown man, while walking across a trestle over Spring Brook on the Laurel Line, near Moosic, was run down at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon and died six hours later at the Moses Taylor hospital, having sustained a fractured skull, as well as other minor injuries.

Harry Steinberg, a young man of Jewish extraction, was arrested last week at Monticello, N. Y., for stealing jewelry, etc., from residents of Mountandale, but principally from young ladies, with whom he was very popular. He pleaded guilty and is now awaiting an interview with the grand jury.

Armed with a lumberman's ax, E. N. Tollman, sixty years old, a Heart Lake, Susquehanna county farmer, went on a rampage Thursday while insane. He chopped his way into a neighbor's house, but finding the family away, returned to his own home, bent on mischief. His two grown sons disarmed him after a struggle and strapped him to a couch, until a constable came and took him to Hillside Home.

The Courier-Journal says: A meeting of the Deposit Board of Trade was held in the village hall Monday evening for the purpose of considering ways and means of keeping the Outing plant in Deposit. A Scranton firm had made an offer of $20,000 for the plant through their local attorney, C. E. Scott, and if they succeeded in securing it, would operate the plant in that city. We understand that Judge Ray decided that it would be wise not to sell the plant for less than three-fourths of the appraised value, and if the receivers could not get that he instructed them to sell it at public auction.

Two cows of G. C. Valentine, near Deposit, N. Y., recently died of rabies. At least that is the verdict of Cornell University.

A fall of rock killed Peter Prusinski, a miner in the old slope of Susquehanna Coal company at Glen Lyon. He was 38 years of age and married.

Anna Cainaroonus, a little child, of Scranton, was on Sunday struck and killed by a passenger train while on her way to church, accompanied by an older sister.

Frank Jackett, aged 13, was drowned at Sackett's Lake, near Monticello, Thursday afternoon. He dived into Jeep water, and, being unable to swim, met death.

While turning on an electric light in the hotel of Mike Ferrett, Hickory street, Old Forge, Friday night, John Pasere, of Old Forge, met death by electrocution. He furnished a circuit for the electricity by standing on the iron rail in front of the bar as he turned the switch.

The body found last Friday, on the bank of the Lackawanna, near Depot street, Scranton, has been identified as that of Herbert D. Marshall, of 633 Moose street. He was an insurance agent. It is thought that while at his ordinary business he was stricken with heart failure.

Miss Emma Viola Lewis, daughter of James A. Lewis, of Pittston, died on Friday at the summer home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kirby, in Waymart, Wayne county. For several years Miss Lewis had been in ill health, and for the past two months her condition had been gradually growing more serious.

In giving orders for the discharge of Simon Perash from jail Friday at Wilkes-Barre, Judge Fuller said some Justices of the Peace should read up the law a little and they would not make so many blunders. Justice of the Peace Samuel S. Gingell committed Perash to jail in default of bail for debt. Judge Fuller said the statute under which the prisoner had been committed had been abolished half a century ago. The court suggested that an example should be made of such Justices of the Peace as Gingell and that he should be prosecuted.

Who Has Lost a Boy? The body of the unknown young man, killed by the cars Saturday morning near Rummerfeld was Tuesday consigned to a grave in the Potter's field in Riverside cemetery. Every effort was made by Coroner Johnson, Chief Miller and Murphy & Maryott to identify the body and locate the young man's friends, without success.—Towanda Reporter-Journal.

Fifty Elks Injured. Thursday last, near Pottsville, Pa., after a wild dash down a steep grade a special trolley car carrying half a hundred Elks, turned turtle at the foot of a hill. Scarcely one of the passengers escaped without injury, and five were seriously hurt. They were: Thomas B. Golden, Pottsville, leg crushed, later amputated, cut about head. George W. Bower, Easton, fractured collarbone, back injured. Bargo Weidman, Pottsville, shoulder broken, scalp torn. James Earnest, Easton, head cut, back and legs injured. Irwin Paul, Bangor, head cut and pelvis fractured.

The crowded car had started down a long steep grade on the Tumbling Run branch of the Eastern Pennsylvania railroad, when the motorman discovered that the airbrakes would not work. The hand brake was powerless to control the heavy car, and it dashed on to the bottom where it left the track and turned turtle.

Just About Now. The bees are in the meadow And the swallows in the sky; The cattle in the shadow Watch the river running by.

The wheat is hardly stirring; The heavy ox team lags; The dragon fly is whirling Through the yellow blossomed flags.

And down beside the river Where the trees lean o'er the pool, Where the shadows reach and quiver; A boy has come to school.

His teachers are the swallows, And the river, and the trees. His lessons are the shallows, And the flowers, and the bees.

He knows not he is learning, He thinks nor writes a word, But in the soul discerning A loving spring is stirred.

In after years—oh, weary years!— The river's lesson he Will try to speak to heedless ears In faltering minstrelsy. —John Boyle O'Reilly.

Lesson for Sunday, Aug. 8th, 1909. Paul's Instructions to the Thessalonians. I Thess. v:12-24

Also. "Stars of the summer night," Thou art divinely fair, But as sure as we walk for a quiet talk There's something that's sure our pleasure to balk— The mosquitoes are also there. —Philadelphia Bulletin.

On the Move. "The housefly must go!" said one scientist. "There is no comfort in that assertion," answered the other. "The housefly's roving disposition is precisely what causes the damage."—Illustrated

THE PRIZES. First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants. Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants. Third Series—A Teacher's Bible, price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants. Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50, to each of the next thirty-five contestants. Fifth Series—A developed mind, an expanded imagination, a richer experience and a more profound knowledge of the Bible and of life, to all who take this course whether winning any other prize or not.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner, and for what it is awarded, and in like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed. All who can write, and have ideas, are urged to take up these studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoned ideas.

Aug. 1st, 1909. (Copyright, 1909, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.) Close of Paul's Missionary Journey. Acts xviii:1-22. Golden Text—In the world ye shall have tribulation; be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.—John xvi:33.

Verse 1—What remarkable thing had immediately preceded Paul's start for Corinth? There is no record of a vision or any special Divine instruction, for Paul going to Corinth; but is a good man as much guided by God when he is not conscious of it, as when he is, and why? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 2-3—What was the attraction between Aquila and Paul? How do you account for it that there is an affinity between men of the same trade? Have labor men a perfect right to band themselves together, for mutual protection, against the undue demands of capital? Has capital a moral right to protect itself against labor? Have business men a right to protect themselves against undue competition?

Paul worked at his trade as a tent maker for a living, is there any suggestion in this that modern preachers should do a similar thing? A large proportion of the membership of the present day Christian church, have the latent ability to preach; ought not this ability to be developed, thus giving to every local church several preachers, and the work being divided between them, would be better done than at present, and each preacher make his own living?

Verse 4—Is it the duty and privilege of every adult Christian to be engaged at least every Sunday, in some specific spiritual work? Why did Paul, in the beginning, in Corinth, confine his work to the Sabbath day and to the Jews? Verses 5-6—What effect did the visit of Silas and Timothy have upon Paul? If a good man is ever so much in earnest, may the visit of another earnest man intensify his spirit? When a man does his very best in preaching, and fails to make converts, is he entitled to as much credit as if he had great success? Did Paul blame himself for his failure, and that the Jews resisted and blasphemed; and ought a man of God always take a similar position in like circumstances? Verse 7—Has it ever been in the past, and is it to-day, sometimes necessary for a good man to leave the church and start a meeting of his own? Verse 8—Is belief in Jesus an intellectual effect, or is it spiritual and supernatural? Verses 9-11—What method did God take in this instance to talk to Paul? Why is it that so few Christians have any experience of any special message from God? Do Christians speak as much as they ought for Christ to-day, and is there any fear of being hurt by speaking for him? Verses 12-17—Can any man expect, even in these days, to be unflinchingly faithful to God, and not make some people angry? How do you estimate the character of this man Gallo, and what is there in him worthy of imitation? Verses 18-22—Sum up the effects of Paul's efforts as revealed in this lesson. Lesson for Sunday, Aug. 8th, 1909. Paul's Instructions to the Thessalonians. I Thess. v:12-24

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of INTERNATIONAL NEWSPAPER BIBLE STUDY CLUB.

Answer One Written Question Each Week For Fifty-Two Weeks and Win a Prize.

THE PRIZES.

First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants. Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants. Third Series—A Teacher's Bible, price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants. Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50, to each of the next thirty-five contestants. Fifth Series—A developed mind, an expanded imagination, a richer experience and a more profound knowledge of the Bible and of life, to all who take this course whether winning any other prize or not.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner, and for what it is awarded, and in like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed. All who can write, and have ideas, are urged to take up these studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoned ideas.

Aug. 1st, 1909. (Copyright, 1909, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.) Close of Paul's Missionary Journey. Acts xviii:1-22. Golden Text—In the world ye shall have tribulation; be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.—John xvi:33.

Verse 1—What remarkable thing had immediately preceded Paul's start for Corinth? There is no record of a vision or any special Divine instruction, for Paul going to Corinth; but is a good man as much guided by God when he is not conscious of it, as when he is, and why? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 2-3—What was the attraction between Aquila and Paul? How do you account for it that there is an affinity between men of the same trade? Have labor men a perfect right to band themselves together, for mutual protection, against the undue demands of capital? Has capital a moral right to protect itself against labor? Have business men a right to protect themselves against undue competition?

Paul worked at his trade as a tent maker for a living, is there any suggestion in this that modern preachers should do a similar thing? A large proportion of the membership of the present day Christian church, have the latent ability to preach; ought not this ability to be developed, thus giving to every local church several preachers, and the work being divided between them, would be better done than at present, and each preacher make his own living?

Verse 4—Is it the duty and privilege of every adult Christian to be engaged at least every Sunday, in some specific spiritual work? Why did Paul, in the beginning, in Corinth, confine his work to the Sabbath day and to the Jews? Verses 5-6—What effect did the visit of Silas and Timothy have upon Paul? If a good man is ever so much in earnest, may the visit of another earnest man intensify his spirit? When a man does his very best in preaching, and fails to make converts, is he entitled to as much credit as if he had great success? Did Paul blame himself for his failure, and that the Jews resisted and blasphemed; and ought a man of God always take a similar position in like circumstances? Verse 7—Has it ever been in the past, and is it to-day, sometimes necessary for a good man to leave the church and start a meeting of his own? Verse 8—Is belief in Jesus an intellectual effect, or is it spiritual and supernatural? Verses 9-11—What method did God take in this instance to talk to Paul? Why is it that so few Christians have any experience of any special message from God? Do Christians speak as much as they ought for Christ to-day, and is there any fear of being hurt by speaking for him? Verses 12-17—Can any man expect, even in these days, to be unflinchingly faithful to God, and not make some people angry? How do you estimate the character of this man Gallo, and what is there in him worthy of imitation? Verses 18-22—Sum up the effects of Paul's efforts as revealed in this lesson. Lesson for Sunday, Aug. 8th, 1909. Paul's Instructions to the Thessalonians. I Thess. v:12-24

Also. "Stars of the summer night," Thou art divinely fair, But as sure as we walk for a quiet talk There's something that's sure our pleasure to balk— The mosquitoes are also there. —Philadelphia Bulletin.

On the Move. "The housefly must go!" said one scientist. "There is no comfort in that assertion," answered the other. "The housefly's roving disposition is precisely what causes the damage."—Illustrated

THE PRIZES. First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants. Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants. Third Series—A Teacher's Bible, price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants. Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50, to each of the next thirty-five contestants. Fifth Series—A developed mind, an expanded imagination, a richer experience and a more profound knowledge of the Bible and of life, to all who take this course whether winning any other prize or not.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner, and for what it is awarded, and in like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed. All who can write, and have ideas, are urged to take up these studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoned ideas.

Aug. 1st, 1909. (Copyright, 1909, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.) Close of Paul's Missionary Journey. Acts xviii:1-22. Golden Text—In the world ye shall have tribulation; be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.—John xvi:33.

Verse 1—What remarkable thing had immediately preceded Paul's start for Corinth? There is no record of a vision or any special Divine instruction, for Paul going to Corinth; but is a good man as much guided by God when he is not conscious of it, as when he is, and why? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 2-3—What was the attraction between Aquila and Paul? How do you account for it that there is an affinity between men of the same trade? Have labor men a perfect right to band themselves together, for mutual protection, against the undue demands of capital? Has capital a moral right to protect itself against labor? Have business men a right to protect themselves against undue competition?

Paul worked at his trade as a tent maker for a living, is there any suggestion in this that modern preachers should do a similar thing? A large proportion of the membership of the present day Christian church, have the latent ability to preach; ought not this ability to be developed, thus giving to every local church several preachers, and the work being divided between them, would be better done than at present, and each preacher make his own living?

Verse 4—Is it the duty and privilege of every adult Christian to be engaged at least every Sunday, in some specific spiritual work? Why did Paul, in the beginning, in Corinth, confine his work to the Sabbath day and to the Jews? Verses 5-6—What effect did the visit of Silas and Timothy have upon Paul? If a good man is ever so much in earnest, may the visit of another earnest man intensify his spirit? When a man does his very best in preaching, and fails to make converts, is he entitled to as much credit as if he had great success? Did Paul blame himself for his failure, and that the Jews resisted and blasphemed; and ought a man of God always take a similar position in like circumstances? Verse 7—Has it ever been in the past, and is it to-day, sometimes necessary for a good man to leave the church and start a meeting of his own? Verse 8—Is belief in Jesus an intellectual effect, or is it spiritual and supernatural? Verses 9-11—What method did God take in this instance to talk to Paul? Why is it that so few Christians have any experience of any special message from God? Do Christians speak as much as they ought for Christ to-day, and is there any fear of being hurt by speaking for him? Verses 12-17—Can any man expect, even in these days, to be unflinchingly faithful to God, and not make some people angry? How do you estimate the character of this man Gallo, and what is there in him worthy of imitation? Verses 18-22—Sum up the effects of Paul's efforts as revealed in this lesson. Lesson for Sunday, Aug. 8th, 1909. Paul's Instructions to the Thessalonians. I Thess. v:12-24

Also. "Stars of the summer night," Thou art divinely fair, But as sure as we walk for a quiet talk There's something that's sure our pleasure to balk— The mosquitoes are also there. —Philadelphia Bulletin.

On the Move. "The housefly must go!" said one scientist. "There is no comfort in that assertion," answered the other. "The housefly's roving disposition is precisely what causes the damage."—Illustrated

IN HIS TIME DAVE SHAVED 360,000

Now When Tired Rests, No Matter How Many Customers Are Waiting for Him

OLDEST BARBER MAKES COMMENTS

Men's Faces, He Says, Are Losing Strong Masculinity that Formerly Marked Them—Says Barbering is not a Trade, is a Profession.

Cleveland, Ohio.—Right opposite the Cuyaboga Falls Hotel is Dave Berkheimer's barber shop, whose proprietor works when he feels like it and at no other time. An evening or so ago, at an hour when business usually gets brisk, he turned the lights low, carried a chair out to the sidewalk, and, seating himself, lighted a pipe and was puffing away contentedly when he had a call. It was Jake Bouron, who came in from the farm with a bunch of hair on his face, the crop of a full week. In his buttonhole was a flower and he wore a pale blue necktie, for it was the night he always set apart for his girl: "Guess I'll try one of your shaves, pop," he remarked, hesitating at the doorstep. "Not this evening, you won't," observed Dave. "What's the reason I won't? Ain't this a regular barber shop, and ain't you a regular barber, and ain't you gotta shave anybody that's got the price? And if that's all that's wrong of you, I kin show I've got that all right."

"My boy," said Dave, "I want to work when I want to and not when other people want me to. I'll tell you something. I started in this business when I was thirteen years o'd. I'm seventy-three now. That makes sixty years at the strop. I'm the oldest barber in the United States. And all this time I've been working, thinking I had to. Well, I've just decided that I don't have to and I ain't going to. Good night."

Has Dave retired? Not a bit of it. That's merely his declaration of independence. Actually he's working harder than ever. "But," he says, "I've saved a bit of money, and I'm beholden to no man. And from now on I'm going to work till I get tired, and when I get tired I'm going to lay off if the whole shop's full of people."

"Yes, you bet I've shaved some men in my day. I figure that I've worked on about 6,000 faces and heads a year on an average for sixty years. That makes it run upward 360,000 for my sixty years, don't it?"

"Has the human face undergone any changes? Well, I should say it has. And not for the better, either. It seems to me. You don't see any rugged, strong faces any more, like you used to."

"Men's faces used to be hard and big, and the hair on the top of the head was as thick as it was on the chin and jaws. Men are getting to be more like women. Their faces are big enough sometimes, but they're soft and kind of flabby—that old hardness isn't there any more. The hair's all on the face and not on the head."

"There has been a change in the cheek bones. Most young fellows nowadays seem to have kind of high cheek bones. They don't look no more like their granddads than a cat does like a tiger."

"I've figured that we can blame the hats for the bald heads. Men didn't used to be so careful about covering their heads up with air-tight straw and the like of that in the hot summer. They used to wear hats that let plenty of air in, and that's what their hair needs mor'n anything else. Hair'll never come out if you keep it clean and give it plenty of air."

There's no unsteadiness about Dave for all his sixty years at the strop. One of his favorite jokes is to get a man that he can not hold a pin in his hand, arm stretched horizontally, for ten minutes. It sounds easy, but did you ever try it? Few men can do it. Dave can.

Dave smokes a good deal. Also he drinks—two beers a day. "My own idea about this drink business," he says, "is that the more you say to a man that he mustn't take it, the harder he'll go after it. Now—I was going to say that I'd drink all my life, but never had been drunk—but I was once."

"Let's see—it was after Lincoln's second election—the time he was at Hudson. I went over there with a lot of other fellows to see Lincoln go through. And I recollect we took a bottle along. Yes, I was pretty well corned up that time. I had the bottle when Lincoln came in. "How're ye, Abe," I yells, waving both hands, one holding the bottle, too. "He waved back, laughed and said something, I don't know what, though I've studied over it lots of times. I wish I'd heard it, for I bet you a cookie it was something good. He used to get off some pretty rich things. "Barbering isn't a trade—it's a profession. I learned my trade in Germany, and I can do surgery. Why, I can bleed a man with the best of doctors. And I know all the diseases of the face and what's good for them. How many barbers do nowadays? But they ought to."

The Mexican National Exposition is to be held in Puebla in the spring of 1910.

YOUR HARVEST

Attention is called to the STRENGTH of the

Wayne County SAVINGS BANK

of the savings in our bank is Interest--Good Interest--for the use of your money. Twice a year you reap the harvest on the dollars you have planted here during that time.

There is no safer soil than a bank, with ample resources and wise management; no surer yield than the three per cent. interest we pay. Saving leads to success.

Stand 38th in the United States. Stand 10th in Pennsylvania. Stand FIRST in Wayne County.

Capital, Surplus, $455,000.00 Total ASSETS, $2,733,000.00

Honesdale, Pa., May 29 1908.

Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank,

Honesdale, Pa.

If you don't insure with us, we both lose.

HITTINGER & HAM

General Insurance

White Mills Pa.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA. No. 187 In Bankruptcy. In the matter of EDWIN D. PRENTICE, Bankrupt.

The undersigned, Trustee of E. D. Prentice, bankrupt, by order of the Bankruptcy Court will sell at public sale at the Court House in Honesdale, Pa., on Friday the 30th day of July, 1909, at two o'clock, P. M., the following described real estate:

All that certain lot, parcel or piece of land situated in the borough of Starucca, County of Wayne and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows—COMMENCING at a point in the center of the public highway in front of the store known as "The Barred Store" building, fifty feet distant from the center of the Cuyaboga creek; thence along the center of the highway south sixty-five degrees west fifty feet to the center of the Cuyaboga creek; thence north forty-two degrees west to the center of said creek; thence north seventy degrees east eighty feet to a corner forty one foot distant from the place of beginning; thence south twenty degrees east forty-one feet to the center of said highway the place of beginning. CONTAINING more or less, on which there is one story frame store building known as "The Barred Store." Being same land which E. C. Mumford et al granted and conveyed to E. D. Prentice by deed dated February 15, 1907, recorded in Wayne county in Deed Book No. 97, page 51 etc.

ALSO, all that certain piece or parcel of land situated in the borough of Starucca, County of Wayne, State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows—BEGINNING in the center of the highway leading from Starucca to Lanesboro and in the line of W. W. Mumford; thence north thirty-three and one-fourth degrees west along the center of said highway fifty feet to a corner; thence north sixty-three and one-half degrees east along said highway fifty feet to a corner and line of E. D. Prentice; thence south twenty degrees east along said highway fifty feet to the place of beginning. CONTAINING forty perches of land more or less, on which there is a two story frame house and other improvements. It being the same piece of land deeded by E. D. Prentice to E. C. Mumford et al by deed dated February 15, 1907, recorded in Wayne county in Deed Book No. 98, page 236 etc.

Sale of this real estate will be made free and clear of all incumbrances and liens.

TERMS OF SALE, CASH. W. W. MUMFORD, Trustee. Mumfords, Atty. Starucca Pa., July 3, 1909.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF WAYNE COUNTY

Katie Dean v. Samuel Dean. No. 107 March Term 1909. Libel in Divorce.

To SAMUEL DEAN: You are hereby required to appear in the said Court on the second Monday of August next, to answer the complaint to the judge of said court by Katie Dean, your wife, in the cause above stated, or in default thereof a decree of divorce as prayed for in said complaint may be made against you in your absence.

M. LEE BRAMAN, Sheriff. Simons, Atty. Honesdale, Pa., June 29, 1909.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF TRAINS

Delaware & Hudson R. R. Trains leave at 6:55 a. m., and 12:25 and 4:30 p. m. Sundays at 11:05 a. m. and 7:15 p. m.

Trains arrive at 9:55 a. m., 3:15 and 7:31 p. m. Sundays at 10:15 a. m. and 6:50 p. m.

Erie R. R. Trains leave at 8:27 a. m. and 2:50 p. m. Sundays at 2:50 p. m. Trains arrive at 2:13 and 8:02 p. m. Sundays at 7:02 p. m.

ROLL of HONOR

Attention is called to the STRENGTH of the

Wayne County SAVINGS BANK

of the savings in our bank is Interest--Good Interest--for the use of your money. Twice a year you reap the harvest on the dollars you have planted here during that time.

There is no safer soil than a bank, with ample resources and wise management; no surer yield than the three per cent. interest we pay. Saving leads to success.

Stand 38th in the United States. Stand 10th in Pennsylvania. Stand FIRST in Wayne County.

Capital, Surplus, $455,000.00 Total ASSETS, $2,733,000.00

Honesdale, Pa., May 29 1908.

Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank,

Honesdale, Pa.

If you don't insure with us, we both lose.

HITTINGER & HAM

General Insurance

White Mills Pa.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA. No. 187 In Bankruptcy. In the matter of EDWIN D. PRENTICE, Bankrupt.

The undersigned, Trustee of E. D. Prentice, bankrupt, by order of the Bankruptcy Court will sell at public sale at the Court House in Honesdale, Pa., on Friday the 30th day of July, 1909, at two o'clock, P. M., the following described real estate:

All that certain lot, parcel or piece of land situated in the borough