LOCAL MENTION.

Local matter on pages 4 and 8. —Orange juice is a new remedy for ivy poisoning.

—If you like The Citizen, tell your neighbor about it, please.

—Read the cent-a-word department in this paper. It may interest you.

—Scranton, on Thursday last, was visited by a generous rain. Honesdale and vicinity didn't get a drop.

—A marriage license has been granted to Floyd Brundage, of Pink, and Rachel Surling, of South Canaan.

—Honesdale is a "warm town." The mercury here, on Thursday last climbed to 93 degrees. In Philadelphia it only reached the 91 mark. Both official registers.

—It is held that children in a school district in which no public high school is maintained may attend a high school in some other district located near their home.

—Don't forget the picnic, at Bellevue Park, of Protection Engine Co., on Aug. 5th. Go, enjoy a good time, and give the "fire laddies" reason to think that you appreciate them.

—Citizens of Narrowsburg complain that Honesdale young men destroy the peace and quiet of their Sabbath. Boys, behave yourselves in Narrowsburg just as well as you do in Honesdale.

—Michael Loercher, an employe of the elevator works, here, had his eyes severely injured, last Thursday by sand which he was mixing, which burst from its receptacle.

—The fashion man of the Scranton Tribune says that it has been said that the ladies of that city wear socks—but he is unable to verify the report. Thinks they should, though—they are so much cooler than stockings.

—The parents of Mary Iacovone, of Scranton, are in grief because the latter, who is only a child, has eloped with Nicholas D'Agostino. The abductor is 35 years old. Circulars have been sent out describing the pair, and it is thought that they will soon be captured.

—The Superior Court holds that when a horse runs away, having been frightened by an auto, negligence being shown, the owner of the animal may recover, in addition to other damages, for the "changed disposition" of his nag. They're after you, Mr. Bubbleman.

—The Milford, Pike county, Press makes an unkind jab at pretty, thriving Honesdale's unpaved streets. We don't know whether Milford's streets are paved or no, presume not—but we do know that Honesdale people wouldn't live in Pike county's capitol, the land of rattlesnakes and democrats. If its streets were paved with gold.

—It isn't what a man knows but what he thinks he knows that he pesters other people with.

—The People's Bank of Parsons with a capital stock of $50,000 has recently been organized.

—The Times says that 60 babies died in Scranton during the past month of cholera infantum.

—Captain James Ham Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., will meet on Friday afternoon at 2:30.

—Attention, Veterans! Regular meeting of Captain Ham Post, on Friday evening of this week, August the 6th.

—The death of Mrs. Herbert Detrick, of Stroudsburg, formerly Miss Lillian Chambers, of Honesdale, is reported.

—Wheat (on paper) has dropped 23 cents during the past week. The price of flour, however, hasn't perceptibly shrunken.

—Old Home Week will be an occasion to which Honesdale should look back upon with pride and pleasant memories. Keep the ball rolling, citizens.

—The annual reunion of the David Howell family will be held the 26th of August at Carpenter's Grove, at Uniondale.

—We are informed that the pay of Company E, of this place, for its attendance at the State Encampment, was $834.40.

—Among the applications to organize national banks which have been approved is The First National Bank of Jessup, Pa., capital $50,000.

—Among the touring cars seen on our streets last Sunday, were those of Mr. Clarence Spencer and of Mr. Ed. Hubbard, both of Carbondale.

—On Tuesday evening of this week the Knights of Columbus conferred the first degree upon three candidates. After the degree work a social season was enjoyed.

—Correspondents to the Citizen are requested to write on one side of paper, only. If you use both sides, one side will, very likely, be omitted by the compositor.

—The following will leave this week to spend several weeks at Elk Lake: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Emery, Mrs. B. F. Fitch, and daughters.

—The following young ladies will leave Thursday for a camp, at "Bunk" Camp, Elk Lake: Misses Hattie Smith, Emily Brown, Mary Bodie, Laura Cortright, Florence Riefler.

—On Friday afternoon Mrs. Sigmond Katz entertained a number of lady friends at cards at her home on North Main street. Prizes were won by Mrs. Alfred Ullman and Miss Martha Voigt.

—Our readers are advised to read carefully the proposed amendments to the Constitution which appear in this issue. If you haven't time to take it in all at once, don't worry. It will appear 13 times.

—Our readers who wish to purchase dry goods, clothing or, in fact, anything else, will make no mistake if they first consult the advertising columns of The Citizen. Those dealers are, to a man, enterprising, square dealers. Don't forget this fact.

—At a meeting of Protection Engine Company, No. 3, the company decided to have as their guests, on Firemen's Day, Sept. 8, Excelsior Fire Company, of Port Jervis, and the Hendricks Hook and Ladder Company, of Carbondale.

—It is against the law to spit on the floor of a railroad train. This is not generally known, but it is true nevertheless, the law having been passed at the recent session of the Pennsylvania Legislature. Now do it again, if you wish to pay a fine.

—The following players, representing Honesdale, left for Milford yesterday morning, where they will play to-day and to-morrow. On Thursday they will play in Port Jervis: Schuerholz, Smith, Murray, Murphy, Wenders, Tuman, Monaghan and Giles.

—According to the Department of Agriculture of France, a toad during its lifetime is worth $9 to the farm, a lizard is worth $9, a swallow $20, a titmouse $8, the robin $4, a bat $30, an owl $12, a screech owl $16 and a fern owl $30, and just tell that to your boys.

—A. B. Tallman, of Tallmansville, Pa., has a farm, and a fine one, containing 85 acres, house, barn and all modern improvements, which he will sell at auction on the premises, Saturday, August 7, 1909. Here is a rare chance to secure a good property. See cent-a-word column.

—A gentleman of this place, whose business calls him to a majority of the summer resorts of this part of the country, says that business is poor with the resort people, and the cause is that people who usually take a summer outing cannot do so, this year, because they have automobiles to pay for. He says, as an illustration, that Roscoe, a place of 500 inhabitants, has fifty autos, most of which were purchased on the installment plan.

—Snake-venom weakens the heart and lowers blood pressure. Alcohol still further lowers blood tension and depresses the vitality of the white blood cells, the defenders of the body, and the agents which destroy the snake-toxins. Dr. Allen says that many a man has been killed with huge doses of whiskey instead of dying as a result of snake-poisoning.

—That is a nice, big, new picture adv. of W. J. Reif, on third page.

—"Storms and Signs" informs us that the seventeen-year locusts, predicted for this year, have already reported in southern Jersey.

—Vacation month is here. When you depart, give The Citizen your address. It will call, twice each week, and you will be glad to see it.

—The Hawley Board of Education has let the contracts for the contents for the new extension to the High school, to Frank J. Dennison of Honesdale. The old portion is to undergo repairs also. The building when completed will be handsome and up-to-date.

—Plant lice are proving to be very disastrous this year to cabbages, which are being grown in larger numbers now than ever before in Pennsylvania. Spray the plants with a solution of whale-oil soap, says State Zoologist Surface, using one pound of soap to five gallons of water.

—A young man named Foster whose business is selling carpet sweepers, went out picnicking with a young lady of Tunkhannock. Her watch-chain broke and he put the time-piece in his pocket, to carry for her. In fact he carried it so long, despite her requests for the return of her property, that she at last had a warrant issued for his arrest, and now he is in jail at Tunkhannock.

IT IS A GO!

Honesdale Old Home Week is Now Assured.

The executive committee which has in charge arrangements for an Old Home Week celebration in this place, met in City Hall, Wednesday evening and completed the preliminary arrangements for that occasion. Thirteen hundred and thirty dollars have already been pledged, which is considered by the committee sufficient encouragement to go ahead with preparations. More money will be pledged—Honesdale doesn't do things by halves, especially when the honor of Honesdale is involved in making old home week or any other public affair a success—and that the affair will be a most enjoyable and a most creditable one in all respects, is without question.

The programme of exercises as finally arranged, will soon be made known. Let everybody assist in making our Old Home Week a long-to-be-remembered celebration.

Was Accidentally Shot.

Judson Gelatt, of River street, this borough, aged nineteen years, while in an intoxicated condition, Saturday, was fooling with a revolver. The result was that, while his mother was attempting to wrest it from his grasp the revolver was discharged, the bullet entering his right hand and coming out above the wrist.
