

VILLAGE, HAMLET, FARM.

Doings in Rural Wayne.

Interesting Items Picked Up by Our Staff of Wide-Awake Correspondents

LAKEVILLE.

Newal McKane, of Hoadley, is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

David Wise is the guest of Marcus Killiam, of this place.

Miss Mame Evan and Miss Elizabeth Jones returned to their homes at Scranton, after a month's vacation at the "Reasamont."

Mr. and Mrs. Minigan, of Brooklyn, are spending their vacation at A. Gobles'.

Mary Schrader, of Leugedale, spent a few days at A. Gobles' recently.

The Lakeville ball team played some of Scranton's college boys on Sunday. Score was 13 to 2 in the home team's favor.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Woodward, of Adelia, spent Sunday recently with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Stephens.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Murphy spent Sunday with Mrs. E. C. Murphy of this place.

H. F. Haney is seriously ill at his home at this place. The last report is that he is a trifle better. Aug. 2, 1909.

BETHANY.

Wednesday was a perfect day for an outdoor festa, and all who attended Mr. and Mrs. Charles Faatz's chicken-pie supper enjoyed it to the full extent. About sixty partook of the bountiful repast and enriched the treasury over eighteen dollars.

Henry Kent, of Carbondale, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Ed. Hacker.

Rev. J. B. Cody attended Pomona Grange at Ariel this week.

Miss Clara Balloo, accompanied by Wayne Crocker, of Wilkes-Barre, is spending her vacation at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edgar Ross.

Mrs. Judson B. Faatz is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Cott and husband, from Miners Mills.

Mrs. John Strongman is spending several days in New York.

The T. I. C. girls are looking forward to ten days of great pleasure, camping at Beach Lake, and will leave on Wednesday. The club is made up of the following girls: President, Blanche Starnes; vice-president, Eva Harnes; secretary, Ella Gammell; treasurer, Edna Blake, Carolyn and Dolla Cody, Marjorie Hauser, Margaret Manning, Grace Miller, Edna Cheeseman, of Flushing, will also be one of the party. Miss Gilchrist will be the chaperon.

Edgar Anderson, of Wilkes-Barre, is spending his vacation here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Paynter and daughter, Isabelle, of Carbondale, are enjoying the cool breeze at the comfortable home of their mother, Mrs. Laura Miller.

Two Mormon elders passed through here this week distributing tracts.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Harnes are entertaining, Mrs. Harnes' brother and wife, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Winner and little son, of Boston, and Miss Grace Winner, of Pleasant Mount.

The ball game Saturday afternoon, between Seelyville and Bethany, resulted in favor of the visitors, the score being 15 to 12.

Mrs. Richard Roberts and daughter, Lucy, of Old Forge, have been visiting friends here. Aug. 2, 1909.

ALDENVILLE.

Mr. S. J. Stanton and family were guests at the home of Mr. F. H. Curtis, in Curtis Valley, Sunday.

Some of Mr. G. H. Knapp's family attended Sunday School in Curtis Valley, last Sunday.

One of Mr. W. O. Walker's hands was pierced by the tines of a fork falling from a hay mow, one day this week.

Miss Louise and Emma Smith were callers in the village on Tuesday.

Mr. Samuel Wright, of New York, is a guest at the home of John Derrick.

Anna Fitze was a caller in the village on Monday.

The Dougherties, of Jersey City, were visitors in this section last week.

Osborne Snedeker, Stanley Rainey, Everett Rainey, Jud. Fitze and Glen Wilmarth attended a dance in Pleasant Mount on Saturday night. All report a good time.

An ice cream social and dance will be held by the Aldenville base ball team Tuesday, August 10th. All are invited to attend.

MILANVILLE.

Mrs. Milton Skinner and Miss Lorena Skinner were the guests of Honesdale friends this week.

Dr. E. A. Carpenter left for Boston, Mass., on Saturday last.

Mrs. E. A. Carpenter spent Sunday in Binghamton with Mrs. Henry Lovell. Mrs. Carpenter leaves early in the week for Chicago, where she will be the guest of her friend, Mrs. Augera.

Miss Bernadine Oliver, of Deposit, N. Y., who has been visiting Milanville friends, left Monday to spend some time at Tyler Hill, with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver.

L. J. Hocker has his house filled with city people.

Mr. Will Cornell, of New York, spent Sunday with his family at their bungalow.

Mr. Herbert Magruder, of New York, arrived Saturday to spend his vacation at his bungalow.

C. N. Tyler, of Cortland, N. Y., spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. Gillette and Miss May Gillette, who have been enjoying several weeks of country solitude, left Monday for Cortland, N. Y. Aug. 4, 1909.

WAYMART.

Death seems to have invaded our community the past ten days. Six funerals in so short a period has caused gloom to pervade our community and sadness to enshroud the hearts of many sorrowful friends.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church held an ice cream festival on the school house lawn Tuesday evening, Aug. 3. It was a success socially and financially.

Rev. W. E. Davis and family will camp at Elk Lake during August.

All of our teachers but two have secured schools for the coming year. We have two excellent teachers whom we can safely recommend to those who have not yet found teachers.

There will be an examination held in the High school building, Saturday, Aug. 21, for pupils who wish to qualify for high school work. Pupils from the adjoining districts may take this examination. It will be held under Prof. Keohler's supervision. We urge all teachers who expect to take the examination for permanent certificate next June, to pursue a systematic course of home work during the whole year. Aug. 3, 1909.

WHITE MILLS.

Henry Utegg met with the misfortune to fall out of a tree on Tuesday and receive a severe cut in the head. Dr. E. B. Gavitt was called and dressed the wound.

The secret of saving money is out, you must earn more than you spend.

George W. Kimble spent Sunday in Hawley with his brother.

M. J. Decker and Wm. W. Hertel spent Sunday in Hawley.

Mr. Thomas Gill left for Harrisburg on Tuesday, to attend the Democratic State Convention. Upon his return, he is going to take a trip around the State, accompanied by Samuel Saunders of Berlin.

Hittinger & Ham spent Sunday among the Beach Lake farmers evidently to gain some information and knowledge of high grade live stock.

Several young ladies from Scranton are visiting William Weber and wife.

Minor Brown recently had one of his legs badly injured by contact with a barb wire fence. Aug. 3, 1909.

DREHER.

Newfoundland and vicinity has had and is still having a very liberal share of the summer boarder patronage and the stage coaches from Cresco and Gouldsboro do a thriving business in the passenger and baggage traffic.

Our public roads are awfully rough and dusty, but it doesn't seem to interfere with the traveller.

Haying and rye harvest is about done, and the farmer is making ready for oats harvest. The crop is short in straw but promises a fair yield in grain.

Joseph Gowger, of Northampton county, Pa., is calling on friends in Dreher and Greentown.

B. G. Cross, wife and son, B. F. Stout, wife and four children, all of Moosic, Pa., are guests of Mary Cross.

Mrs. R. M. Swartz, of Scranton, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kerr.

Miss Eleanor Thomas, of Philadelphia, is the guest of A. C. Angel and family.

Rose Angel and Mary Hause spent Sunday, August 1, in Scranton.

The ten-ton steam road roller on the state road in Greentown, Pike county, was ditched near Miller's bridge on Saturday afternoon, and it required the services of several with jack-screws for a couple of hours, to get the "big thing" on solid ground again.

F. D. Waltz has placed a concrete porch floor in front of the Newfoundland postoffice. For an amateur in the job he has done a very creditable work.

The slate for the roof on the new High school building has been sidetracked somewhere in transit, and as a consequence the roof work is held up.

Mr. and Mrs. Seig have a new baby girl added to their family, born August 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. George Correll are also entertaining their first born, a daughter, born about July 28th. A foreign laborer in the employ of G. H. Lancaster, of South Sterling, took one of Mr. Lancaster's horses from the stable sometime during Saturday evening and rode it to Tobyhanna. The man was somewhat the worse of strong drink and on reaching Tobyhanna he tied up the horse near the road, and being overcome with alcohol and sleep, he laid down nearby and slept. The horse was missing on Sunday morning and a party went in search of it. They came upon the would-be thief still asleep, and no other evidence was required to prove his guilt. He was brought to South Sterling and on Monday morning given a hearing before J. S. Smith, Esq., and later taken by constable J. B. Kranter to Honesdale for rest in the county jail until the sitting of the next grand jury. Another horse belonging to Mr. Lancaster was found dead in the stable on Sunday morning from some unknown cause. Aug. 2, 1909.

USWICK AND LAKEVILLE.

Miss Helen Crane, of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived at Uswick on Saturday to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Crane and family.

Miss Eleanor Waterson, of Brooklyn, arrived on Monday at S. R. Crane's and is calling on acquaintances at Uswick.

Edwin Waterson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived on Wednesday of last week at the home of C. W. Pennell, at Uswick, and is visiting old acquaintances here for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Karran, of Brooklyn, N. Y., formerly Miss Sadie Waterson, of Uswick, and her husband, sailed for England last week Wednesday, the latter's birthday, expecting to land on Monday. They expect to be gone about six weeks.

Wedding bells at Uswick in the near future. Invitations have been sent out.

Miss Tillie Lindan went to Philadelphia on Saturday for a visit with her parents, and other relatives there. Expects to be gone about two months.

Charles Reineke and bride, from New York, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Reineke, at this place.

Mr. Ruck, of New York, arrived at Mr. Renschler's on Friday to stay until Monday with his wife and daughter, who are boarding at that place.

Arthur Crane and John Mains are putting a new roof on Mr. Sander's barn.

Mr. C. B. Glosenger has finished haying for Mr. Renschler and is now helping Mr. Kline.

F. R. Olmsted has finished haying for Mr. Swan and is now helping Mr. J. Schleppner.

Miss Harriet Keith starts to-day for the seashore for her health. She will take the Wellbrenner children, Madeline and Dorothy, to their home on Long Island, and will then join some friends at the seashore.

Berries have been scarce this season.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carefoot, are entertaining Mrs. Edward Woodward and two children from Dunmore. Aug. 3, 1909.

TYLER HILL.

Showers are frequent now. We had a big rain Sunday night.

Martin Jensen raised his barn yesterday.

Charles Monnington has taken the agency for the Grand Union Tea Company.

Clarence Fortman made a business trip to Lake Huntington on Saturday.

The open air entertainment and musical Saturday night, was a complete success. The exercises were voted good by everyone and over forty dollars were cleared.

Sulky plows, a recent invention, are getting numerous around here. C. M. Pethick and Thos. Fortman are the owners of a couple, and Thos. Griffith has ordered one for his fall plowing.

Mary Fromer, of Damascus, was a recent guest of Sadie Welsh.

Alma Canfield spent Sunday with Hattie Siepp.

Mr. Minch preached in the school-house Sunday night, to a large audience. He will also preach on Thursday evening.

There will be a business meeting of the First Baptist church of Damascus, at that place on Saturday afternoon.

The Citizen should come to every home in this place. Aug. 3, 1909.

NEW PRESIDENT OF COLOMBIA.

Gonzales Valencia Elected to Fill Out Term of General Reyes.

Bogota, Aug. 5.—Gonzales Valencia was elected president of the republic of Colombia by the national congress to fill out the unexpired term of General Rafael Reyes, resigned. This means that he will occupy the post of chief executive for about one year.

General Jorge Iloiquin, who has been acting president of the republic, withdrew his candidacy, leaving the contest between Gonzales Valencia and Marco Fidel Suarez.

Gonzales Valencia was vice president of Colombia in 1905, but he resigned the office in March of that year. Recent dispatches from Colombia credited him with being the leader of the revolutionary movement that broke out at Barranquilla a month ago, following the departure from Colombia for Europe of President Reyes.

FACTS IN FEW LINES

All beggars in Italy must be licensed.

Rhubarb is grown extensively in China.

The Maoris of New Zealand number 42,000.

Budapest is to have a new bacteriological institute.

Over three-fourths of the people in England and Wales live in towns.

A rich Laplander sometimes keeps as many as 5,000 reindeer in his service.

The Japanese are still busy reconstructing ships captured in the war with Russia.

Stockholm will be the scene of the next Olympic games, which will be held there in 1912.

There are over thirty periodicals devoted to ghosts, visions and the supernatural generally.

There are now in England and France several establishments where butterflies are bred.

Russia's prisons are constructed to hold 90,000 prisoners. Over 180,000 are now lodged in them.

Argentina has 38,000,000 acres under cultivation, three times the area cultivated thirteen years ago.

Two-thirds of the native population of Uganda has been wiped out by the sleeping sickness in seven years.

A little boy who fell into a lake at Budapest managed to seize a swan, which brought him to shallow water.

Bank Examiner Edward P. Moxey says the great majority of bank employees in this country are absolutely honest.

Of all the European countries in only Austria and Great Britain is it the rule of the road for all travelers to keep to the left.

There were 470 boiler explosions in the United States last year, one less than the year before, but they cost 281 human lives.

It is estimated that the known supply of fertilizer in the shape of natural nitrates will be exhausted by the world's demands in less than twenty years.

Crews of British submarines are taught how to use a safety helmet and waterproof jacket designed to save them in case the submarine on which they are engaged is sunk.

The big trees of California are the oldest living things in the world. Estimates made from cross sections of some of those which have fallen show that the mature trees are more than 4,000 years old.

Almost all the towns in Siberia are having are lights for street use and incandescent lights for houses, and the larger proportion of the people in Siberia have never seen gas, which they regard as an illuminant of a past age.

The hezars in Spain have formed a trust and have agreed to try to keep all of the two centime pieces out of circulation by holding them whenever they secure any. The object of this combine is to make people give a larger coin.

The expedition organized by the American Museum of Natural History which has been exploring the Fayum desert in northern Egypt seems to have located the place of origin of the elephant in the tertiary age. Remains of the ancestral forms of elephants, called the meseritherium, were obtained.

The Swedish state railways, by way of experiment, will take over the working for a year of the large Malenjanika peat deposits in north Sweden. Should the result be as satisfactory as is expected it is understood that the state railways intend to go in for peat production on a large scale in the north of Sweden.

Professor Karl Lehmyer of Konigsberg, who died in Danzig at the age of seventy-seven, was born without arms. A special permit was granted to allow his entry into the university service. His students opened and shut doors for him, but he turned the pages of books with his mouth and could sign his name firmly with a pen held between his teeth.

What is said to be the largest sign in the world is the one which has been outlined on Yerba Buena Island, in San Francisco bay. Trenches have been dug in the side of a hill and the bottom and sides covered with a heavy coating of lime, so that the words stand out in bold relief. Each letter is forty-five feet high and the entire length of the sign is nearly 1,300 feet.

Byron while making a journey round the lake of Geneva was driven by bad weather to seek refuge at Ouchy at the Hotel de l'Ancre. Then and there he wrote "The Prisoner of Chillon" while the vision of the castle was still in mind. The hotel survives, though it is now called the Hotel d'Angleterre, and on its walls has just been placed a tablet in memory of the poet.

Hans Hubert Dietzsch, a popular member of the Berlin Lustspielhaus company, does not devote all his time to the stage. He is a sculptor of no mean order, according to a recently published account. His bas-relief of Matkovsky, which is now on exhibition, has created much favorable comment, and a bronze replica which has been placed in the Lessing House is mentioned as a "conspicuous ornament."

Mrs. Stephen H. P. Pell, wife of a prominent New Yorker, whose family has owned the old Fort Ticouderago property on the shore of Lake Champlain for more than a century, has announced the family's intention to restore the old fort. Historical data and sketches from England and France have been accumulated, so that the new structure may be identical with the old. The cost of the work is estimated at $500,000.

SPAIN SAYS CRISIS IS OVER.

The Entire Country is Officially Reported as Tranquil.

Madrid, Aug. 5.—The government has issued an official announcement saying that the crisis in Spain is now at an end and that the country is tranquil from the bay of Biscay to the Mediterranean.

Senor Solortego, a Republican senator, has arrived here from Barcelona. He says that the revolutionists during the two days they were masters of the city did not commit a single assassination or act of cruelty. The inmates of the religious institutions fled when the buildings were burned.

Among the greatest losses at Barcelona are the libraries of the Christian schools and the Scientific museum, containing together 70,000 volumes.

The terrible repressive measures of the military authorities at Barcelona have left a deep undercurrent of resentment among the masses, and fears still are entertained that the rebellion may flare up again in a new form.

Among the greatest losses at Barcelona are the libraries of the Christian schools and the Scientific museum, containing together 70,000 volumes.

The terrible repressive measures of the military authorities at Barcelona have left a deep undercurrent of resentment among the masses, and fears still are entertained that the rebellion may flare up again in a new form.

JEFFRIES OFF TO EUROPE.

Says Everything Now Depends on Jack Johnson as to Fight.

New York, Aug. 5.—Just before his departure for Europe today on the North German Lloyd liner George Washington, James J. Jeffries issued a statement that everything now depended on Jack Johnson as far as a fight between himself and the negro was concerned.

He did not seem to consider seriously Johnson's posting $5,000 in Chicago this week and said that it was up to Johnson to meet "reasonable conditions."

Aside from a sojourn at Carlstad for his health and a reunion with his wife and mother in Germany, Jeffries said he had no special plans for his European trip.

There were 470 boiler explosions in the United States last year, one less than the year before, but they cost 281 human lives.

It is estimated that the known supply of fertilizer in the shape of natural nitrates will be exhausted by the world's demands in less than twenty years.

Crews of British submarines are taught how to use a safety helmet and waterproof jacket designed to save them in case the submarine on which they are engaged is sunk.

The big trees of California are the oldest living things in the world. Estimates made from cross sections of some of those which have fallen show that the mature trees are more than 4,000 years old.

Almost all the towns in Siberia are having are lights for street use and incandescent lights for houses, and the larger proportion of the people in Siberia have never seen gas, which they regard as an illuminant of a past age.

The hezars in Spain have formed a trust and have agreed to try to keep all of the two centime pieces out of circulation by holding them whenever they secure any. The object of this combine is to make people give a larger coin.

The expedition organized by the American Museum of Natural History which has been exploring the Fayum desert in northern Egypt seems to have located the place of origin of the elephant in the tertiary age. Remains of the ancestral forms of elephants, called the meseritherium, were obtained.

The Swedish state railways, by way of experiment, will take over the working for a year of the large Malenjanika peat deposits in north Sweden. Should the result be as satisfactory as is expected it is understood that the state railways intend to go in for peat production on a large scale in the north of Sweden.

Professor Karl Lehmyer of Konigsberg, who died in Danzig at the age of seventy-seven, was born without arms. A special permit was granted to allow his entry into the university service. His students opened and shut doors for him, but he turned the pages of books with his mouth and could sign his name firmly with a pen held between his teeth.

What is said to be the largest sign in the world is the one which has been outlined on Yerba Buena Island, in San Francisco bay. Trenches have been dug in the side of a hill and the bottom and sides covered with a heavy coating of lime, so that the words stand out in bold relief. Each letter is forty-five feet high and the entire length of the sign is nearly 1,300 feet.

Byron while making a journey round the lake of Geneva was driven by bad weather to seek refuge at Ouchy at the Hotel de l'Ancre. Then and there he wrote "The Prisoner of Chillon" while the vision of the castle was still in mind. The hotel survives, though it is now called the Hotel d'Angleterre, and on its walls has just been placed a tablet in memory of the poet.

Hans Hubert Dietzsch, a popular member of the Berlin Lustspielhaus company, does not devote all his time to the stage. He is a sculptor of no mean order, according to a recently published account. His bas-relief of Matkovsky, which is now on exhibition, has created much favorable comment, and a bronze replica which has been placed in the Lessing House is mentioned as a "conspicuous ornament."

Mrs. Stephen H. P. Pell, wife of a prominent New Yorker, whose family has owned the old Fort Ticouderago property on the shore of Lake Champlain for more than a century, has announced the family's intention to restore the old fort. Historical data and sketches from England and France have been accumulated, so that the new structure may be identical with the old. The cost of the work is estimated at $500,000.

SIRES AND SONS.

Busts of Emperor Caracalla in foreign museums look like David Warfield, the actor.

Chao Ping Chun, vice president of the Chinese ministry of interior, has been ordered to retire, owing to his opium habits.

Among the regular lodgers at the quarters of the Y. M. C. A. in Washington is Senator Lorimer of Illinois. Mr. Lorimer lived at the association while a member of the house and announces that he will continue to make the association house his abode.

Mr. N. H. Jackson of Greenwich, Tex., who was eighty-two years old July 4 and is the most active merchant in the place, celebrated the fifty-ninth anniversary of his wedding June 29 and has thirty-seven grandchildren and eighteen great-grandchildren.

Mr. Whitelaw Reid, the American ambassador, is living in Dorchester House, Park lane, London, in a style befitting the American ambassador at the court of St. James, but it is costing him $150,000 a year at least, toward which a salary of $17,500 does not help much.

Hector Apollinaire is the name of a negro who was admitted to the bar in Paris a few weeks ago. He is a native of Guadeloupe, about thirty years old, tall and muscular and very black. He enjoys the distinction of being the only one of his race among the recognized lawyers of Paris.

Joseph Robinson, managing editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer and one of the oldest newspaper men in point of continuous service in Pennsylvania, has been elected honorary vice president of the Pen and Pencil club, of which he has been a member for many years. He succeeds the late Alexander K. McClure in that position.

Home Helps.

The cushioned back of a Morris chair was found valuable in the sickroom to place back of the invalid in bed.

To clean dusty carved furniture, dip a fine paint brush in paraffin oil and paint over the carving with it. You will be surprised how bright and new this will make it look.

To prevent accidents with bottles containing poison buy a dozen tiny bells and every time a bottle of poison is brought into the house tie a bell to the neck. Even in the dark the bell will tinkle its warning.

The dishwasher who would get through quickly invests in a soap shaker and a chain for cleaning pots and pans. She also has on hand over the sink a box of borax and a bottle of ammonia for cutting grease.

Law Points.