

FOR THE CHILDREN

Bachelor's Kitchen.

The players sit in a row, with the exception of one, who walks before them and asks each what she will give to help furnish the bachelor's kitchen.

Gallery of Statues.

For this game all the company leave the room with the exception of two. One of these stands like a statue.

What and Why Riddles.

What question is that to which you must always answer "Yes?" What does "y-e-s" spell?

A Common Error.

An error that is frequently made and for which there should be no excuse save that of ignorance is often said to be the result of hurried composition.

Flowers—A Game.

The company divides itself into equal sides, and each side must have a "home" in opposite corners of the lawn.

An Unwritten Sentence.

There is one sentence in the English language which cannot be written properly, though it is correct when spoken.

A Numerical Puzzle.

What can we add to nine so as to make it six? Just add "9" and you have it.

The City Garden.

I have a garden all my own. Nobody knows how it has grown.

Da feeshman he come for shave an' taka chair weath me. Baycouse I leasen for hees talk of feesh he catch, maybe.

Each day he tal one beega yarn of feesh w'at break bees pole Or pull heem from da place he seet into da feeshin' hole.

Baygosh, I like for feesh like dat! Eet must be great excite! For gat hol' feesh w'at pull you een da water wen he bite!

Popularity. They blew and blew their paper bag, They blew with all their might.

The Divorce Problem. She—Does Gladys look any different since she and her husband have separated?

Summer Resort Costumes. Sometimes you may mistaken be. No matter if you think you're cute.

His Little Joke. Percy—I—aw—wrestled fol' ovah an hour with me searf' this mornin'.

In a Hammock. Two in hammock Tried to kiss; Quickly landed

Epigram. "Father," said little Rollo, "what is an epigram?"

With Apologies. Nobody knows the cash it takes. The trouble, the worry, the bother.

Accounted For. "Isn't it strange that you occasionally hear of somebody's shooting at a balloon?"

Philanthropic. I do not care for gardening. Yet plants each year I homeward bring.

What He Left. Said She—Did you leave your heart behind you at the seashore last summer?"

Optimism. Th' world we're livin' in Is purty hard t' beat. Ev'ry rose may hev its thorn.

He Knew. Her (reading)—And so they were married and that was the last of their troubles.

New Thought in Farming. The farmers in each county seat Are wise and thrifty bonders;

Different. "Sometimes in a baseball game," remarked the observer of events and things.

The Latest. It used to be "love in a cottage" with the birds of long ago.

Very Chilling. "That's what some salesladies display when you ask to see something cheaper."

On the Sands. I always hate to pick up shells, Because one never knows

DIDN'T MATTER MUCH.

He Had Blundered Anyhow Before He Sent the Letter.

The lovelick young man ran up the steps and was met at the door by a very pretty young lady.

"Constance," he said eagerly as he held out his hand to her, "did you get my letter this morning?"

"No," carelessly returned she. "I presume Vivian took it."

"Oh, it wasn't a mistake! Anyhow, it doesn't make much difference."

Better Late Than Early. There is a certain young New York broker whose recent sad experience in endeavoring to pull the wool over his wife's eyes has led him to declare

Now, it is the broker's custom to take a 5:30 suburban train, thus enabling him to reach his home in Westchester in ample time for the early dinner that both he and his wife like.

The other day he fell. Meeting an old college mate, he yielded to the latter's entreaties for an evening in town.

THE WIFE HANDED HIM THE TELEGRAPH SLIP.

When hubby finally did show up, he observed an expression on the countenance of his spouse that argued the failure of his little fib.

"What's the trouble, dear?" he asked, with an affected nonchalance.

Without a word the wife handed him the telegraph slip, indicating with her forefinger the words:

Christening the Twins. In an English village a miner's wife presented him with twins.

"Come, come!" replied the minister "These are odd names for your children!"

Aim High. To the formation of a good character it is of the highest importance that you have a commanding object in view and that your aim in life be elevated.

Temperament Doesn't Count. They hadn't seen each other for several years, the two women.

Very Chilling. "That's what some salesladies display when you ask to see something cheaper."

On the Sands. I always hate to pick up shells, Because one never knows

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED TO THE CITIZENS FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Proposing amendments to sections eight and twenty-one of article four, sections eleven and twelve of article five, sections two, three, and fourteen of article eight, section one of article twelve, and sections two and seven of article fourteen, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, and providing a schedule for carrying the amendments into effect.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following are proposed as amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

Section 2. Amend section eight of article four of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:

Section 3. Amend section twenty-one of article four, which reads as follows:

Section 4. Amend section eleven of article five, which reads as follows:

Section 5. Amend section twelve of article eight, which reads as follows:

Section 6. Amend section two of article eight, which reads as follows:

Section 7. Amend section three of article eight, which reads as follows:

Section 8. Amend section fourteen of article eight, which reads as follows:

Section 9. Amend section one, article twelve, which reads as follows:

Section 10. Amend section two of article twelve, which reads as follows:

Section 11. Amend section seven, article fourteen, which reads as follows:

Section 12. That no inconvenience may arise from the changes in the Constitution of the Commonwealth, and in order to carry the same into complete operation, it is hereby declared that—

In the case of officers elected by the people, all terms of office fixed by act of Assembly at an odd number of years shall each be lengthened one year, but the Legislature may change the length of the term, provided the terms for which such officers are elected shall always be served until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

In the year one thousand nine hundred and ten the municipal election shall be held on the third Tuesday of February as heretofore; but all officers chosen at that election to an office the regular term of which is two years, and also all election officers and assessors chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

All officers chosen at that election to offices the term of which is now four years, or is made four years by the operation of these amendments of this schedule, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

All justices of the peace, magistrates, and aldermen, chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

All terms of city, ward, borough, township, and election division officers shall begin on the first Monday of December in an odd-numbered year.

All city, ward, borough, and township officers holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of December of that year.

All judges of the courts for the several judicial districts, and also all county officers, holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of January, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

and civil causes, with jurisdiction not exceeding one hundred dollars; such courts shall be held by magistrates whose term of office shall be six years, and they shall be elected on general election by the qualified voters at large; and in the election of the said magistrates no voter shall vote for more than two-thirds of the number of persons to be elected.

Section 12. That no inconvenience may arise from the changes in the Constitution of the Commonwealth, and in order to carry the same into complete operation, it is hereby declared that—

In the case of officers elected by the people, all terms of office fixed by act of Assembly at an odd number of years shall each be lengthened one year, but the Legislature may change the length of the term, provided the terms for which such officers are elected shall always be served until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

In the year one thousand nine hundred and ten the municipal election shall be held on the third Tuesday of February as heretofore; but all officers chosen at that election to an office the regular term of which is two years, and also all election officers and assessors chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

All officers chosen at that election to offices the term of which is now four years, or is made four years by the operation of these amendments of this schedule, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

All justices of the peace, magistrates, and aldermen, chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

All terms of city, ward, borough, township, and election division officers shall begin on the first Monday of December in an odd-numbered year.

All city, ward, borough, and township officers holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of December of that year.

All judges of the courts for the several judicial districts, and also all county officers, holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of January, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

and civil causes, with jurisdiction not exceeding one hundred dollars; such courts shall be held by magistrates whose term of office shall be six years, and they shall be elected on general election by the qualified voters at large; and in the election of the said magistrates no voter shall vote for more than two-thirds of the number of persons to be elected.

Section 12. That no inconvenience may arise from the changes in the Constitution of the Commonwealth, and in order to carry the same into complete operation, it is hereby declared that—

In the case of officers elected by the people, all terms of office fixed by act of Assembly at an odd number of years shall each be lengthened one year, but the Legislature may change the length of the term, provided the terms for which such officers are elected shall always be served until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

In the year one thousand nine hundred and ten the municipal election shall be held on the third Tuesday of February as heretofore; but all officers chosen at that election to an office the regular term of which is two years, and also all election officers and assessors chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

All officers chosen at that election to offices the term of which is now four years, or is made four years by the operation of these amendments of this schedule, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

All justices of the peace, magistrates, and aldermen, chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

All terms of city, ward, borough, township, and election division officers shall begin on the first Monday of December in an odd-numbered year.

All city, ward, borough, and township officers holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of December of that year.

All judges of the courts for the several judicial districts, and also all county officers, holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of January, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT McAFEE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.