A concrete sidewalk is about to be placed in front of Liberty Hall. P. H. Brown has the contract.

The Eagles have decided to change their headquarters. It has not been decided where the new location will be.

Freeman's orchestra held one of their popular summer socials at Lyric hall on Tuesday evening. About sixty couples were in attendance.

People who eat toadstools are now bidding farewell to earthly scenes. If you can't tell a toadstool from a mushroom, eat it. If you live, it's a mushroom.

The funeral of John Hawkey, late of Seelyville, will be held on Saturday afternoon. Services at Seelyville chapel, at 2:30 p. m., Rev. Wm. H. Swift officiating.

Krietner Brothers have been awarded the contract to erect an addition 20x20, two stories high, to the building of Paul McGranaghan, on the corner of Main and Sixth streets.

There's nothing monotonous about the weather in this latitude this season. One day we swelter and the next we are covering up our tomato vines in fear of frost.

The work of razing the old high school building, which has been purchased by Contractor R. M. Brown, will begin soon. The building was erected over fifty years ago and over four hundred pupils have graduated from the school.

Carbondale's school district is loser of $15,000 school funds by the absconding of one Henry Pierce. It is claimed that the school board has no right to offer a reward for his arrest, so the absconder goes free. That's queer, if true.

Beach Grove Grange invites the public to attend their annual picnic on Wednesday, August 18. Wm. J. Cressy, Master of State Grange, will give an address, after which Bethany and Seelyville will cross bats. Dinner will be served, beginning at 11:30 a. m. Prices, adults 35c., children 25c.

Tobacconist Eberhardt has a new addition to his working force. It is an Indian maid, gaudily attired, who will replace the old and decrepit squaw, who has extended a bunch of cigars to all passers for the past forty years. She was getting shaky, and had to get down from her pedestal. The maid is a "beaut," in her class.

Isaac Sandercock, of this place, has been awarded the contract to build a concrete bridge at Matamoros, over Driller's brook and has commenced operations. The bridge will be nearly 15 feet above the bed of the creek, will be 15 feet long and have a 20-foot driveway. It will be entirely of concrete with a floor reinforced by steel.

An announcement, important to all lovers of good music in Wayne county, and vicinity, is made by Messrs. Powell and Chandler of Scranton, that the distinguished Russian composer-conductor and concert artist, Sergei Rachmaninoff, will visit Scranton in concert in the early fall. This is a signal honor for Scranton, this being the first visit made to the United States and Canada by Rachmaninoff, which visit will cause a stir in the music world! Only a limited number of concerts will take place, (with Mr. Henry Wolfsohn as Impresario), during the months of November, December and January, 1909-1910.

The High school base ball team went to Siko on Wednesday and defeated Nelson's Cubs of that place by the score of 2-1.

There will be no preaching services in the Methodist church on Sunday next, the pastor, Rev. W. H. Hiller, having been called to Dimock, near Montrose, to preach at camp meeting. The congregation will unite with the Presbyterians and Rev. Davis Smythe, of Avoca, will occupy the pulpit.

W. C. Riffert, of Harrisburg, vice president of the Wayne Traction company, and M. A. Kelly, of West Pittston, are in Honesdale in the interest of their respective companies. Work on the Seelyville and East Honesdale sections will commence within a few days.

No Circular Mileage for Coroners.

Judge Evans, of Bloomsburg, Pa., has handed down a decision in the case growing out of the refusal of the County Commissioners to pay Coroner Brennan for three inquests, which he held in accidental deaths. It is to the effect that Coroners cannot collect circular mileage, but shall be allowed mileage only in one, and the nearest direction, at the rate of ten cents per mile.

Hang Out Your Shingle.

Many of the county treasurers throughout the state are calling attention to a provision in the mercantile law that requires all merchants subject to law to have in front of their places of business a sign with the name of the owner, or owners of company, and describing the business conducted. The fine for failure to comply with the law is $20 and the treasurers are giving this notice in order that all may have fair warning before the law is enforced.

Shoemaker's Annual Excursion and Picnic.

Local 377 of the B. & S. W. U. had its annual excursion and picnic Thursday of this week at Lake Lore. About 600 people of Honesdale took trains at 9 a. m. and 1 p. m., for the lake, and enjoyed themselves greatly, as they always do at the "Shoemaker's annual." The Honesdale band headed the parade, which occurred Wednesday evening, and also accompanied the excursionists the following morning. Amusements of various kinds, including dancing, a fine dinner and a good time, generally, was enjoyed.

Will Start Next Week.

The Honesdale Footwear Co., a new enterprise, the works of which are located in a big, bran-new brick building on East Park street, will start its wheels next week. The manager is Mr. W. H. Krantz, and that is assurance enough that it will be a great addition to the manufacturing of Honesdale. All kinds of footwear, of the best possible manufacture will be the product of this new company, which will employ a large number of skilled operators. We shall have more to say in regard to this firm when once business is in full operation.

Mayor's Court.

Joseph McNeal, of Scranton, was arraigned before Mayor John Kuhbach on Thursday morning. The prisoner was arrested by Detective Spencer on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. McNeal and Martin Farrell, of Waymart, came to town several days ago and became intoxicated. Farrell purchased a new suit of clothes, and when arrested McNeal was wearing the suit, Farrell having returned to his home in Waymart. The prisoner was sentenced to thirty days at work, under the supervision of Street Commissioner Weidner.

Good Base Ball Game.

Saturday next, August 14, a base ball game between Honesdale's new "Old Home Team" and the "Phoebe Snows" of Scranton, will take place here, and it is expected that it will be a most interesting and well-played game. The Honesdale team has been carefully selected, and is a good one. The Scranton team, every one in this locality knows, is a "hummer." All people who enjoy good ball should not fail to be on hand at Athletic Park, at 3:30 p. m., when the fun begins.

The line up of the Old Home Team is as follows: Liljquist, c.; Helling and Schuerholz, pitchers; Murphy, 1st base; Wenders, 2d base; Monaghan, shortstop, Brader, 3d base; Hattler, Tuman, Weaver, Murray, outfielders.

The Phoebe Snows represent the D. L. & W. R. R., and is one of the best teams in the Lackawanna valley.

THE LYRIC THEATRE.

"Don't Tell My Wife" to be Given Next Tuesday Evening. Nobody regrets a purchase if it is of the best stock in the line. In musical comedy the best will be in your city on Tuesday evening, Aug. 17th, at the Lyric theatre, under the name of "Don't Tell My Wife," from the pen of Howard Hall. Be sure and take a tip, purchase your share of the play and be among the satisfied customers.

The play deals with a mix up in names at a well-known Atlantic City Hotel, which spark is fanned into a blaze by the tantalizing temperament of "The Wife" who is assisted in the fun by a remarkably handsome widow. The plot is intricate and admits of great speculation.

The pony ballet is lively and fascinating and stunningly gowned, as are the many other choruses.

Death of Mrs. A. T. Hulbert. Mrs. Amelia T. Hulbert, wife of Nathan A. Hulbert, died Wednesday morning at her home, 608 Jefferson avenue, Scranton. She is survived by her husband, one son, Edward, and two daughters, Helen E. and Grace. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be private. Mrs. Hulbert had friends and relatives in this place.

Death of Henry Streeter. Henry Streeter died suddenly at his rooms in the Ward House, at Towanda, last Monday morning, aged sixty years. He was a prominent financier and member of the Bradford county bar, having been attorney for the Lehigh Valley Railroad company for many years. A few months ago he resigned that position and was chosen president of the Citizens' National Bank of that place. He is the fourth president of that institution to die while in office, the other late officials being Edward McFarlane, Col. Edward Overton and Morris Shepard, who died this year.

Mr. Streeter is survived by his aged mother. Deceased had friends in this place and vicinity.

Township Teachers Appointed.

At a meeting of the Texas township school board, the following appointments of teachers were made: Texas High school—Miss Vera Murray, principal, Miss Alice McKenna, primary.

Bunnell Hill—Miss Mary Higgins. Schoonover—Miss Marie McDermott.

Mangs—Mary Murphy. Hurds—Isabel Riely. Substitute teacher, Miss Susie McGraw.

Same Old Port of Protection.

When prices were low, people wanted prices to be high. Then when prices became high they blamed the Tariff for them, and on this as a basis all sorts of agitators and demagogues have been working over time with the result that the people have accepted many of their conclusions. But we believe this last state of mind is merely temporary. Just have patience. Do not quarrel over-much with the excited ones. Let them come to their senses gradually. England will come to a degree of protection much sooner than America will go a degree of free trade. In the face of clamor never surrender your convictions. The Burlington "Hawk Eye," the Sioux City "Journal" and the Iowa City "Republican" are using their cudgels on the clamoring ones and the Des Moines "Capital" is in the dumps. But let the one cheer up and the others drop their cudgels; the ship will right itself, for the storm will subside. And the ship will again put in the port of William McKinley and Nelson Dingley. There will be constant improvements in the port, but it will be the same old port of Protection.—Cedar Rapids "Republican."

Not so Bad.

Gwendolyn de Courtenay, the handsome society favorite, was nervously agitated. Even a blind-baggage car could see that. She paced up and down in front of the large cheval-glass in her room. Evidently she was greatly aggrieved over something. Finally her high-strung nerves got churned up to such a pitch that she lost control over herself and began to clutch and tear wildly at her hair, pulling it out in large handfuls.

Your sympathetic nature is aroused and you cry: "The poor woman is temporarily insane. Why doesn't some one stop her before she does herself bodily injury? She must be in terrible mental agony to stand the pain of pulling her hair out by the roots."

But hush! Be not too lavish with your sympathy, friend. Up to now Gwendolyn has only pulled off fourteen pounds of puffs, three miles of interlocking switches and a few detachable curls. She has some distance to go yet before she touches the real, cross-your-heart hair. Gwendolyn is merely distracted because her maid cannot get her floating, hirsute equipment on in becoming array. She is simply getting ready for a fresh start!—Puck.

Sweet Cucumber Pickles.

Slice the cucumbers and lay in strong brine for three days, then drain and lay in fresh water for a day. Line a kettle with grape leaves and arrange the cucumbers in it in layers, strewing a pinch of alum over each layer. Cover with cold water, put over the top layer of cucumbers three layers of the grape leaves, fit on the lid and steam the pickles at the side of the range for six hours. Drain and throw into cold water and when firm drain again and pack into jars. Fill each jar with boiling vinegar that has been seasoned with a cupful of sugar to each quart, eight black peppers, eight whole cloves, six blades of mace and six allspice. Seal the jar while still overflowing. Set aside several months to ripen before using.

And the Band Played On.

At Lake Winola, Monday last, at the military ball, at Hotel Clifton, which was attended by about eight hundred people a panic was occasioned by one of the verandas of the hotel giving away. The crash came at about 11 o'clock, when the festivities were at their height. No one was hurt, but all were frightened and, but for the presence of mind of "Pop" Alexander, the leader of the band in attendance, it might have been worse. He calmly gave out "Guard Mounting" and the band played, stilling the shrieks of frightened females, the yells of timid men, and restoring confidence. Tally one for "Pop."

A Strong Bank.

We have before us a statement of the First National Bank of Hawley, showing resources of nearly $600,000. This must be a source of gratification to those interested in this institution, whether stockholders or depositors, to know of the remarkable financial strength of this bank. A careful perusal of this statement will account for the reason that this bank is considered by the National banking authorities one of the most conservative and strongest in the state of Pennsylvania. Only in existence six years, it has steadily improved its condition until to-day the absolute security which it gives its depositors is a great help to the prosperity of Hawley and its surrounding territory.
