LOCAL MENTION.
—Do you owe for your paper? If so, kindly remit.
—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Herzog on Sunday, a daughter.
—Hawley has three cases of diphtheria, all in the family of Wm. Raugon.
Miss Margaret Siebold, of Carbondale, was the guest of Waymart friends last week.
—The moon-sign weather prophets who said rain would come with the "change" hit it surely this time at least.
—The ladies of the Methodist church will furnish dinner and lunch for 200 firemen on Wednesday of Old Home Week.
—At a meeting of the High School Alumni, held last week, plans were formulated for a banquet, to be given "Old Home Week."
—The rain which fell this week was most welcome, but it did not wet very deep. Two inches below the surface, the soil will be found dry in most places.
—Hartman, the tailor, who disappeared from Honesdale Aug. 5th, is still among the missing. Mrs. Hartman is closing up his business affairs.
—Preparations for the Old Home Week celebration here are progressing. Every one who has duties to perform to make the event successful, is busily engaged.
—The following marriage license was granted Tuesday by Prothonotary M. J. Hanian: Edward F. Bader and Mary A. Jaynes, both of Honesdale.
—"The Don't Tell My Wife" show at the Lyric on Tuesday night, was not just what the good-sized audience anticipated. It might have been worse.
—Weather-wise people predict hot weather for the balance of this month and during September. We can endure a little warm weather during the shortening days. We've had but little, this season.
—Rev. Dr. Henry Tuckley, superintendent of the Binghamton District of the Wyoming conference, is suffering from a stroke of paralysis which he sustained while at Dimock camp-meeting, Tuesday last.
—After four days of rain and gloomy sky, the sun once more smiles upon this section. The storm was general in the Middle Atlantic and New England States. It was very much like a September equinoctial.
—Dr. H. B. Ely, of this place, assisted Dr. E. B. Garvitt Wednesday in setting a fractured leg of William, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tuman. The limb was placed in a cast. It was broken in two midway between the hip and knee.
—It is proposed that instead of the unsanitary drinking cups on railroad cars, that cups of paper, be placed in a penny-slot machine, for the dry passenger. That is good enough. Now provide clean drinking water and clean tanks and the public will not wrangle about the cent-a-piece cups.
—A Honesdale lady was yesterday complaining to her milkman about the thin condition of the milk served her. The milkman, in a jocular mood, explained that it was entirely due to dry weather, and said that even the cows felt so sorry about their product, that they wept. "That's bad," said the lady, "but please don't let them cry into my can any more."
—The announcement is made of the marriage of a well-known newspaper man, formerly of Scranton but now of Philadelphia, Mr. Richard J. Beemish, to Miss Maud Wetherly, daughter of Mrs. William Wetherly, of Philadelphia. Their wedding tour will include France, Switzerland, and Germany. Mr. Beemish is a writer of good verse and at one time was a co-laborer with Engel Protheroe in some important musical works. Mr. Beemish supplying the theme in verse to Mr. Protheroe's melody and harmony.

Honesdale has one case of typhoid fever, that of Charles E. Heick, of Green street.
—The new U. S. cent does not, it is said, fit the penny-in-the-slot machines. That is probably because honest Abe's face is on it.
—The Modern Woodmen of Bethany, will entertain their friends on Wednesday evening, August 25, on the square. Haine's band will furnish music during the evening and refreshments will be served. The public is invited.

Found Dead.
At about nine o'clock last Tuesday morning, the lifeless body of W. B. Kinney, a prominent business man of Orson, was found lying, face downward, in only a few inches of water in the creek at that place, nearly opposite his residence. A coroner's jury was impaneled to investigate the cause of his death, and decided that he came to his death by falling in a fit at the place where found.
Deceased was well known and greatly esteemed in his neighborhood.
Plenty of Coal, as Yet.
In a report just issued by the United States geological survey some exceedingly interesting statistics showing the amount of coal in the anthracite and bituminous fields of this State originally and now, is given.
The estimates of the geological survey places the amount of coal originally in the anthracite fields at 21,000,000,000 short tons, and in the bituminous fields at 112,574,000,000 short tons. There is approximately 16,970,000,000 tons of anthracite left in the ground, and more than 189,000,000,000 tons of bituminous.
According to the report the production of coal in Pennsylvania in 1908 amounted to 200,448,231 short tons, having a spot value of $276,995,152. This includes 74,347,102 long tons of anthracite valued at $158,178,849, and 117,179,527 short tons of bituminous, valued at $118,816,303. The aggregate production of both anthracite and bituminous coal in Pennsylvania was less in 1908 than in 1907, the aggregate of both kinds shows a decrease of 25,858,408 short tons and $42,552,930 in value.

At the same time, an elaborate display of fireworks will take place from the summit of Irving Cliff, which is near by. These will be among the very interesting features of the celebration.
New Mail Routes.
A new mail route will be established between Honesdale and Hoadley railroad station. Mail will be carried five days during the week. On Saturday the mail will leave Honesdale on the 7:10 east train. The mail will be carried only one way, leaving Honesdale at 6:50 p. m. and arrive at Hoadley's at 8:05, connecting with the train from Hawley to Scranton. Until Aug. 31, sealed proposals will be received at the postoffice of the assistant postmaster General at Washington for carrying the mail from Sept. 13, 1909, to June 30, 1913.
HYMENEAL.
On Wednesday evening Miss Mary Jaynes and Edward Bader were united in marriage at St. John's Lutheran parsonage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Hopp. The couple was attended by Miss Ruth Lord and John Kimble. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lord, of Main street. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bader are popular young people of Honesdale, and they received many beautiful gifts from their large circle of friends. They will reside in furnished rooms on West street.

Resigned His Position.
On Friday evening, "Christy" Rabbit was arrested by officer John Canivan and placed in the borough lock-up. On Saturday he was given a hearing before Burgess John Kuhnback, on the charge of drunkenness and vagrancy, and was sentenced to thirty days at hard labor on the streets of the borough. Officer Canivan took his prisoner to West street and placed him in charge of Street Commissioner Weidner. Rabbit awaited his chance, and when Mr. Weidner was not looking, he "beat it" over the hills and has not been seen hereabout since that time. His coat was left hanging on a street post near the place where he was working. Rabbit is a well-known character of this place. Some time ago he inherited about fourteen hundred dollars and spent four months in enjoying himself, taking pleasure trips and entertaining friends.
Shot His Mother Then Went to a Saloon.
Enraged because his mother charged him with drunkenness and idleness, Frank Clark, aged 34 years, shot her with a revolver on Monday night at the family home, 338 South Ninth avenue, Scranton. The bullet entered the right arm between the elbow and the shoulder.
After the shooting Clark went to Moffit's saloon at the corner of Ninth avenue and Luzerne street. Neighbors who heard the shooting ran into the house and found the mother, Mrs. Margaret Clark, bleeding profusely at the arm.
Hurrying to the scene in the police patrol the officers, after a short search, found Clark at Moffit's saloon. They hurried him to the West Side station, where he was locked up.
Frank Clark is a son of James Clark, who formerly resided in Honesdale, and kept a grocery store on South Main street.
New Fire Company.
On Wednesday evening a number of young men met at the town hall and organized a fire company by electing Robert Murray, president; William Katz, vice president; Leon Katz, secretary; John Wasman, treasurer; John Richert, foreman; Leo Theobald, 1st assistant; Edward Hand, second assistant; J. Deemer and A. W. Abrams compose the board of trustees.
The new fire company starts with a membership of thirty-five. At a recent meeting of the town council the latter organization offered to furnish equipment for a fire company if organized. A number of young men from down town took up the proposition and organized the company. Headquarters will be secured. The old Delaware & Hudson office, near the canal bridge, will likely be the place.

Fair Rates.
E. W. Gannell, secretary of the Wayne County Agricultural society, received a schedule of reduced rates on the Delaware & Hudson railroad for the coming fair, which will be held October 4-7 inclusive. The tickets will be good on any train and for October 5, 6 and 7th. Special trains will leave each evening on these different days at 7 o'clock from the Delaware & Hudson depot.
The schedule:
From Wilkes-Barre to Honesdale, 1:15; Scranton, 30 cents; Carbondale, 60 cents; Waymart, 55 cents.

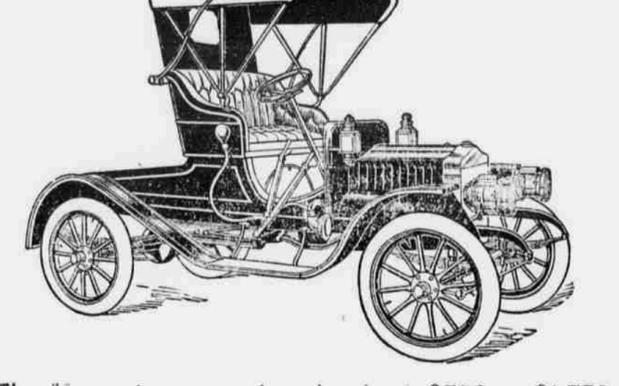

Police Magistrate W. S. Miller, of Scranton, sentences boys who steal pears, apples, etc., to a "good, sound, spanking" by the mother, and sees that the sentence is properly executed. "Oh, wise Judge—most upright Judge!"
OBITUARY.
Mrs. Elizabeth Miller died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gray, of South Main street, on Thursday morning. Deceased was ninety-four years of age. She was born in England and came to this country about forty-five years ago. Mrs. Miller's home is in Brooklyn, but she has been visiting relatives at this place since June. About a week ago she suffered a stroke of paralysis from the effects of which she did not recover. The funeral will be held to-morrow (Saturday). The following grand-children are her survivors: Mrs. Abram Decker and Mrs. Charles Gray, both of this place.
—Don't fail to attend Freeman's dance at the Lyric Theatre next Friday night. All will have a good time.
