

VILLAGE, HAMLET, FARM.

Doings in Rural Wayne.

Interesting Items Picked Up by Our Staff of Wide-Awake Correspondents

LAKEVILLE.

Miss Myrtle James, on Monday, accompanied her sister, Mrs. D. A. Smith, to her home at Schenectady, N. Y., the latter having spent three weeks with relatives here.

Miss Ada Morris, of Sugar Notch, is the guest of her cousin, Ward Hickey, of this place.

James Sheeley left on Sunday, the 14th, for Scranton, where he has employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrigan who have been spending their summer vacation of two weeks at the "Reunion," returned to their home at Brooklyn, N. Y., on Tuesday.

Jack Hawker returned to his home at Honesdale last week, after spending a week at A. Gehle's.

George Cortright, a well-known young man, who died at the Hillside Home, was brought to this place for burial on Saturday. The relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

Grace James left on Tuesday for her home at Sugar Notch, after spending a month with relatives at this place.

Aug. 17, 1909.

USWICK AND LAKEVILLE.

George Cortright died on Wednesday, August 11th, at the Hillside Home.

His mother, Mrs. John Ruescher, of Uswick, and daughter, Lulu, of Honesdale, went to Scranton on Thursday morning, where they were met by another daughter, Mrs. Frank Hess, of Scranton. They brought the remains to Uswick on Friday afternoon for burial in the family plot, at 2 o'clock. Deceased was born at Uswick, about 33 years ago, where he lived until about eight years ago when he left home and worked at different places and finally went to Scranton. He was taken to Hillside Home about a year ago. He is survived by his mother, three sisters, and two brothers, viz: Mrs. Frank Hess, of Scranton, Miss Matilde, of Hillside Home, and Miss Lulu of Honesdale; William, of Ariel, and Frank, who lives at Elwyn, Pa., at the home of the feeble-minded.

There were no services in the M. E. church at this place on Sunday, on account of Quarterly meeting service at Paupac.

Mr. Harold E. Crane, of Uswick, came home from Scranton on Wednesday of last week and returned to Scranton a good position as auditor for the D. L. & W. Co. He is working in the office of the new D. L. & W. depot. He will be very much missed by his friends at Uswick and Lakeville.

Miss Helen Crane and friend, Miss Eleanor Waterson, returned to Brooklyn, N. Y., on Sunday.

We are pleased to hear that Mrs. H. W. Clark, of Paupac, is a little better. She has been quite ill.

There was a dance at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. John Reer, of Arlington, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Miller, of Dunmore, visited her sister, Mrs. John Mains, of Uswick, last week.

Mrs. John Mains and sister, Mrs. Miller, visited another sister, Mrs. Frank Sheek, of Pink, on Thursday.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Unger, of Bone Ridge, were invited to spend Sunday at their pleasant home. They report having had an enjoyable time.

WAYMART.

There will be a musical held in the Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening. Proceeds are to be applied to fund for fixing the church.

Mrs. U. U. Pierson is entertaining relatives from New Jersey.

W. J. Doyle spent Sunday in Wilkes-Barre.

Merle Danque has returned home after spending the past six weeks with her aunt at Stillwater.

Wanda Schaffter, a trained nurse from Carbondale, has returned after spending her vacation with her parents here.

Rev. George Merrill and family, of New Jersey, are visiting at Dr. F. Corson's.

Genevieve and Hunting Lord are spending several days at Lake Chatauqua, N. Y.

The Waymart baseball association will hold an ice cream social on the school house lawn in the near future. Let there be a large crowd to greet the boys' first attempt.

Aug. 18, 1909.

BETHANY.

Howard Johns, of Forest City, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Johns.

Harry Pethick and son, Harry, of Hawley, spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. L. Pethick.

Carrie Cody has been elected teacher of the Cold Springs school.

An ice cream social will be held Friday evening on the lawn of the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. I. J. Many, Mrs. Kate Clemo, and Mrs. Amos Ward, left Monday to attend the Beulah campmeeting near Allentown.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will serve supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Webb, Wednesday, August 25th. A conveyance will be at the store to take anyone desiring to attend.

The Woodmen will hold an ice cream social on the Square on Wednesday evening, Aug. 25th. The band will be in attendance.

Lois W. B. Signor is on his vacation so there will not be any service on Sunday morning in the Methodist church. Prayer meeting and Saturday school the same as usual.

Mrs. Fortense Watt, daughter, Mrs. Harold Crocker, and children of Wilkes-Barre, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rosa.

The T. L. C. girls returned on Saturday from Bench Lake, and such many friends were glad to see them back. They spent a very pleasant ten days and were nicely located in Mrs. Wheeler's comfortable home.

The three days of rain has been very acceptable.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Paatz and son, Charles, were among the number at the picnic at Third Pond last Wednesday.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will hold its annual picnic at Third Pond, Friday, Aug. 27.

Aug. 17, 1909.

STERLING.

We are now having a few showers and are in hopes that we will soon have rain enough to fill the springs which are very low.

On the 15th Rev. G. A. Warburton preached at Zion and will also lecture on "Marriage" on Tuesday evening. Rev. Warburton is a very entertaining speaker and we were all pleased to meet him again. Rev. and Mrs. Warburton are guests at Mrs. J. B. Phillips.

The Sunday school social held on the 14th passed off very pleasantly and a goodly number was present.

On the 18th the Ladies' Aid met for dinner with Mrs. Bay Stevens and reports say they had a very good time. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. A. C. Howe's on the 1st of September.

The I. O. O. F. and the P. O. S. of A. expect to picnic on the 27th.

Mrs. J. A. Gilpin improves slowly.

John M. Catterson has been a fixture under the weather for the past week and Dr. Simons was in attendance. His son, Dr. Charlton, was down to see him from Susquehanna county.

We were pleased to see Abram Garris out to church again on Sunday.

Misses Lenora and Letitia Cliff, of Scranton, and Miss Clara Cliff, of Philadelphia, are guests of the Misses Cliffs this week.

J. E. Cross is paying 30 cents per dozen, cash, for eggs, which, we think, is a remarkable price for this time of year; also 18 cents per pound for chickens.

Miss Propst, of Archibald, is the guest of Myrtle Cross.

Prof. J. Creveling, of East Stroudsburg, is spending a few days at P. W. Gillmer's.

Aug. 17, 1909.

TYLER HILL.

Rain has reached us at last. The dust of the past few days has beaten all past recollections.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin and son, Robert, of New York City, are guests of the Tyler Hill House. Mr. and Mrs. Custer, who have been staying at the same place, returned home on Sunday.

E. C. Oliver's guests were increased Sunday by the arrival of two new boarders.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy Johnston spent Sunday at Lake Huntington, where they went to visit their son, Joseph, who is employed at Richard Schwabe's of that place.

There was a picnic and dance in Jacob Welsh's grove on Tuesday night.

Cora Ellison, who has been teaching at Cold Springs, on the Hudson, is visiting her brother, Perry Ellison, of this place.

Howard Welsh had a barn raising on Saturday. Peter Griffith and Charles Mitchell are doing the carpenter work.

A number of this vicinity were blueberrying at Beach Lake on Monday, Aug. 9th. The berries are 4 cents a quart in the field and 10 and 12½ cents picked.

Oats are loading fairly well this year but there is not a great deal of straw. Buckwheat looks rather slim in this section; but perhaps this rain will fetch it on.

Fred Greeley is again working at the Laurel Lake House.

Mrs. George Jarvis and daughter, Emma, who have been visiting R. D. Minch, returned home to Camden last week.

Mrs. Thos. Griffith entertained a number of Boyd's Mills relatives at supper on Friday night.

Mel Mitchell and Porter Ross are painting the D. and C. bridge across the Delaware.

Imelda Brown and Dorothy Welsh, both of Binghamton, are visiting friends at this place.

Rev. R. D. Minch preached on Sunday evening, at the Tyler Hill school house.

Thos. Griffith has a sulky plow which tips the beam at just 400 pounds.

Milk is now three cents a quart, the highest it has ever been for August. Better times are coming for the farmers.

ALDENVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stranahan and son, Darwin, and Mr. and Mrs. George Wulf, spent Sunday at Lake Lodore.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, Mr. Bunnell of Pleasant Mount, and Mrs. Carl Guimino, of Peckville, were guests at the home of John Derrick, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanton, of Waymart, were guests at the home of their son, S. J. Stanton, last Sunday.

Mrs. Dora Bachman and son, Adolph, of Philadelphia, are guests at the home of Mrs. Bachman's daughter, Mrs. James Stranahan.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Fitz and family spent Sunday in Bethany.

Grace Wilmarth, who has been visiting in Honesdale and Carbondale, returned home on Saturday.

Why don't you read the Citizen? Subscribe at once. It is better than it used to be.

The Misses Miller, of Newburg, are visiting at the home of Anna Fitz.

Johnson Fitz expects to take a trip north soon.

Orbene Snedeker is working at Matamoras.

The condition of C. H. Wilmarth, who was taken sick last Saturday night, is much improved.

We hear that Everett Rainey has secured a good position in New York City.

Barker's Vaudeville Co. arrived in town Tuesday. They played to a good-sized audience in Fitz's hall Tuesday evening.

A base ball game was played between Aldenville and Bethany at Bethany, last Saturday, and resulted in favor of Bethany by a score of 10 to 5. Two errors made in the eighth inning by Aldenville players brought in six runs for Bethany and lost the game. Our boys expect to play at Indian Orchard next Saturday.

Aug. 18, 1909.

WILSONVILLE.

The main theme of conversation among the pleasure seekers of Hawley, just now, is a trip up the Paupack. There are several gasoline launches kept at the landing here ready at any time to carry passengers to Tafton, Down's Landing, Sommers, Lynn's, and Rowan's.

The prices range from 10 to 30 cents for a trip up and back. Special rates made to families and parties.

Nearly every day in the week can be seen picnickers traveling towards Wilsonville with bundles and baskets of provisions, to spend a day of quietude and rest under the beautiful trees on the bank of this stream, many remaining over night, sleeping in tents which they carry with them.

One of the picnic grounds is at "Down's Landing," under the hemlocks, a very beautiful place indeed. We understand the Paupack boating club and others are negotiating for the purchase of this lot, which contains about three acres. If the deal is consummated it will be divided into small lots and several bungalows will be built along the river, which will greatly enhance the charms of the stream. The Red Men of Hawley held their picnic at the above place on Wednesday.

Mrs. Wm. Masten and son, Edward and James, passed Monday last with Pike county relatives.

Byron Tuttle and David Hopkins of Ashley, arrived on Sunday morning to pass a few days with their wives, who have spent the summer as occupants of the Spinner cottage.

Mr. Tuttle will move his family to the above named place this week.

Mrs. Gelhart, an esteemed elderly lady of about 82 years of age, who passed the greater part of her life at this place, died at the home of her son-in-law, George Atkinson, at Hawley, on Friday last. The funeral will be held to-day at 1 o'clock at the house, Rev. B. P. Ripley officiating.

Mrs. Kate Foss and son, of Ashley, were entertained by Mrs. Byron Tuttle and Mrs. David Hopkins at the Spinner cottage on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Aug. 18, 1909.

WHITE'S VALLEY.

Mrs. W. H. Flite, son and daughter, of Newark, are visiting at O. C. Miller's.

Mrs. E. W. Squires, of Peckville, is the guest of relatives and friends here. Mrs. Squires, formerly Mary Etta White, spent her childhood days at "The Maples," now owned by H. L. Fisher.

Mrs. John Ronche, son Burton, and daughter Romaine, were guests at the former's home. Mrs. M. G. Stark's last week.

Miss Florence Gardiner of Lestershire, N. Y., and Miss Minnie Bucklish, of Aldenville, are being entertained by Mrs. Henry Clift.

Dr. and Mrs. LeRoy Perkins and son Gordon, returned to Forest City after spending several days at D. E. Hacker's.

Field Day was a social and financial success. The treasury of the Steward's Fund netted $122.

Miss Rena Stark is spending a few days at home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Leonard and children returned to New York city last Friday.

A party of young men left to-day for Rock Lake, where they will camp for two weeks.

Mr. Nelson Huckins was a guest several days last week, at Wm. Glover's.

Mrs. G. N. Bonham, Mrs. E. W. Squires, Mrs. H. W. White, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonham, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Fisher, son Mark and daughter, Clara, Mr. and Mrs. Gail E. White, Miss May Glover, Mrs. Nelson Hutchins, Miss Helen Odell, Messrs. Fred and Harold White, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clift, and their guests spent Saturday fishing, and enjoyed supper on the bank of the Miller reservoir.

Mr. Nelson Crossman recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Crossman.

Miss Josephine Barthomew, of Maple Grove, has returned home, after visiting at Miss Anna May Hauser's.

Mr. E. M. Horton is ill at present writing.

H. W. White made a business trip to Scranton last week.

A medicine show will be given in the hall the present week and members of the company will be entertained at "The Stone."

Mrs. Laura Coyne left Thursday to visit relatives in Susquehanna and Pittston.